U.S. to Stress Power to Reds

Rusk Backs Declaration That Nation Has Strength to Crush Any Aggressor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, backing a Pentagon official's declaration that the United States has the retaliatory power to crush any aggressor, says any U.S. approach to negotiation with the Soviet Union would be from a position of strength.

Rusk emphatically identified himself Sunday with the assessment of U.S. military power by Roswell L. Gilpatric, deputy secretary of defense. In a speech Saturday night, Gilpatric said the United States "has a nuclear retaliatory force of such lethal power that an enemy move which brought it into play would be an act of self-destruction on his part."

Feels All Should Know

Appearing on a television interview program — ABC — "Issues and Answers" Rusk was asked what made it possible now for the administration "to speak out so confidently and positively" on U.S. military power.

"I think this is a point about which there ought to be more general public understanding, because when you are in problems of negotiation, the question inevitably comes up from time to time whether you are negotiating from a position of strength or of weakness or whether you have cause to be nervous or confident," Rusk replied.

"The point is that the United States and its allies are strong. Mr. Khrushchev must know that we are strong, and he does know that we are strong."

Speech Sanctioned

At the same time, Rusk discounted speculation that the U.S. position had hardened in its approach to a Berlin settlement.

Rusk said he went over the speech with Gilpatric before the defense official delivered it at a meeting of the Business Council at Hot Springs, Va.

Even before Rusk made public his approval of Gilpatric's statement, it was obvious that the speech was prepared with the sanction of the White House and State Department. In answer to a reporter's questions, a Pentagon spokesman said Saturday that the Gilpatric text had been given "the highest possible clearance."

Early U. N. Vote Seen on Nuclear Weapon Test Ban

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —U.N. members neared a vote today on whether their first appeal against nuclear weapon tests should be against all of them or just against the Soviet Union's threatened 50-megaton blast.

Denmark proposed that the 101-nation Political Committee vote first on a seven-nation resolution appealing to the Soviet government not to explode the giant bomb which Premier Khrushchev last week said probably would be touched off by the end of the month.

India Makes Proposal

India wants the committee to vote first on its resolution urging all atomic powers to refrain from all further nuclear tests until a test-ban agreement is reached.

Britain and the United States are sponsoring a third resolution urging resumption of their negotiations with the Soviet Union for a test ban and calling for a progress report to the U.N. Disarmament Commission by next March. This resolution was submitted

Special Session Due Nov. 9 on Shelters

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Legislature meets in special session Nov. 9 to act on nuclear-fallout protection for 4 million students.

Gov. Rockefeller proposed his new program as the top item on the agenda of the session, in which the Legislature also will redraw congressional district lines and consider expanded benefits to New Yorkers on active duty in the armed forces.

Approval Expected

Sen. Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney said he expected the fallout-shelter program would be approved without much controversy.

The State Education Commissioner, James E. Allen Jr., said he had no reservations about the program, although there were many unanswered questions.

One of the unanswered questions was the cost of the program. Neither Allen, Mahoney nor Rockefeller's aides would estimate the cost of providing shelters in the estimated 6,000-plus school buildings throughout the state.

Would Give State Aid

The key part of Rockefeller's new program, which has bi-partisan support, is state aid to public and private schools and colleges, for construction of fallout shelters.

A spokesman for the governor said leaders believed the program would not violate the constitutional ban on allocating state funds to sectarian schools.

Under the present plan, the money would go to the State Civil Defense Council, which would buy shelters in the school buildings and retain jurisdiction over them. Initiative for shelter construction would rest with the schools.

Mahoney said "we have an obligation to do something about" protecting the students.

Will Ask Help

Allen, in Syracuse, said Sunday he would ask education leaders to help him draft the shelter bill.

He said he was anxious to see the plan "accomplished with the minimum disruption of educational goals and plans, consistent with the maximum provision for protection."

In a telephone talk with a newsman Sunday, Mahoney estimated that the special session, which Rockefeller called Saturday, would last two days. But the Buffalo Republican added that the Republican - controlled legislature

New Time-Law In Effect This Year for Voting

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) —New York's new time-off-to-vote law will be effective in next month's general election for the first time.

The law, which limits the amount of time a worker can leave the job to vote, was passed by the 1960 Legislature. But it did not become effective until January of this year so that the controversial statute would not figure in the presidential election last fall.

Under previous law, all workers could take off two hours to vote. Under the new statute, a worker is not entitled to time off if the polls are open for four consecutive hours before he starts work or after he stops work.

Considered Sufficient

The four hours are considered sufficient time to vote.

If an employe does not have those four hours, he is entitled to up to two hours off with pay.

East German Police Blamed by Gen. Clay For Border Trouble

Soldiers Go In for Lightner

3 Patton Tanks Back Up Action

BERLIN (AP) — Gen. Lucius D. Clay today blamed Communist East German police for "irresponsible and illegal behavior" causing an incident on the border involving U.S. troops.

Taylor, President Kennedy's special envoy in Berlin, spoke up after a squad of U.S. troops twice marched into Red-ruled East Berlin Sunday night with bayonets fixed to escort E. Allan Lightner Jr., top State Department official in Berlin. East German police had stopped Lightner's car. The East Germans did not try to interfere with the U.S. soldiers.

Tanks Stand Ready

The U.S. soldiers were backed up by three Patton tanks that moved up to the border. The tanks stood guard through the night but were withdrawn this morning. But East German police at the border were reinforced.

The East German police at the checkpoint, who usually are armed only with pistols, were carrying submachineguns.

To Get Machine Guns

A police spokesman said submachine guns will also be given to policemen at "certain points" of the 25-mile sector border, dividing Berlin.

West Berlin police so far had been equipped with pistols and along the zonal border some police carried carbines.

The behavior of the East German people's police, "created the incident and forced the United States to send a military escort into the Soviet sector to assist the U.S. minister in exercising his right of free entry and free movement in the Soviet sector," the statement said.

Lightner is deputy chief of the U.S. mission, ranking behind the U.S. ambassador to West Germany. As top State Department official in Berlin, he holds the rank of minister.

Protest Expected

Protests were expeced from the Communists against the action of the American troops in escorting Lightner into East Berlin.

Lightner, driving to an East Berlin theater with his wife, was stopped by East German Vopos — People's Police— when he refused to show his identification papers.

6th Session Starts After Antiparty Out

MOSCOW (AP) —The Soviet Communist party's 22nd congress went into its sixth session today after delegates were assured that the so-called antiparty group will not be allowed to rise again.

Premier Khrushchev's economic expert, Alexei Kosygin, took up the condemnation Saturday of the group led by ex-Premier Georgi Malenkov and ex-Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov. Khrushchev revived the subject Tuesday, and speakers each day since have been echoing him.

Those Days Over

While extolling Khrushchev for his peaceful coexistence policy, Kosygin emphasized that the days of the "personality cult"—as exemplified by the adulation of Stalin—were over.

Kosygin, a member of the ruling party Presidium, told the delegates that the Molotov-Malenkov faction exposed in 1957 is not being given another raking over out of fear.

Kosygin said, "Our party is strong and united as never before.

"But we are doing this so as to show again to the party and people where the personality cult leads, what irrevocable damage the antiparty group could have inflicted to the party and government. We want the lessons of history never to be forgotten."

Rocky Names Group to Study State Compensation Problem

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) —Gov. Rockefeller said today he hoped to end controversy over the state workmen's compensation law "by bringing together men. . . .from labor, business and government who are dedicated to the objectives we all share for this program."

The governor named a 10-member committee to study the law, which provides aid to injured or disabled workers.

Earlier, Harold C. Hanover, state AFL-CIO president, charged that more than 50 cents of every dollar in compensation payments went for "overhead, commissions, administrative expenses and exhorbitant profits for the private insurance carriers."

Shows Personal Concern

Hanover, in a speech prepared for the State AFL-CIO convention said the state, knowingly or not, was "administering an insurance company compensation law and a broker-compensation law, rather than a compensation law for workmen."

Rockefeller, told the labor convention his record was "evidence of my deep personal concern for the on-the-job safety of the working man and woman in this state."

In a prepared speech, the governor said that under his administration, maximum benefits were increased from $45 to $50 a week and coverage was extended to 390,000 additional workers.

Rockefeller appointed Victor Vorella, executive vice president of Rockefeller Center and the

Levitt Would Scrap Aid To Schools, Change Plan

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Comptroller Arthur Levitt backed a proposal today that the state scrap its aid to education formulas and instead contribute a percentage of every dollar spent by local school boards.

"By contributing a percentage of every educational dollar..., the state will not only keep up-to-date its educational support, it will also put an end to the annual legislative squabble over the extent of additional state aid, and eliminate the need for special aid programs," he said.

Levitt made the comments in a speech prepared for delivery at the 42nd annual convention of the New York State School Boards Association.

"If we believe in local initiative integrity," Levitt said, "we must be willing to back the choice made by the local community."

In backing the proposal of the Educational Conference Board, Levitt said he believed "that a community willing to put a larger than average effort into improving its schools should be encouraged through the provision of additional state aid."

Levitt disagreed, however, with the board's proposal to retain real-property values as a sole determinant of the state's share of education costs.

He said "consideration should be given to having the level of personal incomes of residents of the school district incorporated as an index in determining ability to pay."

He said, however, he was not proposing additional income taxes.

In a speech Sunday night, James E. Allen Jr., state education commissioner, told the 4,000 school board members that educators must lead the effort to eliminate segregation and assure equal educational opportunities in schools.

"If we do not take the lead," he warned, "we will find decisions on educational questions being made by others—we will find ourselves forced into courses of action which are not educationally sound."

Allen also endorsed Gov. Rockefeller's proposal for construction of fallout shelters in schools.

In another speech, the executive dean of Nassau Community College, Mineola, declared that the slogan "Better Red than Dead" was "the denial of character and the acceptance of defeat."

Dr. Marvin A. Rapp said that to fight this concept, "Americans must so live their personal lives that our national purpose will reflect" a profound belief in the dignity of man.

Buzzanco Faces Contempt Action for Keeping Junk

Further court action in an attempt to get Andy Buzzanco, of Abeel Street, to comply with a zoning board ruling and remove from his premises an assortment of second-hand and deteriorated articles is due in Supreme Court, special term Nov. 3, it was learned today.

Affidavits already served, it was noted, allege that Buzzanco is, in fact, operating a junk yard, and that continuation of such operation constitutes fire and health hazards.

Seventh Ward Alderman Frank C. Sass, announced Saturday that proceedings have been instituted to hold Buzzanco in contempt of court and to punish him for it. They were instituted by Attorney George A. Beck, as chairman of the local zoning board.

The proceedings arise out of earlier Zoning Board decision and order requiring Buzzanco to remove from his premises at 257 Abeel Street all of the items stored thereon with certain exceptions and cease and desist using Block Park for any personal or business uses. It was reported he had parked trucks there.

Upon Buzzanco's failure to abide by the Zoning Board decision, an action was started against him in Supreme Court, Ulster County, by Beck to enforce such ruling.

Subsequently, Judge William Deckelman affirmed the zoning board and ordered Buzzanco to abide by the Zoning Board's ruling. The instant proceedings alleges Buzzanco's non-compliance with the Supreme Court order and seeks to punish him for his contempt of that Court.

It was pointed out that the proceedings could result in Buzzanco's being fined or imprisoned, should the Court hold him in contempt.

A show cause order signed by Justice Deckelman was served upon Buzzanco and his attorneys, Timmerman & Carlson of Shokan on Oct. 19 and is returnable in Supreme Court at special term at the Kingston court house on Friday, Nov. 3, at 10 a. m.

At that time, the City and the Zoning Board, through William A. Kelly, corporation counsel, will ask Justice Staley of The Supreme court to order Buzzanco held in contempt and will seek to compel him to abide by the order or to punish him therefor.

Believes 50-Megaton Range Used

France and Japan Also Note Blast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Soviet Union set off a giant nuclear explosion today.

A Swedish expert said there is reason to believe the bomb was at or near the 50-megaton range promised by Premier Khrushchev.

A spokesman for the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission suggested caution in speculating about the explosion until more information becomes available.

The observatory at Uppsala, Sweden, said today's explosion was twice as heavy as any recorded for previous Soviet tests in the series that began last month.

The explosion also was recorded in France and Japan.

Advice of Khrushchev

Premier Khrushchev told the Communist party congress last week that the current series of Soviet tests probably would conclude at the end of this month with the testing of a thermonuclear device equivalent to 50 million tons of TNT.

Some versions of Khrushchev's speech had the explosion pegged for Oct. 30 or 31.

No Red Confirmation

A storm of protest against plans for the blast has been building up in the United Nations and elsewhere in the world. Thus the Soviet Union conceivably could have decided to go ahead with the test ahead of the scheduled time. There was no confirmation of this, however, from Moscow or any other source within the first few hours after today's blast went off.

Dr. Arthur Baath, of the Uppsala Seismological Institute, said he found reason to believe today's explosion was of a 50-megaton bomb. But in Washington an AEC spokesman said:

"It takes a certain amount of time to analyze this thing. From what we know, some caution needs to be exercised concerning the Swedish report insofar as a 50-megaton device is concerned.

Japanese sources had estimated at 10 megatons the strength of a previous Soviet test btmb in September.

Stronger, His Belief

Dr. Baath said:

"If today's explosion took place in the same area and at approximately the same altitude as earlier tests, the power of the bomb must have been considerably stronger than any previous Soviet nuclear detonation in the Novaya Zemlya area.

"This blast must have been registered 'round the globe.

"The estimated epicenter of the explosion was located in the general direction of Novaya Zemlya. It was situated 1,300 miles northeast of Uppsala in the area used for earlier Russian atomic experiments.

"The explosion was registered on the Uppsala seismological apparatus as twice as heavy as the most violent previous Soviet tests on last Sept. 10 and Oct. 6."

The explosion was registered at 9:35.51 a.m. Swedish time, or 3:35.41 Eastern Standard Time.

Councilman Sol Rosenthal, chairman of the Town of Esopus United Nations Day Committee, reports all is ready for the ceremony commemorating the 16th anniversary of the founding of the United Nations.

The program, including the presentation of a United Nations flag to the Port Ewen Library and an address by Dr. Willard N. Hogan, professor of political science at the State University at New Paltz, will take place on the lawn of the Port Ewen Library at 2 p. m., Tuesday. If it should rain, the program will take place in the Town Hall. The sixth grade classes of the Port Ewen School will attend the ceremony. The public is cordially invited.

Wagner Charges Sabotage by Two In His Campaign

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner has accused two top Democrats of trying to sabotage his reelection campaign and working "under handedly" for his Republican opponent.

Wagner, whose nomination for a third term came on the crest of a "reform" wave in the local Democratic Party, hurled the charge Sunday at Carmine G. DeSapio—who was ousted by the reform group as Manhattan Democratic leader—and at State Democratic Chairman Michael H. Prendergast.

"Since their defeat in the primaries," said the mayor, "Boss Prendergast and Boss DeSapio have been working underhandedly for my Republican opponent as their only means to make a comeback and to revive the boss system in the Democratic Party."

The Republican candidate, State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, called the allegation a "comical camouflage to conceal the fact that this self-styled 'reform' candidate is meeting secretly with Tammany district leaders" for their help.

DeSapio declined to comment on the mayor's accusation.

Prendergast was not available for comment.

Hoffa and Union File Suit Against Meany, AFL-CIO

DETROIT (AP)—James R. Hoffa and his Teamsters Union filed a million-dollar libel and slander suit today against AFL-CIO President George Meany and 24 other top AFL-CIO officers.

The suit, brought by Teamsters President Hoffa in U.S. District Court, charged Meany with trying to "lie and steal away" members of the Teamsters Union.

Meany and the codefendants, the suit said, conspired to portray Hoffa as "perpetrator of a fraud upon the American labor movement."

This was done, the suit added, as a "smoke screen to conceal the true picture of the defendant, AFL-CIO, as a tottering house of labor which has all it can do to keep its own ranks from falling to pieces."

One Charge Out, Hearing Is Set On Second One

One of two assault charges against Frank Bell, 45, of 212 Hasbrouck Avenue, was dismissed in city court today and hearing on the other was put over to Oct. 27.

Police were called to the Hasbrouck Avenue house late Saturday night. The one charge was lodged by Jesse Star, of the same address, and the other by Officer Thomas Coffey, who, with Officer George Deyo were dispatched to the house.

The charge brought by Star was withdrawn. Attorney Thomas F. Saccoman was assigned to appear for Bell.

Two drivers, charged with speeding were fined $30. Philip Grieser, of 56-14 215th Street, Bayside, paid $20, and Francis Antaleck, of RD 1, Box 267, Saugerties, paid $10.

Car Lot Mischief, Clothing Theft Noted by Police

Apparent malicious mischief in an automobile dealer's lot and theft of clothing from a car were reported to the police over the weekend.

Detective Albert Hutton and Officer Floyd Krom reported after midnight that air had been let out of 24 tires on 16 cars in the lot of the J. H. Byrne Chevrolet Corp. 731 Broadway.

Donald Partridge, of Hurley, a Trailways bus driver also reported early today that, four shirts, a sweater and slacks, with a total value of $45.45, were taken from his car while it was parked in the lot near the central Broadway bus terminal.

Woman Hurt, Trying To Ride Auto Hood

Estelle Vainio, 53, of Rifton, who according to an acquaintance, was injured when she jumped on the hood of his car Sunday night, is reported in serious condition at Benedictine Hospital today.

Theodore Kenzler, 39, of New Paltz, told Kingston state police he had been visiting the woman and parked his 1961 British sports car in the driveway of her Rifton home.

According to Troopers David Wachtel and Robert Mackey, Kenzler said she did not want him to leave and as he backed his car out of the driveway, she jumped up on the hood of the car and stayed on as he proceeded north on Route 213. After a short distance she fell from the hood onto the pavement, he told state police. Kenzler told troopers h brought her back home and she was taken to the hospital.

Troopers listed her injuries as deep lacerations of the scalp, abrasions of the back, shoulder, knees, legs and feet.

The incident was reported at 11:45 p. m.

Nobel Prize Goes To Dag for '61, African for 1960

OSLO, Norway (AP)—The Nobel Peace Prize for 1961 was awarded today to Dag Hammarskjold, who perished on a peace mission in the Congo.

The delayed peace prize for 1960 went to Albert John Luthuli, a Zulu Christian leader in South Arica, for his efforts to alleviate racial discrimination. Luthuli is the first African to receive the prize, worth 250,232 kroner—$48,640. The Nobel Peace Prize Committee of the Norwegian Storting (Parliament) last year postponed its award.

Hammarskjold became the first man to receive the prize posthumously. The U.N. secretary-general was killed Sept. 18 when his plane crashed en route to Ndola, Northern Rhodesia. He was seeking to end the figiting between Katangan and U.N. forces by negotiating with President Moise Tshombe of Katanga Province.

Hammarskjold, Swedish aristocrat who headed the executive branch of the United Nationd from 1953 until his death, was mentioned as a candidate last branch of the United Nations from 1953 until his death, was mentioned as a candidate last year after organizing a U.N. force that halted the chaos in the Congo in mid-summer of 1960. However, the closing date for the list of candidates is Feb. 1 of the year of the award.

The prize committee's statement gave no specific reason for Hammarskjold's award. The prize will be placed at the disposal of Hammarskjold's estate.

In view of the early closing date for nominations, Hammarskjold must have already been under consideration at the time of his death.

managed to keep on the government payroll in second-rate jobs but the barrage against them is regarded by many as an indication they may be in for further trouble.

First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, one of the old Stalin boys in the Kremlin hierarchy who has clung to power, has demanded all members of the anti-party group who tried to overthrow Khrushchev in 1957 be kicked out of the party.

Molotov and Malenkov have been singled out as the ringleaders of the attempted coup. Others who have come under attack are former Premier Nikolai Bulganin, former First Deputy Premier Lazar Kaganovich and the aged ex-President Marshal Klementi Y. Voroshilov.

Oppose Moon Shot

HARRIMAN, N.Y. (AP) — The United States should not become obsessed with putting a man on the Moon, says the American Assembly.

Such an achievement, said the group Sunday, should not be viewed "as either a definitive test of relative Soviet and American capabilities or as a scientific or technical end in itself."

The assembly, organized in 1950, is composed of leaders in business, scientific and military life. The group met for four days here to study problems raised by the space age.

Urges Defense Attitude

Prison Workers Can't Be Right Always: McGinnis

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. (AP)—The state correction commissioner attacked a segment of the press today and said it was "high time that all of us (in prison work). . . stand up and speak in our defense."

Commissioner Paul D. McGinnis said those in correction and probation work were "always going to have failures—let's not kid ourselves." But, he said, "let us not allow our critics — whether they are in the sensational press or in high or low places—sound off as if we had to be right 100 per cent of the time."

McGinnis made the remarks in a speech prepared for delivery at the 53rd annual State Conference on Probation. Because of a hunger strike at Green Haven Prison, McGinnis would not attend. His administrative aid, Joseph F. David, substituted for him.

Several decisions of the State Parole Board have sparked criticism in recent years. One was the release from Clinton State Prison last year of Frederick Wood. Six weeks after his parole, he was charged in New York City with killing two men. Shortly afterward, Juan Pena, paroled from Sing Sing after having served part of a term for murder, was accused in New York City of beating his mistress to death.

McGinnis said statistics on the number of parolees and probationers who committed new crimes showed that the picture "is not as black as some of our more irresponsible critics would have it appear."

In 1955, he said, 3,305 persons were paroled from state correctional institutions. Five years later 8.9 per cent of them had been convicted of new felonies and 13.6 per cent convicted of misdemeanors or lesser offenses, McGinnis said.

"Are these figures we need to be ashamed of?" McGinnis asked. "Not when you consider the fact that we are working for the most part with the poorest raw material, the people that all other social agencies have failed with."

Those in prison, McGinnis said, are marked by a lack of education, lack of moral and religious training, broken homes and other handicaps.

Rehabilitating them is a difficult task, he said.

"Unfortunately, it is little recognized by an apathetic public that washes its hands when the reformatory or prison gate snaps shut behind the offender. It is ignored by a small but vocal segment of the press that apparently feels that it performs a dedicated, public service by screaming 'Why was this beast turned loose?' when given the excuse of an infrequent parole 'failure'."

McGinnis did not identify the newspapers to which he referred, but, he said, "Let it be understood that I have no quarrel with the vast majority of newspapers."

More than 200 probation and welfare workers from local, state and private agencies are attending the conference. Chief Judge Charles S. Desmond of the State Court of Appeals is to address the convention Tuesday night. The meeting concludes Thursday.

1,966 Prisoners On Hunger Strike As Tension Rises

STORMVILLE, N. Y. (AP) — Tension mounted today at the Green Haven State Prison, with nearly all of the 1,966 inmates on a hunger strike and confined to their cells in a surly mood.

Intermittently, they pounded on tin pails and raised a clamor of yells and catcalls through the cellblocks.

"But there has been no violence, or anything of that kind yet," said Warden Edward Fay. "Nobody has been hurt. The demonstration has been peaceful so far. We're in control of the situation."

The hunger strike started Saturday noon, among 300 prisoners, in protest against the confinement in isolation cells of three men involved in a fight in the recreation yard Friday.

"But the strike has not gone beyond the point for which it started," Fay said. "They're bringing in other issues, such as complaining that the Parole Board isn't granting enough paroles."

Handful Accept Food

He said that, beginning Sunday noon, only a handful of men accepted food, and that nearly 100 per cent of the prisoners have refused to take meals since then.

"Most of them have refused food since Saturday night," he said.

The mess hall has been closed since Sunday, and the prisoners have been kept in their cells.

Food carts move along the cells, offering food, but the inmates spurn it. At times, they set a hubbub of shouts, demanding a new parole board, among other things.

They also are complaining about the food and medical treatment, and even demanding a fully equipped football team, Warden Fay said. He claimed there was no justification for the complaints.

The prison is a maximum security state prison, holding major felony offenders.

Asked whether he thought the inmates gradually would resume eating, Fay said, "It's possible, but up to the present time, I can't predict. We're awaiting developments."

Trujillos Are Reported Leaving Dominican Strife

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The Trujillo family's two luxurious pleasure yachts today were reported ferrying members of the dynasty into self-imposed exile from the strife-torn Dominican Republic.

Gen. Jose Arizmendi Trujillo, a brother of the late Generalissimo Raphael Trujillo, reportedly boarded the luxury yacht Presidente Trujillo during the weekend and headed for some Caribbean port, presumably Martinique, to catch a ship for Spain.

The four-masted sailing ship Angelita, on which Hollywood beauties frolicked with the generalissimo's son Ramfis, was reported en route to Bermuda to pick up another brother of the assassinated dictator, Gen. Hector B. Trujillo, and his American-born wife, the former Alma McLaughlin.

But despite continuing unrest and the possibility that the 31 years of Trujillo rule might be drawing to a close, there was no indication that Ramfis — Gen. Raphael Trujillo Jr., the chief of the Dominican armed forces — had any intention of fleeing. Both he and President Joaquin Balaguer have rejected opposition demands that all the Trujillos and particularly Ramfis get out.

Rock-throwing mobs continued to battle police in at least two provinces, and at least one man was reported killed about 120 miles north of Ciudad Trujillo.

The first woman dentist in America was Emeline Roberts Jones who became a partner in her husband's practice 100 years ago.

Young Schwall, who was using his father's shotgun, told troopers the trigger got caught on heavy brush and discharged the gun.

The mishap occurred about 60 feet off Mossey Brook Road.

200 Visit Model Railroad Display

Over 200 people visited the opening day of the annual exhibition of the Kingston Model Railroad Club Inc., it was reported by a club official.

Visitors from out-of-state were in evidence Sunday as the miniature railroad show began its 1961 run —to continue evenings this week from 7 to 9 p. m. and next Sunday, October 29, from 2:30 to 9 p. m.

The annual exhibition offers the public a complete scale model railroad system in action—the result of 25 years of effort on the part of the local club members. Located at 541 Broadway, next to the West Shore freight depot, the "Hudson Valley Lines" features all types of railroad equipment, both ancient and modern, rolling through a miniature countryside created for some of the scenery that is found in this area.

Condition of Brooklyn Boy Reported Serious

The condition of a Brooklyn youth, who was involved in a unique traffic mishap on Oct. 15 on a Town of Shandaken bridge, was termed serious today at Benedictine Hospital.

Allen Roviello, 16 was reported in fair condition in the hospital following the mishap.

The other brother, Lawrence, also involved in the mishap was recently discharged.

The two Brooklyn youths were injured when their car crashed through a guard rail of a small bridge and plunged 10 feet into a dry creek bed. One was injured in the plunge, the other in a second mishap within 10 minutes of the first, troopers said.

Trooper Richard Ryan and Harry G. Saunders said the Roviello brothers were passengers in a car operated by Theodore Farley, 21 of Staten Island, traveling north on the Big Indian - Oliverea Road at about 1:10 a. m.

Farley lost control of the vehicle and crashed the bridge guard rail, troopers reported.

Trooper Ryan said Allen Roviello climbed out of the car and up onto the bridge to warn an approaching car. As he stood on the bridge waving his arms, he fell through a hole in the bridge roadbed up to his arm pits and the car operated by Harry J. DeSilva of Middletown, passed over him, state police said. Allen's injuries were described by troopers as a concussion, black eye and multiple cuts, scrapes and abrasions.

Rochester, N. Y., was first called the "Flour City" because its flour was easily shipped to the large markets. Later the nickname was changed to the Flower City" because of the many parks there.

NAACPWinsMove For Court Order In Alabama Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People won a round in the Supreme Court today in its battle against an Alabama order which the association says bars it from activities in that state.

Acting without hearing arguments, the Supreme Court directed that the U.S. District Court in Alabama rule on the NAACP complaint.

NAACP appealed to the high tribunal after the U.S. Circuit court in New Orleans, La., said the complaint should be acted on first by Alabama state courts. The Association's appeal said the NAACP believed the state courts would never act on requests for a hearing.

A 1956 complaint by the Alabama attorney general led to the litigation. The complaint charged the NAACP was doing business in the state without qualifying as an out-of-state corporation. The state obtained an order from a state court which the NAACP said bars it from organization activities, and also from taking any steps to qualify to do business in Alabama.

The high tribunal issued an order which set aside the ruling of the Circuit Court and directed the U.S. District Court in Montgomery, Ala., to try the issues involved.

Hurley Firemen Check Spread of Flames in Woods

Prompt action by Charles Myers of West Hurley and the West Hurley Fire Department prevented what could have been a serious woods and brushland fire at Bright Acres off Route 28 in the Town of Ulster this morning.

Myers who had stopped at the home of James McCabe while on his way to work in Kingston noticed smoke coming from the woods. He took the McCabe tractor and tried to halt the blaze. When he saw that he couldn't he quickly called his home and his mother, Mrs. Fred Myers of West Hurley sounded the alarm at 7:28 a. m. Three West Hurley companies, 1, 3, and 4, responded with four trucks under Chief Howard Hopkins and First Assistant Chief James Goins. The volunteers quickly got control of the flames after they had burned over some 250 to 300 feet of brushland and trees.

Forest Warden Bryon Hill of Tillson was summoned and Companies 3 and 4 returned to their firehouses about 8 a. m. to standby. The two trucks from Company 1 remained at the scene until 9 a. m. when recall was sounded.

McCabe praised the alertness of Myers and the quick work of West Hurley volunteers. He said if they hadn't acted so promptly, the fire could have assumed serious proportions.

$450,000 Recovered

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz said today activities of his Bureau of Consumer Frauds and Protection have resulted in recovery of more than $450,000 for consumers so far this year.

The consumers had complained they were victimized through fraudulent advertising, high - pressure salesmanship and "other forms of chicanery in the marketplace," Lefkowitz said.

It's The Truth!

Harry B. Bullard, Gen. Mgr.

We were surprised to learn that for years we had been misunderstanding the terms "Compound fracture," and "Simple fracture."

We had always believed that one meant a bone broken in one place, and the other a bone broken in several places, but such is not the case.

We just learned that a simple fracture is one where the bone may be broken in one or several places, but has not broken through the flesh to allow comunication between injury and external air, which could result in infection. The compound fracture is one where the bone is broken in one or more places and in addition the surrounding flesh has been lacerated in a manner that might allow infection from external causes.

And now we hear there is a new technique which enables a doctor to mend a broken bone with a "plastic glue" (for lack of a better description) so that the cast becomes unnecessary and the victim can use the arm or leg again within 48 hours!

So they are now going to mend broken bones almost as fast as we mend fractured cars. It really takes a professional "body" man to restore present day cars after a smash-up to make them look and be as good as they were before anything happened to them. Thank goodness we're able to do just that for you. And we do it economically too. Parsons of Kingston, Inc., Kingston's only Ford dealer, 300 Broadway, FE 8-7800.

TALK WON'T DO THE JOB

The last day of October is an unavoidable crisis point for the United Nations.

The crisis is financial. If the member countries do not by then come up with a plan to provide the means of support for the U.N.'s emergency military efforts in the Congo and the Middle East, then the agency will begin to revert to a mere debating society.

Oct. 31 is the expiration date for the authority granted by the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to shift other U.N. funds to support its field force operations.

This power has been the frail backbone that enabled the U.N., under Hammarskjold's guidance, to become an active, armed presence in key world trouble spots.

Either that authority must be extended, or delinquent U.N. members must make good the $41 million they owe for the 1958-60 period to the Congo and Middle East special accounts.

In the case of the Congo, only 26 of 100 members have paid anything, and a dozen of these have put in $50,000 or less apiece.

The big delinquent, as is well known, is the Soviet Union. Overall it owes the two special funds $30 million. Its five principal East European satellites owe another $3,675,000.

The Communist move to starve the U.N.'s peacemaking efforts financially is designed, of course, to achieve what the Reds may or may not do by other means: eliminate the U.N. as an actual or potential presence standing in the way of their aggressions.

As a gauge of the agency's importance, informed observers just returned from the Congo say flatly that the U.N. force is the only real factor holding that country back from total political and perhaps military chaos.

No sane diplomat expects the Soviet Union to cough up a single ruble for this enterprise—now or ever. Indeed, it would like the whole issue of special funds made a matter of Security Council decision, so it could veto all such spending by every nation.

The rest of the U.N. countries are right at the time of testing. Either they find a way to pay for the U.N. field forces, or the much-advertised issue of a strong or weak secretary-general may become academic, with financial malnutrition giving the Reds the victory.

France owes a whooping $9.4 million on the Congo. Many Latin countries are heavily in arrears. Nationalist China never catches up. Austria, Belgium, Portugal, Spain, Italy, Greece all owe the Congo fund.

Talk is cheap. But it doesn't stop aggression or bring order from chaos. Are the responsible members of the U.N. willing to pay for something stronger than talk? Their decision must come soon.

An educator says the average American doesn't know enough about our economy. Maybe not, but taxes have forced him to practice it.

HONORING AL SMITH

The affection in which many Americans, New Yorkers especially, still hold the late Al Smith, four times governor of New York and Democratic presidential candidate in 1928, is attested by the program arranged for the coming annual memorial dinner held in New York City. The speakers will include former President Eisenhower, Governor Rockefeller and Mayor Wagner.

Much of Al Smith's popularity is explained by the reason that has caused much of Lincoln's. Both were born in poverty and achieved high rank by their own merits. Lincoln was a rural product; Smith was our first important public man to come from the congested city streets. He typified both the citizenship of the city population, and its aspirations. On this account his 1928 defeat caused grief far in excess of that aroused by most failures in a critical election.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE NEW EISENHOWER

I find ex-Presidents more interesting than Presidents. Certainly Herbert Hoover has risen in stature, in thought, in independence since he has been an ex-President. Harry Truman was always a salty personality but he has a better understanding of the world today than he had as President of the United States.

Dwight D. Eisenhower is quite a surprise. He sounds as though he writes his own speeches, which no President can any longer do. He sounds free, even gay. It is not so much that he can play golf without a television camera being on his heel; it is rather that he has been relieved of the controls of high office and perhaps what is more important, the advice of his underlings. President Kennedy might well watch the development of Eisenhower as ex-President and note how much better a man does when he ceases to be enslaved by his subordinates.

The Republican Party requires intellectual and spiritual leadership. It has lost its way in the thirty years since Hoover. Today it is divided into four parts — the followers of Barry Goldwater, the followers of Nelson Rockefeller, the followers of Richard Nixon and those who hope that these three will give them back their party.

Nixon, like Tom Dewey, seems to be eliminating himself. Too astute to run in 1964, his politics would indicate that he is interested in 1968. Nelson Rockefeller is developing a strong sense of humor and is not likely to be trapped into a defeat. Barry Goldwater is building the equivalent of a new party, one which will be able to attract Democrats who are weary of the New Deal, the Fair Deal and the New Frontier and would like to see a party that reminds them of the last days of Al Smith. Barry Goldwater's strength is not in his emerging leadership within the Republican Party as much as it is in the broad, non-partisan, conservative next generation following which looks upon him not only as a leader but as a prophet.

The re-emergence of Eisenhower complicates an already complex situation. Eisenhower may not run for President again under the Constitutional limit to prevent a third term, but he might develop such political strength that he could name his successor in 1964 and finally in 1968. At any rate, he is moving upon the political stage with more agility than he evidenced when he was President.

Cardinal Spellman's Al Smith Memorial dinner is each year a barometer of political significance. There are usually three speakers, the Mayor of the City of New York, the Governor of the State of New York, and one other. The audience is very mixed, representing the leading persons in the city, without regard to faith or politics.

This year, on this occasion, Mayor Wagner made a good speech, but the audience was cold. In fact, one was startled by its frigidity, for generally speaking, this particular audience is good-natured and generous with applause. Governor Nelson Rockefeller was very human and used the occasion skillfully to give Mayor Wagner's opponent, Louis Lefkowitz, an opportunity for a bow and for applause. But the enthusiastic, spontaneous, exciting applause went to Dwight D. Eisenhower who appeared as a general, not as an ex-President. The audience was back in the days of, "We like Ike."

Politically, all this is significant of something, possibly of the resumption of leadership by an ex-President over a very split party. And should that develop into real political strength, Eisenhower's significance will be outstanding during the next two years. It will strengthen the position of Nelson Rockefeller. It is likely to weaken Richard Nixon, because as the last defeated candidate, he cannot compete successfully with the last elected candidate for the usually meaningless titular headship of the Republican Party. In fact, politicians feel that Eisenhower is elbowing Nixon out of the picture.

At the end of the Al Smith dinner, at any rate, Eisenhower elbowed everyone out of the way. He took the applause and the cheers. Naturally, the politicians were not a little surprised that the principal speaker was Eisenhower and not President John F. Kennedy. On a previous occasion, Eisenhower spoke at this dinner when he was President of the United States. This event is arranged long in advance and the date is not so rigid that the dinner could not have been adjusted to the needs of the President of the United States. There is lots of politics in that.

Penicillin Is Not an All-Purpose Medication

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The young mother with her coughing youngster on her knees sat behind me on the train. As the child blasted forth on the back of my head, she turned to the older woman at her side and said, "He kept us up all night. So tonight I'm taking him to the doctor for a penicillin shot."

Then, as I got up to change my seat after a second and third blast, she remarked to the passengers in general, "What's with him? Hasn't he ever heard a child cought before? What does he think a baby like this can do to a man his size?"

Well, let's begin at the end. A baby like this can fill the air with exactly the same numbers and varieties of infecting organisms as a man the size of the giant wrestlers seen on TV.

In point of fact, the coughing baby is an even greater menace than a coughing giant. For the latter might have the consideration and courtesy of coughing into a handkerchief or a tissue; or of covering his mouth with his hand; or of turning his head to one side so as not to spray innocent bystanders. The baby cannot be expected to do any of these things.

The considerate mother, however, can and should attempt to protect both herself and innocent bystanders by covering her child's mouth and nose with a handkerchief or tissue whenever it's possible to anticipate an upcoming cough.

Again, despite her good intentions, what does this young mother hope to accomplish when she spends hard-earned money for a visit to a doctor, not to seek advice, but to order treatment?

For the fact of the matter is that there's probably not 1 chance in 100 that her suggested "shot of penicillin" will have any significant effect on her child's cough or on whatever the condition is that's causing the cough.

This is not to belittle the accomplishments of penicillin, but to emphasize the fact that you don't shoot in the most powerful of available antibiotics unless you have some idea of the nature of the target, and some idea of the dangers inherent in your blind efforts at target practice.

To be more specific, the vast majority of organisms that cause respiratory infection and resultant cough are not killed or even damaged by penicillin. Viruses, influenza bacilli and the bacteria that are responsible for whooping cough and tuberculosis are what is called "penicillin insensitive." So your ammunition is wasted if these bugs are your targets.

And then there are the risks. For, if your child previously received penicillin, whether in milk, as a local application or in tablet form, he might have become sensitized as have countless thousands of other children and adults.

Then, the "shot" you so lightly suggested, or perhaps insisted on, might have produced an allergic reaction whose intensity could vary between a mere nuisance phenomenon and a fatal shock.

The Peace Corps Postcard, Conant Study Seen Parallel

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 — None of the information in this article comes from any postcard written by a Nigerian student visiting the United States. Most of it comes from the pen of James B. Conant, formerly president of Harvard University and one of America's leading educators. It is taken from his new book "Slums and Suburbs," which was written after a first hand study of schools in the suburbs of well-to-do people and in the slums of the poor in large cities of America.

Dr. Conant says that the building up of "a mass of unemployed and frustrated Negro youth in congested areas" in American cities has in it potentialities for trouble and, indeed, possibilities of disaster. He describes Negro slums in the big Northern cities as follows:

Dr. Conant tries to deal realistically with the whole question of schools in the slums and the efforts recently made to move Negro children to white-schools. There isn't the slightest trace of bias or prejudice on the race question in Dr. Conant's background, and he believes wholeheartedly in the Supreme Court decision of 1954 on desegregation of the public schools. But he questions some of the inferences drawn from the Supreme Court's ruling that "separate educational facilities are inherently unequal." He particularly doubts the wisdom of proposals for moving Negro children into all-white schools so as to to have mixed schools.

Decision Examined

He writes:

"Taken out of context, the conclusion might be drawn that the justices declared seperate educational facilities, for whatever reason provided, are morally wrong and if supported by tax funds are illegal.

"In some there are very bad gang warfare among the boys. There are also vicious fights outside of school between Negro girls. The condition in one such neighborhood was summed up to one of my staff by a principal of a junior high school, who said even he was shocked by the answers to a questionnaire to the girls, which asked what was their biggest problem. The majority replied to the effect that their biggest problem was getting from the street into their apartment without being molested in the hallway of the tenement. . . .

With Heads on Hands

"I have walked through school corridors in slum areas and looking in the classrooms, have seen children asleep with their heads on their hands. In this situation the result of poor teachers without either disciplinary control or teaching ability? No, the children asleep at their desks have been up all night with no place to sleep or else have been subject to incredibly violent family fights and horrors through the night. Checking into one case, a principal told one of my staff that after climbing six flights of a tenement he found the boy's home—one filthy room with a bed, a light bulb, and a sink. In the room lived the boy's mother and her four children. I might add that it is not unusual for teachers in these schools to take home with them children with no place to go at night."

"Yet on reading carefully the whole opinion, I think the key sentence is the question defined by the court: 'Does segregation of children in public schools solely on the basis of race, even though physical facilities and other "tangible" factors may be equal, deprive the children of the minority group of equal educational opportunities? We believe that it does.'

"I have italicized the word 'solely,' as I presume to think it is the essential word. The justices appear to have expressed no view as to whether the pupils in a completely Negro school are deprived of equal educational opportunity if they are not assigned solely because of their race. In short, if one group of children is reparated from another group because of the neighborhood in which they live, the fact of this separation is, of and by itself, no evidence of an inequality in education. Whether in fact the facilities and instruction are equal in a 100 per cent white school, a mixed school, and a 100 per cent Negro school in a large city is to be determined by examining the schools, not by appeal to phrases such as 'de facto regregation,' with the implication that it is to be condemned by all right-thinking people who condemn 'de jure segregation.'

"In some cities political leaders have attempted to put pressure on the school authorities to have Negro children attend essentially white schools. In my judgment the cities in which the authorities have yielded to this pressure are on the wrong track. Those which have not done so, like Chicago, are more likely to make progress in improving Negro education."

Dr. Conant in his book tackles the whole subject on the basis of improving education, and, while his description of conditions in the slum areas of the United States is discouraging, the problem will not be solved by ignoring their existence. That's why it is surprising to find resentment expressed by the Prime Minister of Nigeria because an American visitor describes the facts of life in that country. The sooner the new African republics learn something about democracy and a free press—which doesn't hesitate to print all the facts no matter how unfavorable—the quicker will solutions be found for some of the vexing problems that arise as a consequence of poverty.

Miss Michelmore of the Peace Corps may turn out to be more of a heroine than a villainess because of her postcard which inadvertently publicized to the whole world the plight of the underdeveloped countries. Actually, what is needed is more frequent and more vivid "postcards" from Africa so as to awaken people, not just in America but throughout the world, to the human needs of their unfortunate brethren.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Waiving the question whether our country is a republic or a democracy, the most important fact is that we are now committed to an imperial future and destiny.

There is nothing to gain by pretending that we are just trying to herd other countries, many of them without substantial sovereignty, under our protection for their sake. We want them as assets, for their manpower and their stuff and for battlegrounds. The Russian Empire knows that and so do the countries and peoples whom we are soliciting.

We have succeeded in F. D. Roosevelt's noble purpose of dissolving the British Empire only to discover, as Roosevelt should have forseen, that we must take that Empire's place against Russia. The only alternative would be to shrink back into our own wonted boundaries and resume our old American character. Of course, that alternative is unthinkable.

The Russian Empire, unopposed by our Empire, would absorb Continental Europe, the British Isles and all the rest of the world. We would be a big single country as individual nations go. But inevitably the Russians would try to absorb us and we would have a fight. And we would lose it, barring developments inspired by the mental and spiritual longings we call ideals. Those are unpredictable and imponderable. To count on them is to back a long shot in a crap game and try to root it in by extrasensory influence.

We have lived in a cloudland ever since Woodrow Wilson took us into the First War in violation of his campaign slogan, "He Kept Us Out of War." Be it conceded for the record that Wilson did not say this explicity. But it was said on his behalf by his party in the 1916 campaign and he did not disavow it as strongly as he should have lest it cost him enough votes to throw the election to Charles Evans Hughes.

Knowing, as he did, that he would put us into war, he corruptly availed himself of the confidence of people who believed that this slogan was his own. Circumstances permitted him to do this less than two months after his inauguration.

A few days ago, the widow of his second marriage, a very old woman who revelled in her reflected glory on his triumphal European progress, was photographed with Jack Kennedy. She always was handsome, with technically "good-looking" features. She still is; in her eighties. Next to Eleanor Roosevelt, she took more bows as Madam President than any other wife of a president. This scene with Kennedy reminded us that he was promoting a scheme to raise a "memorial" to a terrible incompetent who did our country, and Mankind generally great harm.

We have lacked the alert intelligence since about 1914 to realize that the world was changing, and our own country in pace with the world. We saw Russia conquered by two individual conspirators, Lenin and a nasty little specimen from the marble-top socialist hangouts of the East Side of New York where foreign plotters in overcoats drank tea out of glasses with no gratitude for the safe and prosperous refuge we had provided them. This was Leon Trotsky. Like thousands of other refugees from the Czar, they gave not a damn about our country. And the awful Russian revolution of 1917 was imported to our country under Roosevelt. Meanwhile their adherents wrought great changes in our country. Our people were inattentive and credulous and the term "melting pot" was imposed on our generous ideals and sympathy. Under Roosevelt we rescued their Communist paradise from Hitler and now we need an empire to save ourselves from Russia.

One change has been the development of the union system to such an extent that unions are now an unconsitutional government over most of our blue-collar working people, and much of our management and industry or economy. These unions even have a state department of their own operating confidentially in our embassies under subsidies from union treasuries of the AFL-CIO the world over. They also run the International Labor Organization in Geneva but with the advantage of an official, inter-nation front.

Nobody can draw an accurate picture of our country now. Change is too fast and confusing for that.

But we are an empire just the same.

I propose a test.

Do you personally think of West Berlin or West Germany or any of the new African states with the same affection that strangely warms your heart when you think of your native state or the United States?

Or do you think of them as outposts of defense against the Russian Empire?

The really important tests are not those in the atmosphere or underground, but rather the ones being held in our nation's classrooms.

Speaker Named For Lutheran Men's Activity

Guest speaker at the Lutheran Men's Communion supper of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Wurts and Roger Streets, Sunday, Nov. 5, will be the Rev. Walter E. Bock, DD, LHR, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Lexington Avenue and 54th Street, Manhattan.

Dr. Bock who is a native of Stuttgart, Germany, and was reared on Long Island, was one of four regional directors of evangelism for the United Lutheran Church in America during the late 1950's covering Nova Scotia, New England and the Middle Atlantic states.

A graduate of Wagner College, Staten Island and the Lutheran Thelogical Seminary in Philadelphia, he has been given honorary degrees by Wagner and by Hartwick College, Oneonta. He has also studied a fellowship at the Evangelical Academy, Loccum, Germany.

REV. WALTER E. BOCK

Since he became pastor of the mid-Manhattan parish, two services of worship are being held each business day as well as on Sunday to meet the spiritual needs of the suburbanites who are in the city only during the week.

Dr. Bock is no stranger to this area having served as pastor of Christ Church, Germantown, from 1941 to 1944 and of Zion Church, Cobleskill from 1951 to 1955.

The event at Redeemer will bring together the men from the three Kingston congregations of the United Lutheran Church in America, Trinity Lutheran Church, Spring and Hone Streets, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Hasbrouck Avenue and Redeemer Church, Wurts and Roger Streets. AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The handicappers already are busy sizing up how the economy is going to run the course next year—and the differences in opinion should make it a good horse race.

Almost all of the economists, government and private, and a majority of businessmen, seem confident it will be a fast track if the Berlin storm clouds blow over. The odds favor records being broken—but by just how much that's where the experts differ.

Predictions Are High

The guessing covers such things as price trends, industrial production, total output of goods and services, and a long list of prospects for individual industries.

Predictions by the President's Council of Economic Advisers are the highest. They put 1962's total output at better than $570 billion, and 1963's at a whopping $620 billion. This compares with this year's expected final figure of $520 billion and 1960's relatively modest $503.5 billion.

The views of the business Council, made up of some 100 heads of the biggest corporations, are a bit more modest, though on the optimistic side.

Output Hits High Rate

At the professional level are two pooling of minds this week:

1. The annual get-together of the National Association of Business Economists in Chicago. Their president, Dr. George Cline Smith, a senior partner of MacKay-Shields Associated, New York, says the standard forecast is for total output to hit a $570 billion annual rate by the end of 1962. But if it is to climb steeply after that, he says that consumers will have to spend more, and businessmen invest more in new plant and equipment.

2. The annual polling of economists by the F. W. Dodge Corporation, construction news and marketing specialists. There is considerable spread this time in their views. But the average guess of the 316 economists puts the national output, Gross National Product, at $565 billion by the end of 1962.

Sees Production Record

The average guess on the Federal Reserve Index of Industrial Production is a record high of 122 by December 1962, compared with 112 this September. The 1957 average equals 100.

Nearly all of the 316 see consumer and wholesale prices creeping higher in 1962. Many expect inflation to be more of a problem next year. Blamed are defense spending, domestic politics, the rising cost of services, and the stimulus of the uptrend in general business activity.

Opinions of the individual economists range between these extremes:

1. "The 1962 economic outlook is strictly A-OK. More people will have more money with which to buy more products than ever before in history."

2. "There is nothing in the cards to indicate that business activity in 1962 will reach boom levels. First, the American consumer is well stocked and bored to boot with the unimaginative goods being offered. Second, the heavy excess capacity hanging over a number of important American industries rules out a capital expenditure spurt next year or the year after. Finally, a $5-billion, or even a $10-billion, increase in defense spending certainly will add to the demand pressures but stepped-up Federal outlays will be largely lost in our vast economy."

The 316 economists themselves range widely: 51 are from financial and insurance organizations, 178 from manufacturing and other business firms, 37 from colleges and universities, 6 from government, and 44 from consulting firms or trade and research organizations.

Industry Meeting On Housing Act Set November 9

A regional industry meeting on what the provisions of the 1961 Housing Act will do to help families to buy homes will be held in Albany November 9, Malvern H. Cunningham announced today.

The industry meeting in Albany will be part of a nationwide educational campaign sponsored by the National Association of Home Builders. Invited to the meeting in Albany and in some 74 other cities were area builders, lenders, general contractors and realtors. E. J. Burke Jr., president of NAHB, said the nationwide campaign will be run for a two-week period from November 6 to 18, and many of the major cities will hold simultaneous meetings.

The NAHB is a trade association with more than 43,000 members in all parts of the country. The Home Builders Association of the Hudson Valley is one of its affiliates.

The 1961 Housing Act contains many new provisions for the financing and construction of homes. The meeting is aimed at helping builders, lenders, general contractors and realtors to take advantage of the new tools in improving the housing market in this city and thus aiding the area's entire economy.

An all-day session is being planned to give all segments of the home building industry a working knowledge of details of the Housing Act, particularly its provisions on low-cost housing Cunningham said.

Key officials of the FHA Office in Albany will explain the provisions and outline FHA rules, regulations, procedures and requirements involved. The sessions will be held at the Sheraton-Ten Eyck Hotel, Albany, starting at 9:30 a. m.

Strange — but the position of people's feet often gives insight to the owners of those feet. The face of a relaxed person; an interested person or one just passing a friendly remark — doesn't really have to be seen to detect his feeling or attitude.

NO PROFITS—NO TAXES

Logic in the stock market occasionally "boomerangs." It promises to do so in the steel industry in the near future.

Top officials in Washington have asked the leading steel corporations to hold the price line even in the face of increased wages and costs. Steel prices exercise great influence on the national economy. In an industrial society, this industry stands first.

The word going around the country is that a price squeeze in steel will put a terrifio cramp in profits and present dividends will be in danger. Hence, presently, in many quarters, investors are "bearish" on the steel stocks. And the logic seems valid.

But there is something else to look at. If profits are reduced or eliminated, tax collections will fall off or even vanish. Then what? Why, the millions of dollars in taxes that Uncle Sam expects to collect from the steel industry will fall far short of expectations.

No profits establishes a dangerous cycle. Dividends and taxes rest on profits. In 1960 eight of the leading steel enterprises, Armco, Bethlehem, Inland, Jones and Laughlin, National, Republic, United States and Youngstown, paid income taxes of $919 million!

The "freezing" of prices at the present time would certainly reduce drastically the steel-tax collections in the months and years directly ahead.

U. S. Government expenditures are steadily rising. Before this decade is over, it is possible that Uncle Sam's yearly expenditures will exceed 100 billion dollars. By 1964 they will be crowding 90 billion.

Any attempt in Washington to carry water on both shoulders by forcing corporations in the face of rising wages and costs to hold price levels, and at the same time tax enterprises enough to balance a gigantic budget will only undermine further the buying power of the dollar.

The national economy has never been in such shape as at present. The Federal debt is gigantic; the Federal budget is at fantastic levels. Borrowing has become a mode of life. Taxation is confiscatory.

The only way to keep all these things within bounds is to have a sound prosperity within the country where people and corporations are able to put enough taxes into Uncle Sam's bank accounts so that he can pay his bills.

No profits, no dividends, no taxes—these things constitute a fatalistic economic philosophy. They help to establish the very conditions the Communists want.

All stockholders in America who are alarmed by present threats to corporate profits and dividends should constantly remember that without profits the U. S. Government will fail to balance its budget.

This will necessitate more deficit-finance borrowing, which in turn cheapens the dollar's buying power and forces wages, prices, costs and taxes higher and higher.

Balancing an $85 billion budget and managing a $290 billion debt require high tax collections. A sound prosperity is the best solution to these problems. Don't sell sound stocks for deteriorating dollars.

No Accurate Account

Although military men and historians have reconstructed the events of Custer's Last Stand, they have never been entirely accurate since not one of Custer's troops was left alive and the only people who knew what really happened were the surviving Indians.

The term "parachute" is derived from words meaning "prevent fall," according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Schenck of Film Fame Dies at 83, Started at $4.50

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Joseph M. Schenck, who made $4.50 a week as an immigrant boy in New York and a fortune as lord of a celluloid empire in Hollywood, is dead at 83.

Schenck helped develop such diverse talents as Fatty Arbuckle and Marilyn Monroe and had a hand in founding four major entertainment enterprises during his long career.

He was generally an off-stage figure, but scandal once brought him prominence — and a brief prison term.

He died in his sleep Sunday at his Beverly Hills home. He had been in failing health since he suffered a broken hip more than two years ago.

Buster Keaton, John Barrymore and Constance Talmadge were among those who achieved stardom under Schenck's guidance. He oversaw direction of films starring Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin and Rudolph Valentino.

One of Organizers

He was one of the organizers of Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corp. and United Artists Theaters, Inc. He later formed Magna Corp. with the late Mike Todd and at the time of his death was head of Joseph M. Schenck Enterprises, a motion picture producing firm.

Schenck married actress Norma Talmadge, sister of Constance, in 1916. She divorced him in 1934 and he never remarried. He lived quietly and alone in later years.

Lost on Arbuckle

Schenck made a star of Fatty Arbuckle and had a backlog of Arbuckle films ready for release when Arbuckle was accused of causing the death of a girl dancer at a wild party. He was never convicted but his films were practically worthless and Schenck lost millions.

He was convicted in 1941 of two counts of income tax evasion and sentenced to a three-year prison term. The sentence was suspended in 1942 after he served four months and five days at the Federal Correctional Institution in Danbury, Conn.

Iron Mines Open As Shutdown Ends

MINEVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — The Republic Steel Corp. iron mines here, closed for the last 15 months, were re-opened today and will be back in production in three weeks, Manager William A. Blomstran announced.

Fifty men returned to work to prepare for limited production. A total of 220 will be recalled later. When the mines were closed July 1, 1960, a total of 650 were laid off.

Blomstran, manager of the company's Port Henry district, said nothing about the Lyon Mountain mines, also in his district. The Lyon Mountain mines were closed Sept. 1 and 200 men were laid off in the third shutdown there this year.

Blomstran said production here would be limited because the demand for iron ore still was light.

Mack and UAW To Meet Tuesday, Face Strike Date

NEW YORK (AP)—Representatives of the United Auto Workers and Mack Trucks Inc. meet here again Tuesday, faced with a new strike deadline at midnight Wednesday.

The UAW agreed Sunday to extend the deadline in order to allow both sides to review "the many issues which still remain unresolved," said Martin Gerber of the UAW's Mack Truck Council. He said the primary issue is the right of the workers to transfer with their jobs when a plant is moved.

Gerber added that a telegram had been sent to Gov. David Lawrence of Pennsylvania saying that the deadline was extended at his request and thanking him for his assistance. Lawrence had offered to mediate the dispute.

Mack truck operates plants in Allentown, Pa.; Somerville and Plainfield, N.J., and Cortland, N.Y.

A 3-year contract between Mack and the UAW expired at midnight Friday without a new agreement.

In the event there is no settlement by Wednesday, Gerber said, "The strike will take place."

Adenauer Faces Difficult Choice In Fate of Aide

BONN, Germany (AP)—Konrad Adenauer today faced a difficult choice between replacing Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano or keeping him and narrowing his own chances of becoming West Germany's chancellor for the fourth time.

Brentano has been the most faithful executor of the 85-year-old chancellor's policies, but the Free Democratic party decided Saturday to join in a coalition government with the Christian Democrats under Adenauer only if the foreign minister is replaced.

Officially the Free Democrats said they want a new foreign minister to produce a more flexible foreign policy. Party members said privately they want to remove an "incurable yes-man" from such an important Cabinet post.

"I am the only one who will make foreign policy in this government," Adenauer recently told his party's members in Parliament.

The Free Democrats' steering committee wrangled more than 11 hours before the faction willing to accept Adenauer as chancellor won out by a slim majority.

Participants in the meeting said the dispute nearly tore the Free Democratic party asunder. The two powerful deputy chairmen, Oswald Kohut and Heinrich Schneider, who are against Adenauer becoming chancellor again, resigned in protest.

Erich Mende, the Free Democratic party chief, said the chancellor offered him the foreign ministry but that he stuck to his pledge not to serve under Adenauer and turned it down.

Christian Democratic party officials said they felt Adenauer might use this as an excuse to retain Brentano, arguing that by offering the job to Mende he had fulfilled the Free Democrats' condition.

SenateTakesLong Look at Exports To Iron Curtain

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate group takes a look today at the type of goods being exported to the Soviet Union and other Iron Curtain nations.

The Senate Internal Security subcommittee wants to find out if strategic materials that could increase the Soviet bloc's war-making potential are included—and, if so, why. Two days of public hearings have been scheduled.

In the House, a special committee headed by Rep. A. Paul Kitchin, D-N.C., has been appointed to conduct a similar inquiry. It will start Wednesday with closed-door hearings.

The Senate subcommittee originally scheduled a series of hearings in September, shortly before Congress adjourned, but they were called off. At that time Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, whose department handles the granting of export licenses, was scheduled to be a witness.

Earlier this year the Internal Security unit sharply criticized the Commerce Department's granting of a license for the export of 45 precision grinding machines to the Soviet Union.

The subcommittee had called granting of the license a grave error. It said export of the machines would have enabled the Soviet Union to speed up by several years the production of better and smaller missile guidance systems.

High Falls Man Held On Petit Larceny Count

James Nickols, 26, of Center Road, High Falls Park, arrested Sunday night on petit larceny charges in connection with the issuance of a fradulent check, appeared before Town of Ulster Justice of the Peace Robert Stedge, who set bail of $100 for appearance at 2 o'clock today.

Nickols was released from Ulster County Jail this morning after paying bail.

Kingston Trooper David Wachtel said Nickols issued a fraudulent check to Acme Tire Company, Route 9W, Town of Ulster. He was arrested on a warrant issued by Judge Stedge.

Financial and Commercial

By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A few wide moves featured an otherwise dull and irregular stock market early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 259.40 with industrials off .40, rails off .10 and utilities up .30.

Changes of most key stocks were from fractions to around a point but there were wider moves to the plus or minus side by some issues.

Steels seemed depressed by a report that hopes for a sharp rise in output in the current quarter are fading. Autos also showed a tendency to go lower.

Some of the aircrafts advanced but tobaccos sagged, influenced by a newspaper article over the weekend, linking cigarette smoking with heart disease.

Liggett & Myers dropped more than a point while Lorillard and American Tobacco lost fractions.

Jones & Laughlin was off about a point.

International Business Macines reached another new high as it advanced more than 5. A jump of about 4 by General Foods was linked by brokers with the current tendency toward defensive issues.

Pullman Inc. fell more than 2 on a report of lower earnings. Texas Instruments sluffed off about 4 points. Amerada, which advanced about 10 points last aeek, encountered some profit taking and was down more than a point.

Chrysler, now facing intensive bargaining with the auto union, was ahead about a point.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off .73 at 704.89.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were irregularly higher in moderately active trading.

Special Session

could meet for another day if necessary.

A two-day session would cost an estimated $25,000.

The session, second of the year, is the third Rockefeller has called since taking office. In August, the legislators were called to pass bills revamping the New York City school system.

Up to Majority

Mahoney, when questioned about reapportionment, said "whatever plan the majority decides upon will be the one that is passed."

Democrats have been loud in their protests against plans to eliminate four seats held by Democrats, three in New York City and one Upstate.

The delegation is to be cut from 43 to 41 members, to reflect population changes shown in the 1960 census.

By eliminating the seats and redrawing district lines to help the Republican part, the GOP legislative leaders hope to change the present 22-21 Democratic edge in the state congressional delegation to a 26-15 majority in their favor.

The servicemen's program includes exemption from state income tax of military pay to New Yorkers called to active duty.

Another proposal is special state financial assistance in obtaining college educations for children of servicemen killed or disabled while on active duty.

In addition to school-shelter construction, Rockefeller's fallout protection package includes legislation that would authorize a comprehensive study of recovery and rehabilitation after a nuclear attack, set criminal and civil penalties for sale of sub-standard fallout shelters, create a fallout-protection information service and exempt shelters from building codes that presently prohibit such construction.

Fire Damages 2nd

fire was confined to the apartment of Bernard Perelson, who was not at home. Areas of floor and ceiling, windows and contents of the apartment were damaged. The building is owned by Mrs. J. Pauker, who resides on the second floor.

Break Through Door

Slight water damage was reported on the first floor and removal of flooring in the apartment involved damaged a ceiling area below. Firemen were forced to break through a door because the occupant of the apartment was not at home.

Units from Central, Cornell stations, the Wicks and Rapid companies responded. Deputy chiefs Edwin Murphy and Julius Buchholtz were in charge.

A call at 12:51 p. m. Sunday was for a brush fire at the end of First Avenue. Units from Central Station, Cordts and Union Hose companies responded. Central Station and Cordts answered a call at 6:11 p. m. Saturday for a grass fire off Ulster Street.

When custard (in cups) is put into a pan of hot water for baking, the water should come at least half way up the sides of the custard cups.

Early U. N. Vote

first, but the sponsors were expected to yield priority to the seven-nation resolution appealing to the Soviets.

The United States has told the committee it will not stop its underground nuclear tests again until a test-ban treaty is signed and that it may have to start tests in the atmosphere. Britain agreed with this position.

There were indications something will happen this week to break the stalemate over election of a temporary secretary-general.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin told other delegates he is expecting fresh instructions from Moscow. U Thant of Burma, who is acceptable to both the United States and the Soviet Union for the interim appointment, said in an interview Sunday: "I think the atmosphere will be clear early this week."

Stock Standing Still Is Hardly Sacrosanct

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I bought Eastman Kodak in 1952. I have a diversified portfolio but Eastman represents 25 per cent of my capital holdings at present prices. The stock has gone nowhere in two years. Should I hold or switch into another stock with stronger growth?" A.B.

A) This is a very intelligent question. Eastman Kodak is a fine stock but I do not consider it sacrosanct. You must, of course, take into consideration the large capital gains which you have in this stock and the fact that when and if you sell, you will have a substantial tax to pay which will decrease your capital as it now stands. Even considering this fact, it is my opinion that you are too heavily represented in Eastman Kodak. I would switch half my holdings into American Home Products (NYSE), which has shown an uninterrupted earnings rise since 1951.

Q) "I own 100 shares of New England Electric System. It has paid good dividends but the stock seems to be a very slow mover. I will have to retire in 1964. Do you think I should continue with this holding or go into a utility with a little more future?" M.T.

A) It seems fairly obvious to me from the way your question is phrased that your mind is partially made up. Apparently you're in a position to accept a little less income in favor of greater appreciation prospects than are offered by New England Electric System (NYSE). The latter issue is sound and well managed but share earnings have shown little or no change over the past ten years. I think in your position you might be better suited with Long Island Lighting (NYSE), which has increased earnings some 85 per cent over the past decade. Or if you want a relatively cheaper stock selling at a lower earnings multiple, I suggest California Water & Telephone which still seems to me to be undervalued.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

East German and maintain the Vopos have no right to check vehicles with Allied license plates.

Says Guard Injured

The Vopo captain in charge of the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint charged Lightner had been drinking and deliberately injured a Vopo guard by ramming him against another car.

A U.S. spokesman gave this account of Sunday night's events:

At 7:15 p.m. Lightner, accompanied by his wife, arrived at the American checkpoint on Friedrichstrasse in his privately owned American-licensed sedan. The Vopos refused to let him to into the East zone unless he showed his identification. Lightner refused and asked for a Soviet officer to be called.

Stopped Again

By 8 p.m. no Soviet officer had appeared. Lightner drove past the Vopo guards and through a zigzag barrier beyond the Communist checkpoint. There he was stopped again.

At 9 p.m., eight American MPs led by Lt. Claude L. Stults Jr., of Livingston, Tenn., moved across the border and formed a walking escort for Lightner and his wife, who drove forward to Leipzigerstrasse, round the first block and back into the American sector.

At 9:15 p.m. Lightner, alone in his car, drove in a second time, again escorted by armed MPs. After five minutes they returned to the U.S. sector.

At 9:40 the U.S. provost marshal, Lt. Col. Robert A. Sabolyk, crossed the border to make a personal protest to the Soviet officer who had meanwhile appeared at the communist checkpoint.

At 10:40 p.m., a convoy of American, British and French cars, including Lightner, drove into and out of East Berlin without escort and without hindrance.

Three Patton tanks and two U.S. armored personnel carriers drove into Mehring Square, 700 yards from the checkpoint, shortly after the MPs marched over the border.

It was believed to be the first armed American incursion into Communist territory in Berlin since the city was split into occupation sectors after the end of World War II.

The Vopo captain said grimly, "The Americans will hear more about this."

Named Unit Head

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz announced today the establishment of a civil rights unit in the Buffalo office of the New York State Department of Law.

Alfred B. Silverman, of Buffalo, was named to head the new unit. He has served as an assistant attorney general in the Buffalo office of the department since 1951.

Po'keepsie Man To Face Charge After Robbery

Accused of assaulting and robbing a 27-year-old Milton fruit picker of $26, Willie Lee Terell, 28, farm worker, of 117 Main Street, Poughkeepsie, was arrested in that city Saturday afternoon.

Terell was charged with first degree robbery. Terell was confined in the Dutchess County jail to await hearing before City Judge Charles O'Donnell.

Vinson told police that Terrell, with an unknown male accomplice waited in a downtown Poughkeepsie alley and hit him on the head, knocking him to the ground as Vinson entered.

Vinson was treated at Vassar Hospital for injuries suffered in the assault, police said.

Detective Sergeant James Murphy said Vinson accused Terrell of taking his wallet containing $26.

Rocky Names

governor's top labor adviser, to head the committee.

Rocky in Vermont

The governor will speak tonight at a Vermont Republican Finance Committee dinner in Barre, Vt.

Hanover said of the committee: "We expect an answer as to why such a large part of the insurance premium dollar goes into the pocket of somebody besides the injured worker and the doctor who treats him, and an answer to why all kinds of obstacles are put in the path of a worker seeking the help he needs. . ."

Since Rockefeller has been in office, labor officials have claimed that the law has been administered in a manner unfavorable to labor. Business interests, however, say the administration of the law had been too loose. Employers pay the full cost of the compensation.

Hanover also called for an expanded program of help to workers who lose their jobs through automation. He urged a greatly expanded state program of vocational training and aid through supplemental unemployment benefits during the re-training period.

The meeting of representatives of the state union's two-million members ends Wednesday.

1 Killed, 50 Hurt As Ceiling Falls

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The ceiling of a neighborhood movie house collapsed Sunday night, plunging the fantasy world inside into a real-life nightmare.

One woman was crushed to death under the tons of rubble. Officials said 50 or more persons, including many children, were hurt, apparently none critically.

"I screamed and screamed and jumped under the seat and screamed some more as all this stuff fell on top of the seat," said Ida Montelare, 13.

She escaped unhurt but her cousin, Michael Lenz, 7, was injured. Bruised and stunned as he was led to an ambulance, Michael said over and over: "I ran and I crawled."

An audience estimated at 65 to 100 was in the one-story Nola Theater—about 5 miles east of downtown New Orleans—watching the thriller "Homicidal."

Fire Chief Howard Dey said the projectionist told him there was a sudden crackling noise. A few seconds later, a two-foot layer of plaster and steel mesh fell from the 35-foot ceiling. It dropped in one massive piece like a blanket, covering the entire 400-seat theater except for the l st four rows.

Heavy palls of dust clogged the air as crawling rescue workers cut a hole near the center of the rubble to pull out the body of Mrs. Bertrand Odinet, 64.

Missile Bodies Found

YOKOSUKA Japan (AP) — Forty-four missile bodies worth nearly $1.5 million have been recovered from the wrecked U.S. merchant ship Pioneer Muse off Okinawa, the U.S. Navy announced today.

The Navy said the missile bodies were en route to the U.S. Army on Okinawa. The Pioneer Muse went aground during a typhoon off Okinawa Oct. 9.

DiSalle Is Out So Ohio High in Governor Races

WASHINGTON (AP)—A decision by Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle not to seek reelection has put Ohio high on the list of battleground states in next year's 36 governor races.

The general assumption of politicians at national headquarters of the two parties here is that DiSalle looked the ground over and decided it wasn't worth the effort to run again in a state that President Kennedy lost last year by collecting only 46.7 per cent of the vote.

Whether Kennedy will give DiSalle a place in his administration rmains to be seen.

Republicans have been counting on Ohio to help reduce next year the 34-16 margin the Democrats hold over them in the statehouses. Ten Democratic governors and two Republicans have terms reaching beyond 1962 and new chief executives will be elected for four-year terms in New Jersey and Virginia next month.

New York and California head the list of a dozen states where the contests for governors' jobs will have some direct hearing on the 1964 presidential election.

In New York, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is seeking a second term which, if he wins it handily, could lead to the GOP presidential nomination.

In California, Richard M. Nixon, the 1960 GOP presidential nominee, is battling to gain the governorship and stay alive politically. If he manages to get his party's nomination and to beat Democratic Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, he is likely to be—despite anything he may say about not being a candidate—the object of the draft move for another national nomination.

Rioters Are Released

PARIS (AP) — Police said today they have released 8,500 of the Algerians arrested during anticurfew riots and demonstrations last week.

About 12,000 Algerians were hauled off to emergency detention centers in the city. Police said 500 were expelled to Algeria and that more expulsions will follow.

Rayburn Is Weaker

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn was reported late Sunday "to be weaker and less alert than he has been recently."

A bulletin released by Baylor Hospital, where the 79-year-old Texas Democrat is ill with incurable cancer, said his condition remains serious.

Proxmire Disagrees On Destroying Wall

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., says he disagrees with those who think the West should have knocked down the wall the Communists built in East Berlin.

"Invading East Berlin, which is under Soviet jurisdiction, to knock down a wall may have necessitated our use of nuclear weapons, since our troops are overwhelmingly outnumbered and would have had great difficulty prevailing with the exclusive use of conventional weapons," he said in an interview.

Two in Dispute Over Why Jobs Not Available

MASSENA, N.Y. (AP)—A Democratic congressman and a Republican senator are in a long-range dispute today over the reason for continued unemployment in New York's labor - surplus areas.

Rep. Samuel S. Stratton of Schenectady charged that Republican Gov. Rockefeller's aid to depressed areas has been "limited to big talk, glowing promises and an almost total blackout of either action or concern."

In Washington, Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York said the defense procurement policies of the Kennedy administration have failed to provide efficient aid to most areas of substantial labor-surplus in the state.

Stratton, who is touring the state in an obvious bid for the Democratic nomination to oppose Rockefeller next year, defended the Democratic Kennedy administration's policies.

The congressman in a speech Saturday, at a meeting of the Massena Young Democratic Club, said:

"You can no more drag your feet in meeting the urgent nd pressing problems of unemployment than you can diddle and dawdle in rescuing a drowning man.

"Had the governor been really interested in meeting the needs of the state, he could have mobilized a broad campaign here in the northern tier in these past six months to take maximum advantage" of the Kennedy administration's program.

Instead, Stratton said, "all we have seen is saturation campaigning and synthetic good cheer."

Javits said Sunday that only six of the 18 labor-surplus areas in the state showed any meaningful increase over the corresponding period last year.

Javits said declines were registered during the April - June quarter of this year in Buffalo and Utica-Rome, and four smaller areas, Amsterdam, Elmira, Plattsburgh and Wellsville.

He said the increases in the April-June period were in the Albany-Troy - Schenectady, Auburn, Gloversville, Jamestown - Dunkirk, Newburgh - Middletown-Beacon and Ogdensburg - Massena-Malone areas.

The figures, Javits said, emphasize the need to channel a larger share of defense procurement into labor-surplus areas and to give those areas a fair chance to bid competitively for contracts.

Miss Liberman is an editorial assistant on Vogue magazine. Savitt, of South Orange, N. J., is this country's national indoor singles champion.

What is a

PROTOZOAN?

A protozoan is a microscopic organism consisting of a single living cell.

The study of the protozoan is a part of our scientists' attempt to solve the mysteries of living matter. Their findings could affect the lives of all of us in the years ahead.

For America's well-being we need all the scientists we can develop. Yet many potential scientists may never go on to higher education because there may not be room for them in college. Many colleges are overcrowded and in 10 years applications will double. We will need more and better college laboratories and thousands more of the highest quality professors.

HISTORIC CHURCH—A 117-year-old church at New Diggings, Wis., has been granted a new lease on life. Designated as a historic building by the Library of Congress, it will be restored by the local Knights of Columbus. The 1844 all-wood church, St. Augustine's, was one of 24 built by an Italian missionary, the Rev. Samuel C. Mazzuchelli. It is the only one of his original Greco-Gothic churches that has survived without major changes into the 20th century.

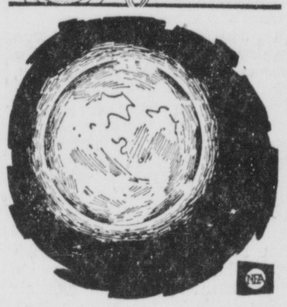
The European cuckoo does not build a nest to care for its young but lays its eggs in other birds' nests or carries them there in its bill, leaving them to be hatched by the other bird.

matter of fact



Imagine if people equipped with telescopes could view the earth from the planet Venus. Probably the Earth's most unusual feature would be its enveloping bank of clouds. On earth's surface, the Venus astronomer might see bright patches for reflected water areas, deserts, and snow fields. Darker patches would be forests or unreflected water. Could he see people? Not likely, nothing so tiny.

8-Cent Increase Going to 4,500 Atomic Workers

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — Agreement has been reached on a new contract providing an 8-cent hourly wage increase for about 4,500 workers in two major atomic installations here.

The settlement between the Union Carbide Nuclar Co., and the Atomic Trades and Labor Council was announced Sunday night following weeks of negotiations during which President Kenpedy personally intervened to prevent a strike.

The three-year contract, subject to ratification by the union membership, is retroactive to Oct. 15 when the old contract expired.

The wage hike boosts the pay scale at the top-secret Y12 plant and the Oak Ridge National Laboratory to $2.75 for laborers and $3.34 for skilled technicians.

Health for All

No Time to Complain

The TB patient who leaves the hospital against medical advice is one of the great problems in TB eradication today. The sick person gets sicker and meanwhile spreads his germs to other people.

But it isn't easy to stay put in the TB hospital. Compared to the length of hospital stay for other illnesses, the time in the hospital for the TB patient is a long one — often months. In spite of everything the hospital can provide to help the time pass, the minutes go by very slowly. The TB patient has too much time to think, and the weight of his illness tends to make him brood.

The least complaint or tone of anxiety from his family will be mulled over and exaggerated out of all proportion. Lack of any news may have the same effect. Something is wrong. The family isn't getting along without me. The bills aren't being paid. The children aren't getting proper care. I'd better get out of here and go home to take care of things.

It is vital for all members of the family of a tuberculous patient to understand their importance to his cure. Community agencies can help them through their financial and other domestic difficulties. The family can keep the patient up to date on family news that will not depress him and include him in family discussions on matters which will not upset him. They can help him by cheerful and confident acceptance of the fact that he or she must stay in the hospital until the doctor says it's okay to leave.

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME (Registered U. S. Patent Office) By JIMMY HATLO

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The number in NBC's "Project 20" unit is there because it is primarily interested in producing TV shows documenting the 20th century. It was inevitable that some time or other it would take up America's great and lasting love affair with the automobile.

Project 20 did just that Sunday night, and as usual gave its subject careful and affectionate attention. It used lots of rare archives film, much of it never seen before, dating back to the turn of the century. It followed the progress of the horseless carriage graphically and amusingly through the "tin Lizzie" era, but there called it quits. The musical score accompanying the hour program was a delight and, except for an occasionally try for a joke that wasn't there, so was the narration of Groucho Marx.

The program, however, wound up with a much too long chase scene stitched together from ancint silent movies, notably including the Keystone cops. This really didn't prove as much about autos as it did about trick photography.

First show of the new season scheduled to be scuttled is ABC's "The Roaring 20's." Although in its second season, the show has always been on the short end of the early Saturday evening ratings. It is expected to be replaced in January by two half-hour series, one of them a situation comedy.

Just when ABC and CBS are ruefully eyeing their prime time animated cartoon shows—none of which are doing anywhere near as well as the handicappers figured—along comes NBC with an announcement it will have a cartoon series in its evening schedules next year. This one will convert the famous old team of Laurel and Hardy into cartoon figures—a sort of projection of the gimmick which this season turned the famous old human team of "Amos 'n' Andy" into a fox and a bear in "Calvin and the Colonel."

East's Bid Aids South

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In third seat it is foolish indeed to open a minimum or shaded bid if you can't stand the lead of your bid suit.

Thus, East should have passed instead of opening with one club. If he had, the opponents almost surely would have stopped either at a part score or gone down at four spades. As it was, they reached game and made it.

You can't criticize West for opening the eight of clubs. His partner had bid the suit.

South won the trick with the queen, cashed the ace of clubs and ace of spades, led a trump to dummy's jack, ruffed the ten of clubs, led a low heart, played dummy's ten, and sat back with a happy smile to see what East would do.

East won with the queen and was faced with a Hobson's choice. A heart lead would cost him a heart trick; a diamond lead would make North's king of diamonds good; while a club lead would allow South to ruff in dummy and discard one of his hearts. Any one of the plays would give South his contract

How different if East had just passed. West would have opened either a diamond or a heart. At some stage of the play, East would lead a club to his partner and declarer would be held to eight or nine tricks.

SCAD Schedules Public Meeting On Housing Law

The State Commission Against Discrimination will hold a public meeting in Poughkeepsie, Tuesday to inform the Poughkeepsie - Newburgh area concerning the agency's newly acquired jurisdiction over private housing throughout the state. This will be the ninth meeting conducted by SCAD since the passage of the law last spring.

Commissioner Elmer A. Carter, chairman of SCAD, has designed Commissioner J. Edward Conway as the presiding officer of the meeting which will take place in the Poughkeepsie Inn, at 2:30 p. m. One of the major purposes of the meeting is to elicit inquiries from the public concerning the new provisions and law and to provide answers directly from members of the commission.

An audience composed of realtors, real estate agents, bankers, builders, developers, representatives of churches and synagogues, labor organizations, housing experts, and state and city officials, is anticipated.

Commissioners Carter and Conway are expected to open the meeting with short talks outlining the manner in which SCAD intends to administer the new law and to discuss the variety of new problems which it has created for the agency.

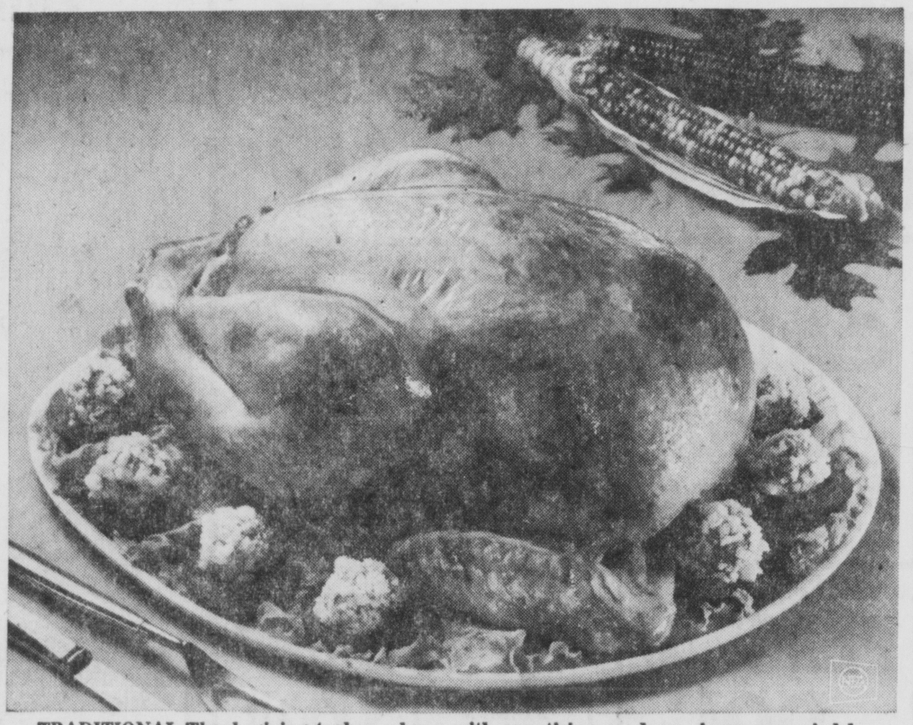
FOOD FOR AMERICANS

Tender Turkey Graces America's Groaning Board



TRADITIONAL Thanksgiving turkey, plump with appetizing goodness, is accompanied by giblet snow birds served on spiced apple rings. A fitting garnish for the lordly bird.

GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

For the great American feast of Thanksgiving, garnish the lordly turkey with giblet snowball atop spiced apple rings. The turkey will swell with pride.

Giblet Snowball Garnish
(Makes 8 garnishes)

Two hard-cooked eggs, 2 cups diced cooked turkey giblets and neck meat, ½ cup soft butter or margarine, ¼ cup lemon juice, ¼ cup catsup, ¼ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing, 2 tablespoons prepared horseradish, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 8 spiced apple rings, leaf lettuce.

Remove yolks from hard-cooked eggs and finely chop whites. Add yolks to remaining ingredients and place all in electric blender. Blend several minutes until a smooth thick consistency is obtained. (If blender is not available, put giblets through meat grinder twice; then beat all ingredients together until smooth).

Store, covered, in refrigerator several hours to mellow. Shape into 8 balls and roll in the chopped egg whites. Place each atop a spiced apple ring on bed of leaf lettuce to garnish turkey platter.

Want a few hints on how to roast turkey cooking experts of the Poultry and Egg National Board gives these tested and approved instructions:

To Roast

1. Preheat oven to 325 degrees F. (slow).
2. Rinse bird with cold water, drain and pat dry. Rub cavity of bird lightly with salt. Do not salt, if stuffed.
3. Fill wishbone area (neck) with stuffing, if used. Fasten neck skin to back with skewer. Fill cavity lightly, if stuffing is used. Push drumsticks under band of skin at tail; or tie them to tail.
4. Place turkey on rack in shallow roasting pan. Brush skin with fat. Place in preheated oven. If desired, baste or brush occasionally with pan drippings — especially any dry areas. When turkey is ⅔ done, cut cord or band of skin at drumsticks.
5. Continue roasting until done. To test doneness, a roast meat thermometer placed in center of the thickest breast muscle should register 190 to 195 degrees F. If stuffing is used, it should register 165 degrees F. at the same time. Turkey is done when meat at thickest part of drumstick feels very soft when pressed between protected fingers.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic and Republican national committees say they received 35 gifts of $100 or more from New York residents and groups during June, July and August.

The latest records available in the House clerk's office show that 29 major Democratic gifts totaled $10,600 compared with 6 major Republican gifts worth $48,000.

Among the Republican contributors was Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller who gave her address as 810 Fifth Avenue, New York City, and donated $500.

The largest Republican gifts were $30,000 and $15,000, both from the United Republican Finance Committee of the State of New York, which has headquarters at 120 E. 56th St., New York City.

The largest Democratic gift was $2,500 from P. Bratti, 103 Park Ave., New York City.

Only one of the Republican gifts—$1,000 from H.C. Flanigan, Anderson Rd., Purchase — came from Upstate counties.

There were four $100 Upstate contributors to the Democratic committee — C.K. Love, Buffalo; J.J. Sugden, Himrod; W.F. Tellier Rye, and W.A. Kelly, Kingston.

Ailing Welfare Recipients Ask Additional Aid

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Many persons on public welfare rolls last year sought help because illness drained their savings or ended their earnings, the State Social Welfare Department reports.

The department, in an analysis of spending by local welfare districts, said 28.5 per cent of the $343 million spent on public assistance went for medical care of the needy sick.

In the aid-to-dependent-children and home relief programs, 11.2 per cent of the cost was for medical care, the department said Sunday. The total medical bill was $98 million.

The highest percentage of medical care was needed by persons on old-age assistance, aid to the disabled and assistance - to-the blind programs. The average medical bill for persons in these programs was $628, while payments for living costs averaged $657, the department said.

An average of $53.40 was spent annually for medical care for each persons in the aid-to-dependent children and home-relief programs, or about $200 per family, the department said. Payments for all other living costs averaged $423, it said.

Of the total medical bill, hospitals received $36 million, nursing homes and infirmaries $45 million, and medical practitioners and suppliers of medicines and medical services, $17 million.

In another state report, Comptroller Arthur Levitt said education and welfare had taken the biggest share of the local government spending in 1959.

He said local governments spent an average of $260.40 per resident, double the 1949 figure, as the total expenditure climbed to $4.4 billion.

Real estate taxes, meanwhile, went up from $945 million to $1.9 billion.

In Washington, the Internal Revenue Service reported that its total internal revenue collections in New York State for fiscal 1961 was $18,234,140,000.

Lack of Reaction Surprises Khrush

Western Allies Uncertain About Reds Oct. 31 Blast

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)— Premier Khrushchev is doing pretty well for himself, probably better than he expected. It hasn't cost him much.

He resumed nuclear testing without getting any severe reaction from the neutrals.

He made an issue of West Berlin and seems to have the Allies floundering for a way to deal with him.

He showed the myth in Western talk of reunifying Germany by walling in East Berlin. He used the wall as a symbol of his possession.

Khrush Does Pitching

In all this, with his trumpetings and threats, he has shown a more persistent leadership than anyone in the West.

He has done the pitching, the West the catching.

From the beginning there was a fear in the West that Khrushchev might push his luck too far and create a situation which left no out but war.

Still, he was so clever in his tactics of pressuring the West that he gave an appearance of steadiness.

The most frightening thing is not so much what he has done as what he intends to do.

At the end of this month, he said, Russia will explode a 50-megaton bomb. American military people have said neither such an explosion nor such a bomb is needed.

Plans Terror Tactic

Why then do it? There seems only one answer. It's a terror tactic to show the West and the rest of the world Russian strength.

But there is danger from the fallout of such an explosion. Therefore, this move indicates a certain instability in Khrushchev.

A man who has to make a grand gesture, particularly at the expense of other people, can be considered neither truly sure of himself nor stable.

West Berlin, a Western outpost with Western troops 110 miles inside Communist East Germany, was an old problem anyway, even though a sore one.

The Russians were certain to do something about it some day. Khrushchev started to do something about it in 1958 and then dropped it.

Waited for Kennedy

He waited for the new administration of President Kennedy before stirring up the Berlin issue again.

Months have passed now since he announced he wanted to make Berlin a "free city" without the presence of Allied troops and that the Allies henceforth would have to deal with the East German Communists to get to and from Berlin.

After all this time the Western Allies are still not agreed on how to deal with Khrushchev on this one.

For at least a decade it has been a Russian hope somehow to split the Western Allies whose solidarity was an absolute block to Soviet ambitions in Europe.

U.S. Wants to Negotiate

For Khrushchev, raising the Berlin issue—since the populations of the United States, France, Britain and West Germany have varying attitudes toward war over Berlin—was a good way to test Allied solidarity.

It has worked out nicely for him so far, with nothing for him to do but sit back and watch.

The United States and Britain want to move toward negotiations. Negotiations will mean some compromise. But France wants no compromise, thinks it's too soon for negotiations.

West Germany apparently is not yet sure how far it wants to go in meeting the Russian demands, or in wanting the United States to.

Khrushchev Surprised

Khrushchev himself was probably surprised at how little bad reaction he got from the neutrals when he decided to resume his nuclear tests, even though he did it in a cunning way that throws doubt on any future agreements with him.

He and the United States had an agreement—perhaps an understanding is the better word—not to test. Then suddenly Russia tested. Because it has now had a whole series of tests one conclusion is obvious.

These tests needed plenty of preparations. So Khrushchev, while carefully planning them, gave no indication of it until he was ready to begin.

As for East Germany: The Western powers have collaborated with the West Germans in keeping alive the myth that East and West Germany could be reunified in the reasonable future.

But when Khrushchev said the West must now deal with the East Germans—and when he built the Berlin wall which the Allies did not dare attempt to pull down—the myth was exploded.

JFK Replies to Labor

LONDON (AP) — President Kennedy assured a group of labor members of the House of Commons today that in dealing with Berlin "we are committed to no rigid formulas and are prepared to explore every reasonable avenue of approach."

Replying to a message the group sent to him, Kennedy wrote:

"I mean to do everyting in my power to bring about a peaceful and honorable solution to the Berlin problem, but I am sure that you realize that such a solution cannot be achieved simply by unilateral action on the part of the United States."

Annual Donation Day and Tea Is Scheduled For Tuesday; Sole Fund Campaign for Home

BY DOROTHY A. NAREL
Freeman Society Editor

Annual Donation Day and Tea at the Home of the Aged is always eagerly awaited by both the residents and members of the Board of Managers for it gives them an opportunity to display the excellent facilities at the Home and affords area residents equal opportunity to purchase many fine handmade articles, food, jewelry and countless other items.

This year, Annual Donation Day and Tea will be held Thursday from 1 to 4 p. m. at the Home on 80 Washington Avenue.

In a letter of invitation sent out by the president of the Board of Managers, Mrs. Frances K. Prior, she states that Donation Day is the only fund raising occasion sponsored by the Board throughout the entire year. The occasion is a traditional one and offers many the chance to support this worthwhile endeavor. Some visitors make financial contributions while others aid by donating articles for the annual sale and still others assist by purchasing the food and items made available.

Assisting Mrs. Prior with arrangements this year are Mrs. Edward DeWitt, food table; Mrs. Severyn Hasbrouck, thrift table, Mrs. Bernard Feeney, tea; Mrs. Louis Smith, donations; Mrs. Clifford Henze, handwork, and Mrs. William Ochs, publicity.

As an example of the type of programs scheduled during the year, it was announced at a recent Board meeting that Mr. and Mrs. Chester Baltz of the First Presbyterian Church would entertain at the Home on October 20 at 7:30 p. m. Julius Tellier is also scheduled to entertain on October 23 at 7:30 p. m. He will appear with his orchestra. In charge of entertainment is Mrs. Bernard Feeney, who also told the Board that many automobile rides had been enjoyed by the residents during the month of October.

In November, the Board will have to select six replacements for members whose terms will have expired at the end of the year. Mr. Prior also named a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, Mrs. Conrad Gross and Mrs. Al Mollott.

Five new member recently welcomed include Mrs. Lou Clark of Milton; Mrs. Francis Davenport, Stone Ridge; Mrs. Oscar Lawatch of Kingston; Mrs. Earl Klum, Kingston; Mrs. Stewart Maxwell of Kingston. Their status will be that of associate members.

The public is cordially invited to attend the annual Donation Day and Tea in order to make it the success it has always been in the past year.

Sudden Illness of Bridegroom's Grandfather Poses Problem

Q: I am going to be married in a month and am faced with a problem. My fiance has an elderly grandfather who suddenly has been taken very ill and because of his age may not live. In the event that he should pass away before our wedding takes place, would it be necessary for us to postpone it at this late date? Ours is to be a rather large wedding with reception to follow. What would be the proper thing to do under the circumstances?

A: In this situation I do not think anyone would criticize your going ahead with the wedding as planned. Surely there is no impropriety in having a church service and there is nothing wrong in friends and relatives greeting the bride and groom after the wedding. The only questionable detail would be dancing at the reception.

Tuxedo at Afternoon Wedding

Q: My son is going to be married the latter part of next month. The wedding ceremony will be at 4:30 in the afternoon and a reception will follow at a hotel. My son is planning to wear a tuxedo which I do not think is proper. He claims that since the wedding is taking place late in the afternoon and the reception will go on into the evening, that a tuxedo is correct. I would appreciate your opinion on this matter.

A: If the wedding ceremony was to take place after 6 o'clock his wearing a tuxedo would be proper, but at 4:30 in the afternoon a tuxedo is improper.

Proper Clothes for Boy's Confirmation

Q: Will you please tell me what would be the correct attire for a boy of 13 who is being confirmed on a Saturday night some time next month?

A: Navy blue suit, white shirt, plain blue tie, white handkerchief and black shoes.

The clothes of the bride and groom as well as those of their attendants are described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled "Clothes of the Bridal Party." Scout Troop 9, Parents, Friends Hike With Slides

"Let's go on a hike," the leader said, and for the next 40 minutes, Scouts, parents, grandparents and friends of Troop 9 climbed the Green Mountains of Vermont and the Catskills of New York last Friday evening by means of color slides shown in the assembly room of Redeemer Lutheran Church.

With slides of the boys' participation in a 50-mile hike on "The Long Trail", in safaris up Slide, Whittenberg and Cornell mountains, and in camp activities at Tri-Mount, East Jewett, Scoutmaster William Daum thus emphasized the "out" in Scouting as practiced by the troop.

The program preceded a court of honor during which three tenderfeet were welcomed into Troop 9, three Scouts were advanced in rank, and several others were awarded merit badges.

A candlelight tenderfoot investiture ceremony for Robert Bruce, George Freer, and Larry Wonderly was conducted by the the scoutmaster and members of the troop. New York State neckerchiefs were presented to the new Scouts by the Mothers Club.

Assistant Scoutmaster Richard Burns, assisted by Scouts Robert Baltz, Robert Elliott, and Robert Villielm, conducted the second class investiture ceremony for Richard Remus, Steven Ryan and Raymond Wells who were awarded their new badges of rank by the chairman of the troop committee, Harold Baltz.

Miniature pins were also presented to the mothers of the new Scouts and those advancing in rank.

Migrant Worker Pays $25 Fines After Collision

A 20-year-old migrant farm worker was arrested Sunday by Highland State Police on charges of driving a car without a license and leaving the scene of an accident which occurred on Route 44-55 in the Town of Gardiner.

Trooper James Kaljian, who investigated with Sergeant R. A. Smith and Trooper Harry Foster, said Adam Billy, of Philadelphia, Miss., pleaded guilty to both charges before Justice of the Peace Warren McDowell, Town of Gardiner.

Billy was fined $25 on the license charge and $10 on the other charge. Judge McDowell also suspended a 10-day jail sentence on the leaving the scene charge.

According to Kaljian, Lee Betrand, 38, of Seville, Fla., was driving his 1953 sedan west on Route 44-55 followed by Billy's car. Betrand started to make a right turn and was struck in the rear by the migrant worker's vehicle.

Kaljian said that when he and Sergeant Smith arrived at the scene Billy was not there. He was later booked by Trooper Roster on the license charge, and last night after further investigation of the collision, Kaljian lodged the leaving the scene of an accident charge.

Betrand was taken to St. Francis' Hospital, Poughkeepsie, suffering lacerations of the chest and possible internal injuries.

Billy paid the fines.

Discuss Local AAUN Chapter

A group of Woodstock citizens met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Harris, Shotwell Road, Woodstock, to start forming a chapter of the American Association for the United Nations.

In a short introductory speech, Dr. James T. Shotwell, an honarary president of AAUN, related how this organization was started in 1948, three years after the beginning of the United Nations, to serve as a clearing house of information about the many activities of United Nations and all the specialized agencies and organizations comprising it. Similar organizations were set up in other member countries of the United Nations at that time. It is the official instrument through which all citizens can work.

In his speech at the opening of the 16th session of the United Nations, President Kennedy appealed to all American citizens to support the United Nations in the present struggle to keep it strong and powerful to work for the peace of the world.

Everyone interested in having a part in the present struggle to preserve the United Nations is invited to join with the Woodstock Chapter. For information, call Mrs. Helen Buttrick.

Lutheran Church Plans Observance Of Reformation

Christian Science Theme Is Mercy

How to avoid the mistakes of the past will be brought out Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

Highlighting the the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment' is the Golden Text from the Bible: "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord" (Lam. 3).

One of the citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Mortals move onwards towards good or evil as time glides on. If mortals are not progressive, past failures will be repeated until all wrong work is effaced or rectified . . . The divine method of paying sin's wages involves unwinding one's snarls, and learning from experience how to divide between sense and Soul."

Work on Shelter Caves Diner and Home Basements

SPRINGVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — John Gerrity, a father of seven, planned a king-sized fallout shelter.

A contractor tunnelled out 200 tons of dirt between Gerrity's house and a diner he owns next door. The shelter excavation ran 40 feet long, 11 feet deep, and 15 feet wide.

Last Friday, the weakened foundations of Gerrity's house and diner buckled. Big chunks of stone cracked off and tumbled into the hole.

Gerrity, heartbroken, said it will cost him $2,000 to fix the foundations and refill the excavation.

"I wanted adequate protection for my family, that's all I wanted," he said.

Italian Liner Is Burned Out Today

ST. GEORGE'S, Grenada (AP) —Fire burned out an Italian liner within sight of this British West Indies port today after all but one of the 750 persons aboard escaped.

All hope was abandoned for salvaging the 17,321-ton Bianca C., which burst into flames Sunday night shortly after anchoring about a mile off shore.

Maritime officials were investigating reports of an explosion before the fire.

The rescue was carried out smoothly in calm Caribbean seas.

Chief engineer Rodizza Napale was killed and eight crewmen injured, but there were no reports of casualties among the 400 passengers.

The Bianca C. was on a regular run from Naples to La Guaira, Venezuela, with calls at ports in the West Indies. Most of the passengers were reported to be immigrants to South America.

Radel Budgets Up 15.5 PC in Four Years: Schecter

Republican candidate for alderman-at-large Ben Schecter last night told members of The Young Republican Club that "Mayor Radel will be able to write a book entitled, 'How To Raise Taxes And Still Leave A Tremendous Debt For Tomorrow' when he leaves public office."

Speaking at Downtown Republican Campaign Headquarters, Schecter said, "I tell this to you young people because you are the ones who will bear the brunt of Mayor Radel's financial extravagence and irresponsible city management."

Schecter pointed out that the annual budgets of the Radel administration have soared 15.5 per cent in four years, while the cost of living index has moved only six per cent higher.

Costs Half Million, He Says

"But what worries me the most," Schecter declared, "is that Mr. Radel has somehow found a way to increase our city's bonded indebtedness at the same time he has boosted our annual budgets by $381,579.

"In all fairness," Schecter added, "about $85,000 of the budget increase is due to higher payments of interest on the city's indebtedness.

"But no matter how you add it up," Schecter concluded, "Mr. Radel has hit the taxpayer for about a half-million dollars in less than four years by burning the financial candle at both ends."

5 Persons Hurt In Car Mishaps Near Ellenville

Five persons were hurt Saturday night in two separate automobile accidents in the Ellenville area.

State Police of the Ellenville barracks reported that about 5:30 p. m. cars operated by Edward Wells, Jr., 20, of Napanoch; Mrs. Pauline Jones, 38, of RD Kingston and Dolores Saver, 25, of Napanoch were involved in a traffic mixup at Main Street and Route 209 in Napanoch. They said Caroline Rose of Lackawack, riding with Wells, complained of arm injuries; Mrs. Mildred Saver of Ellenville, riding with Dolores Saver suffered possible whiplash injuries and Stephen Jones, 3, of Kingston received a lacerated mouth. All three cars were damaged.

In the second accident, at 11 p. m. Trooper Michael Mahoney of Ellenville barracks said a car operated by Donald Trever, 29, of Ellenville skidded on the slippery road and rammed into a tree on the right side of Route 209 in Wawarsing. Trever, the trooper said, suffered a lacerated forehead and hip contusions. A passenger, Walter Ingham, 29, of North Street, Ellenville, received a fractured right arm and a dislocated right elbow. He was removed to Veterans Memorial Hospital where his condition today was reported as good.

The government of Saskatchewan this year planted more than 27 million fish, mostly rainbow trout fingerlings, in 82 lakes.

Rail Trustees are Planning to Get New $7.5 Million

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The trustees of the bankrupt New Haven Railroad say they will move quickly to obtain approval and guarantees from the Interstate Commerce Commission for $7.5 million in new borrowing.

But the trustees noted that even if the petition is pressed, it may be six weeks before the commission makes a decision.

The time element is crucial to the trustees, because they said that with its present funds the railroad will be unable to provide service behond December.

U.S. District Court Judge Robert P. Anderson on Saturday authorized the railroad to borrow $7.5 million through the issuance of trustee certificates.

The trustees said it was "a significant step" in keeping the road operating for "a limited period of time." Anderson said $7.5 million would keep the line going until next June.

Sudden Snow Has Many Hunters in Idaho Marooned

BURLEY, Idaho (AP)—A sudden snowstorm marooned hundreds of hunters south of here Saturday on the firs t day of deer season. Scores were feared still stranded by four-foot drifts today.

Many wore light clothing and carried few provisions, expecting to be in the hills only a day.

Two or three thousand hunters thronged to three game units south of Burley and Twin Falls Saturday.

One hunter died of a heart attack and two others were reported missing south of Burley, where up to two feet of snow fell.

"It's hard to say just how many are still stranded," said Police Chief George E. Warrell of Burley. "A bunch of the hunters went back in and we can't figure out who's lost and who isn't."

More snow was forecast today. Authorities planned air drops of food if the weather permitted. A low ceiling hampered aerial scouting and air drops Sunday.

Ground parties, using snow plows and heavy vehicles, worked around the clock.

The storm also hit southward in northern Utah where about 150,000 hunters were out for the opening of deer season.

Doctor Claims He Has Pills for Black Eyes

NEWNAN, Ga. (AP)—The raw beefsteak traditionally used for do-it-yourself treatment of a black eye may now be discarded—or even eaten.

A Newnan doctor claims tablets of an enzyme have been found to help reduce the swelling in one or two days instead of the much longer period required by natural healing.

Dr. Ben H. Jenkins reported in the current issue of Clinical Medicine that the enzyme used was chymotrypsin, naturally present in the body to digest proteins, and now available in tablet form.

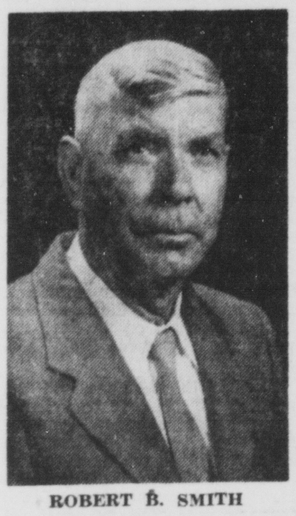
SAUGERTIES GOP TOWN CANDIDATE



ROBERT B. SMITH

A newcomer to Saugerties Town politics, Robert B. Smith of Churchland is the Republican candidate for the four-year term of town councilman.

A native of Saugerties, Mr. Smith has proven his qualifications as an able administrator in his 22 years as manager of the Colonial Coal and Lumber Company of Saugerties. He became the first manager when the company was established in 1939.

Prior to that he had been employed with Saugerties Coal and Lumber Company for 25 years. With his wide business administrative experience, he is well qualfied for the position of town councilman. The position of councilman on the Town Board requires a businessman with sound judgment such as Mr. Smith possesses, who can make the important decisions often faced by a Town Board member.

Active in two fraternal organizations and the civic activities of his community, Mr. Smith has served the Centerville Fire District for many years and is currently chairman of the Board of Fire Commissioners.

Saugerties Trounces Wappingers, 31-0, in DCSL Contest

Moves Into Top Spot in League; Lou Spada Stars

What was supposed to be a close contest was simply a rout Saturday at the high flying Saugerties High football team overpowered Wappingers Falls, 31-0, at the Falls gridiron.

Since Beacon was upset by Roosevelt, the win leaves the Sawyers all alone in first place in the DSCL race as they attempt a second straight title.

The contest was close for only a quarter. The visitors had a little trouble rolling into high gear in the first 12 minutes but once they found the range, the Indians were helpless.

The First Score

An attempted fourth down punt was misplayed in the second quarter and the visitors took over on the Wappingers 25. Big Al Hrdlicka then went to the two on the first attempt and on fourth down from that point, Lou Spada crashed his way into the end zone. Hrdlicka missed the PAT.

The visitors came storming back moments later after putting a punt in play. Hrdlicka dashed from the Falls 39 to the 10, Spada carried to the four and then sophomore quarterback Joe Ollinger tossed a shortie over the line to big Bill Schrimer for the score. Spada bobbled the center for the extra point attempt by Hrdlicka but Lou picked up the pigskin and took it over himself.

The home side picked off a pass by Ollinger on the one late in the second period and appeared to be headed out of danger. However, Lee Straley fumbled while being tackled and SHS guard Eddie Gunn pounced on it in the end zone for another score and a 19-0 margin at halftime.

A 20 yard pass from Ollingers to Schirmer set up a touchdown in the third period and Hrdlicka crashed over from the five. A nifty 50 yard run by Spada in the fourth period finished the scoring for the day.

With the Indians concentrating their defensive efforts on Hrdlicka, Spada broke loose time and time again for the visitors, who have now won five straight this season and 12 in a row since last year.

Coach Fred Seither cited the entire line for doing a solid defensive job on the home side. Wappingers was held to 17 yards in the first half.

Sport Club Booters Nip Poughkeepsie K of C, 1-0

Dietz Stadium Contest Ends In Big Brawl

What started out to be another Central New York league soccer tilt ended in a giant sized brawl yesterday at Dietz Stadium as the Kingston Sport Club nipped the Poughkeepsie Knights of Columbus, 1-0.

With five minutes left to play, a player from each side started to fight. Within seconds, the Kingston bench and the fans in the stands were on the field and the fight erupted into a brawl with everybody swinging. Pat Sheridan, coach of the Poughkeepsie team, said his players were assaulted by the fans.

Before the uprising, the local team had to work hard to score the only goal of the litter battle. The score came at the 25-minute mark when Toni Alexander passed from his right wing position to center forward Hans Wolf, who kicked the ball into the net. The Sport Club had several other opportunities but the visitors had a good defense.

Right fullback Alex Bruckner saved the game for Kingston with a great play late in the game. He kicked out a sure goal.

Alex Dirks, the leading scorer for the Sport Club, did not see action yesterday.

Sheridan said today he will bring up the assault complaint to the league at its meeting Saturday night in Poughkeepsie. "We play this game for the sport, not to get injured," claimed Sheridan, who said seven of his players were also assaulted last week at Endicott.

In other league action, Albany Athletic Club belted Poughkeepsie Italians, 7-2; Schenectady Sons of Italy nipped the Albany Sport Club, 1-0; Troy beat Schenectady Football Club, 4-3; Endicott topped Little Falls, 4-3 and Poughkeepsie Blue and White trounced Utica, 5-0.

East Stroudsburg Tops New Paltz, 4-1, in Soccer

After holding the highly rated home side scoreless in the first half, the New Paltz College soccer team lost, 4-1, at East Stroudsburg Saturday. The Hawks were the first team this season to score against the home side, which has won six straight matches.

Gordon Krajna tallied at the eight minute mark of the first period to give New Paltz the lead. Goalie Jay Winter had 44 saves for the Hawks in a spectacular first half exhibition. He was hurt in the third period and that ruined the visitors. They surrendered four goals in the second half.

The Hawks play at Drew on Nov. 1 and will finish their season on Nov. 4 against Danbury State.

Schneider Is 100-Lap Champion at Speedway

OLIVE BRIDGE, N. Y., Oct. 22—Frankie Schneider of Lambertsville, N. J., still found plenty of green in the rust-colored Catskill Mountains this autumn afternoon as he streaked home ahead of a 30-car starting pack to capture the 100-lap "open" championship race at Onteora Speedway Park with a $1,000 check hanging on the checkered flag.

Fifteen cars finished the gruelling grind around the half-mile oval, and with the exception of three laps, Schneider stayed very much ahead of the field. He led the first two whirls around the clay-banked track, and quickly regained the lead on the sixth lap.

Schneider's toughest competition came from Lou Lazzaro of Utica, but he dropped out on the 52nd lap, and D.D. (Rebel) Harris of Poughkeepsie, a consistent winner throughout the regular 1961 season, went into the pits on the 58th lap. Schneider had clear motoring from there to the finish, scoring his fastest time on the 77th lap when he registered 27½ seconds.

Despite the distance and the number of cars, it was practically a mishap-free, century spin. Fred Cook and Carl Van Horn went into the fence on the first turn of the 11th lap, and Don Gillette rolled over the fence on the 26th lap, just off the third turn, but there were no injuries in either accident.

Lazzaro won the first 10-lap, qualifying heat. Schneider finished first in the second heat and Harris was ahead of the field in the next one. Bob Hall of Flemington, N. J. won the fourth heat, while the consolation event to Robbie Katary of Rome.

Onteora closes out the 1961 season Oct. 29, next Sunday, with three qualifying heats, a consolation and 25-lap feature.

Colgate, Yale Game Upstate Grid Feature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Revived Colgate, again the scourge of the Ivy league, will attempt Saturday to extend its shutout streak against Ivy opponents to three when it meets Yale in The Bowl.

Colgate blanked Princeton, 15-0 Saturday in one of six shutout involving Upstate New York football teams. Syracuse was on the short end of a 14-0 score against Penn State.

Cornell, only team to beat Colgate this year, was humbled 12-0 by Yale.

Other scores:

Vermont 18, Rochester 0; Southern Connecticut 21, Ithaca 0; St. Lawrence 35, Norwich 0; Alfred 16, Hobart 13; Buffalo 30, Temple 3; Union 10, Rensselaer Poly 8, and Cortland State 27, Kings (Pa.), 8.

Colgate, in the midst of a rebuilding program under Coach Alva Kelley, was shut out 34-0 in the opening game by Cornell, which has not won since.

The Red Raider defense has yielded, however, cutting off Bucknell, Harvard and Princeton without a score in three victories.

Many Injuries

Syracuse, which meets Holy Cross Saturday, took a battered backfield against Penn State. Quarterback Galen Hall probed the reserves with passes, throwing for eight straight completions in the first half. He passed for both Penn State touchdowns.

Only Ernie Davis of the regular backfield played for Syracuse, which has six players out with broken hands. Sophomore Walt Sofsain did the quarterbacking for Syracuse.

Penn State keyed its defenses to Davis, and held him to 36 yards in 114 carries.

The defeat was the second for the Orangemen, who had been ranked as the best in the East in Lambeth Trophy voting.

Yale, defending Ivy champion, visited Ithaca with three sophomores in its backfield, two scored. Randy Egloff ran 17 yards in the second period for one touchdown and Lynard Hinojosa raced 25 yards in the closing minutes of the game for the other. Dick Niglio, the third soph, led all Yale ball carriers with 66 yards in 17 carries.

Cornell will travel to Princeton Saturday.

Alfred at Grove City, Pa.; Buffalo at Connecticut; Brockport State at Cortland State ;Hobart at Union; Carnegie Tech at Rochester; St. Lawrence at Hamilton; Ithaca at C. W. Post; and Middlebury at Rensselaer Poly.

New Paltz Nips Rondout; Marlboro Stops Onteora, 33-13

Huguenots Stay Unbeaten With 13-6 Verdict

Driving towards an unbeaten season, New Paltz Central threw a rock ribbed defense against Rondout Valley and made two touchdowns stand up in a 13-6 UCAL decision at the Marbletown school field in Stone Ridge.

The home side unfurled a long drive in the opening stanza and quarterback Biff Longfield climaxed it with a plunge from the three. He then pegged to Clayt Whitted for the point.

The Ganders moved to the New Paltz four in the second session but a fumble thwarted the bid. An interception of a Rondout pass by Whitted in the same period halted another threat.

Longfield, an outstanding quarterback, passedto Ken Freer, the lanky end, to set up a score in the third period. Tom Weisz took it in from the four.

The Ganders struck in the final period when Pete Green took a 20 yard scoring pass from quarterback Jim Brush. However, they were stymied in other scoring efforts by their own fumbles and by an alert New Paltz defense.

Spartans Nearing Grid Title

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the college football season at the halfway point, Michigan State's big and brusing Spartans today headed the list of candidates for the national championship.

Duffy Daugherty's club has five Big Ten opponents in a row on its schedule starting with Indiana this Saturday. But it's unlikely that the Spartans will see another team as rough as Notre Dame.

Michigan State (4-0) just did beat the Irish, 17-7, Saturday after sputtering along well into the third quarter. Notre Dame (3-1) scored the first touchdown of the year against Daugherty's behemoths.

The big factor in Michigan State's favor is the schedule. The Spartans do not meet either Iowa, (4-0) which steamrolled Wisconsin, 47-15, to remain one of the nine major teams still undefeated and untied, or Ohio State, (3-0-1). The Buckeyes had a tough time with Northwestern Saturday, finally pulling it out, 10-0.

Iowa and Ohio State still are very much in the running for the national title, but they come to grips on Nov. 4.

Mississippi (5-0), Texas (5-0) and Alabama (5-0) also have a chance of coming out on top. Ol' Miss and 'bama, two Southeastern Conference powers, do not tangle, so theres no chance of killing each other off.

'Ole Miss Scores

Mississippi, knocked out of first place in the AP poll by Michigan State, clobbered Tulane Saturday night, 41-0. Texas smother Arkansas, 33-7, and Alabama cut down Tennessee, 34-3 in a regional TV game. This week Mississippi engages Vanderbilt, Texas takes on Rice, and Alabama meets Houston.

On Nov. 4, Mississippi must play Louisiana State (4-1), another big boy of the SEC, which whipped Kentucky, 24-14, Alabama does not have LSU scheduled, either. However, Alabama plays Georgia Tech, ranked No. 8, and a narrow 7-6 winner over Auburn.

Besides Michigan State, Mississippi, Texas, Iowa and Alabama, the other major teams with perfect records include Rutgers, (4-0) Colorado (4-0), Memphis State (6-0) and Bowling Green (5-0).

Dartmouth, Detroit and Villanova all toppled from the all-winning list, over the weekend.

Vince Caserto Gets Four TDs To Lead Dukes

Sophomore halfback Vince Caserto scored four touchdowns at Dietz Stadium Saturday to lead Marlboro to a 33-13 verdict over a fired up Onteora Central school club. The win keeps the Dukes in the running for the UCAL crown.

Caserto scored in the first quarter on a 20 yard run, tallied in the second period on a 15 yard dash, went 60 yerds with an intercepted pass in the third period and dashed 75 yards in the fourth quarter. He was simply superb.

The Indians made things interesting. After Caserto had scored his first touchdown, Coach Bob Ryan's charges came back to knot the score with Wally Hereth catching a 15 yard pass from quarterback George Loveless for the payoff. Eric Stoutenburg then ran for the tying point.

Caserto tallied again to start the second period and the lead was 14-7 in favor of the visitors as Brian Collins caught a pass from Vic Mandia for the PAT.

An Onteora pass fell into the grasp of Caserto in the third quarter and the busy halfback traveled 60 yards for the tally. Mandia then targeted Dave Monroe for the extra point.

The Indians struck in the late stages of the third quarter when Joe Guglielmetti drove over from the three to climax a long drive. This only served to give Caserto another chance and he dashed 75 yards after getting the kickoff.

The visitors clinched matters in the final period as Mandia hit George Fuhrmann with a pass from the 20.

Both sides were penalized heavily during the afternoon. It was a rough game.

Bears Stop 'Frisco Shotgun; Giants, Eagles Keep Winning

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who forgot to load the shotgun?

That was the big question in the National Football League today after the Chicago Bears completely muffled San Francisco's high-powered shotgun offense and knocked the 49ers out of a share of the Western Conference lead with a 31-0 walloping.

Clicking with an effective aerial combination with castoff quarterback Billy Wade pitching to rookie end Mike Ditka, the Bears moved smoothly Sunday against the usually stubborn 49ers defense and shackled San Francisco's three-barrled shotgun with a 5-2-4 defensive deployment.

Chicago allowed the 49ers, who had averaged over 40 points in three previous games, to penetrate past midfield only once while Wade's accurate passes found their target for four Chicago touchdowns. Ditka grabbed two—covering 47 and 15 yards.

The defeat left the 49ers and Bears with 4-2 records, a game behind the first-place Green Bay Packers, who whipped the Minnesota Vikings 33-7 and may have located a replacement for Army-bound Paul Hornung in hard-running Tom Moore.

Philadelphia's league champion Eagles rolled to a 43-7 victory over Dallas and remained in a tie for the top spot in the Eastern Conference with the New York Giants, 24-14 winners over the Los Angeles Rams.

Groza Boots Three

Cleveland (4-2) stayed one game back of the Eastern leaders by beating Pittsburgh's ambitious Steelers 30-28 with the key help of Lou Groza's three field goals. Baltimor edged Detroit 17-14 and St. Louis blanked Washington, the only winless team in the circuit, 24-0.

Moore averaged 9.9 yards in 16 carries after entering the game for the Packers (5-1) in the first quarter when Hornung league leading scorer to report for active duty Oct. 30, aggravated a knee injury. Hornung, however, kept at his kicking duties against the Vikings (1-5), and booted field goals of 13, 18, 17 and 16 yards plus three extra points to run his point total to 92.

The Eagles (5-1) used the bull-like charges of Billy Barnes and the passing of Sonny Jurgensen to outlcass the Cowboys (3-3).

Conerly Ices Drive

With the Giants (5-1) trailing 14-10 in the fourth quarter, old reliable Chuck Conerly, benched for Y.A. Tittle earlier this season, passed 10 yards to Kyle Rote and 37 to Del Shofner for the clinching score against the Rams (1-5).

Bobby Mitchell scored three TDs on short runs for the Browns (4-2), but it was Groza's third field goal—a 12-yarder in the routh quarter—that subdued the Steelers (1-5).

Steve Myhra booted a 45-yard field goal with eight seconds remaining as the Colts (3-3) came from behind in the final period and edged the Lions (3-3).

Ralph Guglielmi, who came to the Cards from Washington, passed for two scores as St. Louis (3-3) handed the Redskins (0-6) their second shutout in succession and their 14th loss in a row over a two-season span.

Chargers Top Oakland In AFL Game, 41 - 10

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

San Diego's Chargers undoubtedly favor a change in coaches—for some other team. Especially a team that could do them some good as a result.

Not that San Diego needs any help in the American Football League race since it has won all its games. But when Houston beat Dallas 28-7 through the inspiration of a new coach, it virtually wrapped up the Western Division championship for the Chargers.

With seven games to play San Diego is 3½ games ahead of second-place Dallas.

San Diego clouted Oakland 41-10 Sunday for its seventh straight league triumph. Dallas took its worst licking in its AFL tenure when Houston, directed by new coach Wally Lemm who succeeded the fired Lou Rymkus, broke the Texan hex.

Blanda Gets Hot

The first thing Lemm did was to bring George Blanda off the bench, where Rymkus had sat him, and let the pro veteran pass for three touchdowns and kick a 53-yard field goal. It was just one yard under the league record of 54 yards set by George Fleming of Oakland against Denver Oct. 1.

Oakland took the lead on San Diego with a 28-yard pass from Tom Flores to Bob Coolbaugh but Paul Lowe ripped off a couple of long touchdown runs to shoot the Chargers out front. They added to it steadily as they went along.

While the status quo was maintained in the Western Division all was turmoil in the Eastern. Leading New York took a 27-10 whipping from Denver and Boston clubbed Buffalo 52-21 and that brought about a tie for the lead between New York and Boston. Buffalo is only a half-game back and Houston the same although fourth in percentage.

Denver shoved over 17 points in the last quarter to break a 10-10 tie and go on to victory.

Versatile Gino Cappelletti scored 16 points in spearing Boston's triumph and it increased his league scoring lead. He now has 96 points—42 more than second-place Jack Spikes of Dallas.

Manila, Philippines —Johnny Gonsalves, 141, Oakland, Calif., outpointed Roberto Cruz, 141½, Manila, 10.

Montreal Leads NHL Standings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Hockey League is beginning to take on a more familiar look, with Montreal back in its accustomed spot atop the standings.

The powerful Canadiens only have a share of the spot—surprising New York owns the other half of the No. 1 position—but the Canadiens have played three fewer games than the Rangers.

A pair of victories over the weekend, a 6-2 romp over unhappy Boston Saturday and Sunday's 3-2 comeback over Chicago, boosted Montreal into a tie with New York, each with 9 points.

And while the onrushing Canadiens were keeping their unbeaten record intact, New York was able to pick up only one point in two games and lost the services of its regular goalie, Gump Worsley.

The stubby netminder was hospitalized in Detroit with a severe concussion midway through the Rangers' 4-4 tie with the Red Wings Saturday. He was knocked off his feet and struck his head on the ice.

The Rangers hasily summoned Marcel Paille from Springfield of the American Hockey League and he will remain in the New York nets until Worsley can return.

Paille was victimized by lack of support and beaten by Detroit 5-4 in New York Sunday night.

Middletown Gets 26-7 Win OverNFA

Unbeaten Middletown rolled to a four touchdown lead in the first half and smothered Newburgh Free Academy, 26-7, in a DUSO league game Saturday at the Hilly City gridiron. The win was the fourth straight for the Middies.

Halfback Ronnie Smith scored from the two, 14 and 45 to pace the winners. Bill Gray, an outstanding defensive performer, ran 45 yards after taking a fumble out of the air.

Newburgh scored the first touchdown of the season on the Middies when Jim Hill went over from the two in the final period.

Fisher Slams 765

Local Clubs Fare Well In Valley Pin Action

Kingston entries in the Hudson Valley Bowling league had a successful weekend as 3 Brothers Egg Farms, Jones Dairy, Charles Ramsey and Miron Lumber all captured two games.

Jones socked 3120 but managed only a pair against the Ellenville Channel Masters as Sam Fisher blasted a brilliant 765 series at the Bowlerama. He had 244-278-243 for his total, a league high for the season. Fisher started his second game with six strikes, made a spare and then struck out. He was aided by Tim Bilyeu (652), Frank Brink (627) and Dick Exner (623). Jack Ferraro led the Jones boys with 253-213-231-697. John Ferraro had 257-188-245-690, Larry Petersen 183-197-232-612 and Buster Ferraro 205-201-200-606. It was a good match.

Tom Carlino slammed 220-201-204-625 to lead 3 Brothers to their pair of wins at Newburgh against Bowling Time Inc. Joe Shier led the home side with 223-191-219-633.

Vince Carpino shot 249-191-195-635, George Glaser 198-214-212-624 and Phil Battaglia 222-210-183-615 as Charles Ramsey won a pair from Rhoda Arms of Newburgh. Wally Gerkin hit 607 for the losers.

Anchorman Dick Howard shot 214-242-188-644 to lead Miron over Middletown Merchants. Don Fox had 590 to pace the visitors.

Shocking the visitors with a 6-yard touchdown play on the first try from scrimmage, Roosevelt Central upset Beacon, 12-8, in a DCSL feature Saturday at the Hyde Park gridiron.

Sophomore George Platter pegged to end Pete Brenner for the score and then Jim Fulmer took over for the Presidents in a brilliant performance. He led a 66 yard surge in the third period and scored from the 12 to clinch the verdict.

Beacon, which had won four straight in a bid for an unbeaten season, picked up a safety in the third quarter and a late touchdown when Mike Devine pegged 60 yards to Bert Exum. Otherwise, the game belonged to Roosevelt.

Archie Moore Set To Fight Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sugar Ray Robinson had his fling last week. Now it's the turn of light heavyweight champion Archie Moore and lightweight king Joey Brown, another pair of antique gladiators.

Moore, who will be 45 (by his count) on Dec. 13, ends a four-months vacation tonight by taking on Pete Rademacher in a non-title ten rounder in Baltimore. Archie hasn't fought since he whipped young Giulio Rinaldi last June in defense of his piece of the 175-pound crown.

Rademacher, 33, the 1956 Olympic heavyweight champion, was stopped in his last two fights by Doug Jones and George Logan.

Brown, 35 and a pro 15½ years, at least, makes the 11th defense of his 135-pound crown at Manila Saturday night. Old Bones takes on Bert Somodio, a Filipino billed as the "Nursery Kid," in the 36,000-seat Areneta Stadium just outside of Manila.

Bobo Olson, the former middleweight champion, meets Sixto Rodriguez of San Anselmo, Calif., in a light heavyweight ten rounder at San Francisco tonight.

Minutemen Hold Practice After Seizure of Arms

COLLINSVILLE, Ill. (AP)—The "Minutemen" held what they called successful guerrilla field maneuvers Sunday despite the confiscation of part of their arsenal.

One of the group's leaders, Rich Lauchli, 35, a onetime paratroop sergeant from Collinsville, was arrested and some heavy weapons were seized Saturday.

Eleven persons, including Lauchli, a woman and a teenage boy slogged over cold, fog-shrouded wooded ground in a two-hour field exercise Sunday.

Leader Is Arrested

National leader Robert DePugh 37, of Norborne, Mo., and Lauchli agreed the drill was successful.

Lauchli is charged with "willing and unlawful possession of illegal firearms." His arrest came upon the complaint of Philip Taylor, Shiloh, Ill., township supervisor, after the group set up a weapons display in Shiloh.

Lauchli, free on $1,000 bond, is to appear in magistrate's court Nov. 3.

Seized with Lauchli were two Browning automatic rifles, a Browning machinegun and an M4 automatic rifle. He brought a 60 mm mortar and a 5 7mm anti-tank rifle for Sunday's demonstration.

Practice Attack

The minutemen practiced an attack on an enemy outpost, movement behind a screen from smoke grenades and a skirmish line charge.

DePugh's wife, mother of five children, charged with the rest, lugging an automatic rifle.

DePugh said similar maneuvers have been hel din San Antonio, Tex., Omaha, Neb., Philadelphia, Columbus, Ohio, Kansas City, Mo., and Newark, N.J.

Launchli described his arrest as a "misunderstanding about the nature and purpose of our organization."

He said he had legally bought the weapons and they are "used solely fo r instruction. All are deactivated and none of our members have any ammunition for them."

DePugh said "we're just loyal American citizens who are tired of being pushed around by the Communists and who want to do something to stem the tide of their advance."

DePugh says he and nine other men founded the Minutemen in June 1960 and it has grown to a nation-wide membership of some 25,000.

Pharmacal Firm Offers $100,000 to Hartwick

Norwich Pharmacal Company of Norwich, has made a challenge subscription in the amount of $100,000 to Hartwick College, Oneonta, to go toward the construction of a new science building, according to an announcement made today by President Frederick M. Binder.

Hartwick is engaged in a campaign to secure sufficient funds for a much-needed science building. The enrollment at the college has more than doubled in recent years and the present science facilities which have not been increased since the college was founded in 1928 are entirely inadequate.

Dr. Binder, in referring to the challenge subscription of the Norwich firm said: "We accept this challenge with deep appreciation and shall do our best to meet it. We feel honored that the Pharmacal Company has shown an interest in the future of our college by taking this challenge subscription. The generous offer inspires us to continue our campaign with vigor and confidence."

Early Man

Until 1959, paleontologists believed mankind to be 500,000 years old. Then Dr. L. S. B. Leakey reported the discovery in Tanganyika of an earlier man who lived and hunted on the shores of a long-vanished lake some 600,000 years ago.

Three Are Injured In Two Accidents

Two persons were reported injured in a two-car mishap on the Boulevard early today and one reported injuries after another on Broadway Sunday.

Lillian Mackey, 29, of Delray Beach, Fla. reported an injury of the left arm. She drove a car headed south on Washington Avenue, and the other was operated east on the Boulevard by Charles H. Port, 52, of 90 First Avenue, who reported injuries of the left eye, leg and shoulder.

Both were taken to Kingston Hospital by Fatum ambulance, where Port was treated and discharged, and the woman was admitted. Her condition was reported as fair today. Sgt. Thomas Tomshaw, Detective Albert Hutton with Officers Thomas Carpino and Lewis Keator investigated.

Barbara Mertes, 17, of 10 VanBuren Street, suffered back and neck injuries in the Broadway mishap reported at 9 a. m. Sunday. She was treated by a doctor.

Police said the one car was driven by Donald Robins, 25, of 155 O'Neil Street, and the other by Wayne Burhans, 20, of 156 Pearl Street. Officer Gerald Every investigated.

UAW Local Seeks Second Ballot on Chrysler Terms

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union was pushing for local-level contract settlements with Chrysler Corp. today under the cloud of a new threat to the union's profit-sharing agreement with American Motors Corp.

UAW negotiators represent 60,000 Chrysler workers.

In Milwaukee an official of the UAW's Local 75, which earlier approved the UAW-American Motors pact, aid several hundred members now were demanding a second vote on the contract.

The 9,000-member local approved the contract Oct. 1. The request for a second vote came following a meeting Friday night. A spokesman for the local said a matter of principle, ather than opposition to items in the contract, brought the request.

The UAW already has ordered a second election for 12,000-member Local 72 at the Kenosha, Wis., AMC plant. Local 72 rejected the new contract by a narrow margin Oct. 8. The rejection by Local 72 was over working conditions, such as wash-up time, and not the profit-sharing phase of the contract.

Swedish Expert Declares Soviet Union Set Off Giant Nuclear Explosion Today

Rusk Backs Declaration That Nation Has Strength to Crush Any Aggressor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk, backing a Pentagon official's declaration that the United States has the retaliatory power to crush any aggressor, says any U.S. approach to negotiation with the Soviet Union would be from a position of strength.

Rusk emphatically identified himself Sunday with the assessment of U.S. military power by Roswell L. Gilpatric, deputy secretary of defense. In a speech Saturday night, Gilpatric said the United States "has a nuclear retaliatory force of such lethal power that an enemy move which brought it into play would be an act of self-destruction on his part."

Feels All Should Know

Appearing on a television interview program — ABC — "Issues and Answers" Rusk was asked what made it possible now for the administration "to speak out so confidently and positively" on U.S. military power.

"I think this is a point about which there ought to be more general public understanding, because when you are in problems of negotiation, the question inevitably comes up from time to time whether you are negotiating from a position of strength or of weakness or whether you have cause to be nervous or confident," Rusk replied.

"The point is that the United States and its allies are strong. Mr. Khrushchev must know that we are strong, and he does know that we are strong."

Speech Sanctioned

At the same time, Rusk discounted speculation that the U.S. position had hardened in its approach to a Berlin settlement.

Rusk said he went over the speech with Gilpatric before the defense official delivered it at a meeting of the Business Council at Hot Springs, Va.

Even before Rusk made public his approval of Gilpatric's statement, it was obvious that the speech was prepared with the sanction of the White House and State Department. In answer to a reporter's questions, a Pentagon spokesman said Saturday that the Gilpatric text had been given "the highest possible clearance."

Early U. N. Vote Seen on Nuclear Weapon Test Ban

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —U.N. members neared a vote today on whether their first appeal against nuclear weapon tests should be against all of them or just against the Soviet Union's threatened 50-megaton blast.

Denmark proposed that the 101-nation Political Committee vote first on a seven-nation resolution appealing to the Soviet government not to explode the giant bomb which Premier Khrushchev last week said probably would be touched off by the end of the month.

India Makes Proposal

India wants the committee to vote first on its resolution urging all atomic powers to refrain from all further nuclear tests until a test-ban agreement is reached.

Britain and the United States are sponsoring a third resolution urging resumption of their negotiations with the Soviet Union for a test ban and calling for a progress report to the U.N. Disarmament Commission by next March. This resolution was submitted

Rocky Names Group to Study State Compensation Problem

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) —Gov. Rockefeller said today he hoped to end controversy over the state workmen's compensation law "by bringing together men. . . .from labor, business and government who are dedicated to the objectives we all share for this program."

The governor named a 10-member committee to study the law, which provides aid to injured or disabled workers.

Earlier, Harold C. Hanover, state AFL-CIO president, charged that more than 50 cents of every dollar in compensation payments went for "overhead, commissions, administrative expenses and exhorbitant profits for the private insurance carriers."

Shows Personal Concern

Hanover, in a speech prepared for the State AFL-CIO convention said the state, knowingly or not, was "administering an insurance company compensation law and a broker-compensation law, rather than a compensation law for workmen."

Rockefeller, told the labor convention his record was "evidence of my deep personal concern for the on-the-job safety of the working man and woman in this state."

In a prepared speech, the governor said that under his administration, maximum benefits were increased from $45 to $50 a week and coverage was extended to 390,000 additional workers.

Rockefeller appointed Victor Vorella, executive vice president of Rockefeller Center and the

Levitt Would Scrap Aid To Schools, Change Plan

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Comptroller Arthur Levitt backed a proposal today that the state scrap its aid to education formulas and instead contribute a percentage of every dollar spent by local school boards.

"By contributing a percentage of every educational dollar..., the state will not only keep up-to-date its educational support, it will also put an end to the annual legislative squabble over the extent of additional state aid, and eliminate the need for special aid programs," he said.

Levitt made the comments in a speech prepared for delivery at the 42nd annual convention of the New York State School Boards Association.

"If we believe in local initiative integrity," Levitt said, "we must be willing to back the choice made by the local community."

In backing the proposal of the Educational Conference Board, Levitt said he believed "that a community willing to put a larger than average effort into improving its schools should be encouraged through the provision of additional state aid."

Levitt disagreed, however, with the board's proposal to retain real-property values as a sole determinant of the state's share of education costs.

He said "consideration should be given to having the level of personal incomes of residents of the school district incorporated as an index in determining ability to pay."

He said, however, he was not proposing additional income taxes.

In a speech Sunday night, James E. Allen Jr., state education commissioner, told the 4,000 school board members that educators must lead the effort to eliminate segregation and assure equal educational opportunities in schools.

"If we do not take the lead," he warned, "we will find decisions on educational questions being made by others—we will find ourselves forced into courses of action which are not educationally sound."

Allen also endorsed Gov. Rockefeller's proposal for construction of fallout shelters in schools.

In another speech, the executive dean of Nassau Community College, Mineola, declared that the slogan "Better Red than Dead" was "the denial of character and the acceptance of defeat."

Dr. Marvin A. Rapp said that to fight this concept, "Americans must so live their personal lives that our national purpose will reflect" a profound belief in the dignity of man.

Special Session Due Nov. 9 on Shelters

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Legislature meets in special session Nov. 9 to act on nuclear-fallout protection for 4 million students.

Gov. Rockefeller proposed his new program as the top item on the agenda of the session, in which the Legislature also will redraw congressional district lines and consider expanded benefits to New Yorkers on active duty in the armed forces.

Approval Expected

Sen. Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney said he expected the fallout-shelter program would be approved without much controversy.

The State Education Commissioner, James E. Allen Jr., said he had no reservations about the program, although there were many unanswered questions.

One of the unanswered questions was the cost of the program. Neither Allen, Mahoney nor Rockefeller's aides would estimate the cost of providing shelters in the estimated 6,000-plus school buildings throughout the state.

Would Give State Aid

The key part of Rockefeller's new program, which has bi-partisan support, is state aid to public and private schools and colleges, for construction of fallout shelters.

A spokesman for the governor said leaders believed the program would not violate the constitutional ban on allocating state funds to sectarian schools.

Under the present plan, the money would go to the State Civil Defense Council, which would buy shelters in the school buildings and retain jurisdiction over them. Initiative for shelter construction would rest with the schools.

Mahoney said "we have an obligation to do something about" protecting the students.

Will Ask Help

Allen, in Syracuse, said Sunday ne would ask education leaders to help him draft the shelter bill.

He said he was anxious to see the plan "accomplished with the minimum disruption of educational goals and plans, consistent with the maximum provision for protection."

In a telephone talk with a newsman Sunday, Mahoney estimated that the special session, which Rockefeller called Saturday, would last two days. But the Buffalo Republican added that the Republican - controlled legislature

New Time-Law In Effect This Year for Voting

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) —New York's new time-off-to-vote law will be effective in next month's general election for the first time.

The law, which limits the amount of time a worker can leave the job to vote, was passed by the 1960 Legislature. But it did not become effective until January of this year so that the controversial statute would not figure in the presidential election last fall.

Under previous law, all workers could take off two hours to vote. Under the new statute, a worker is not entitled to time off if the polls are open for four consecutive hours before he starts work or after he stops work.

Considered Sufficient

The four hours are considered sufficient time to vote.

If an employe does not have those four hours, he is entitled to up to two hours off with pay.

East German Police Blamed by Gen. Clay For Border Trouble

3 Patton Tanks Back Up Action

BERLIN (AP) — Gen. Lucius D. Clay today blamed Communist East German police for "irresponsible and illegal behavior" causing an incident on the border involving U.S. troops.

Taylor, President Kennedy's special envoy in Berlin, spoke up after a squad of U.S. troops twice marched into Red-ruled East Berlin Sunday night with bayonets fixed to escort E. Allan Lightner Jr., top State Department official in Berlin. East German police had stopped Lightner's car. The East Germans did not try to interfere with the U.S. soldiers.

Tanks Stand Ready

The U.S. soldiers were backed up by three Patton tanks that moved up to the border. The tanks stood guard through the night but were withdrawn this morning. But East German police at the border were reinforced.

The East German police at the checkpoint, who usually are armed only with pistols, were carrying submachineguns.

To Get Machine Guns

A police spokesman said submachine guns will also be given to policemen at "certain points" of the 25-mile sector border, dividing Berlin.

West Berlin police so far had been equipped with pistols and along the zonal border some police carried carbines.

The behavior of the East German people's police, "created the incident and forced the United States to send a military escort into the Soviet sector to assist the U.S. minister in exercising his right of free entry and free movement in the Soviet sector," the statement said.

Lightner is deputy chief of the U.S. mission, ranking behind the U.S. ambassador to West Germany. As top State Department official in Berlin, he holds the rank of minister.

Protest Expected

Protests were expeced from the Communists against the action of the American troops in escorting Lightner into East Berlin.

Lightner, driving to an East Berlin theater with his wife, was stopped by East German Vopos — People's Police— when he refused to show his identification papers.

6th Session Starts After Antiparty Out

MOSCOW (AP) —The Soviet Communist party's 22nd congress went into its sixth session today after delegates were assured that the so-called antiparty group will not be allowed to rise again.

Premier Khrushchev's economic expert, Alexei Kosygin, took up the condemnation Saturday of the group led by ex-Premier Georgi Malenkov and ex-Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov. Khrushchev revived the subject Tuesday, and speakers each day since have been echoing him.

Those Days Over

While extolling Khrushchev for his peaceful coexistence policy, Kosygin emphasized that the days of the "personality cult"—as exemplified by the adulation of Stalin—were over.

Kosygin, a member of the ruling party Presidium, told the delegates that the Molotov-Malenkov faction exposed in 1957 is not being given another raking over out of fear.

Kosygin said, "Our party is strong and united as never before.

"But we are doing this so as to show again to the party and people where the personality cult leads, what irrevocable damage the antiparty group could have inflicted to the party and government. We want the lessons of history never to be forgotten."

Buzzanco Faces Contempt Action for Keeping Junk

Further court action in an attempt to get Andy Buzzanco, of Abeel Street, to comply with a zoning board ruling and remove from his premises an assortment of second-hand and deteriorated articles is due in Supreme Court, special term Nov. 3, it was learned today.

Affidavits already served, it was noted, allege that Buzzanco is, in fact, operating a junk yard, and that continuation of such operation constitutes fire and health hazards.

Seventh Ward Alderman Frank C. Sass, announced Saturday that proceedings have been instituted to hold Buzzanco in contempt of court and to punish him for it. They were instituted by Attorney George A. Beck, as chairman of the local zoning board.

The proceedings arise out of earlier Zoning Board decision and order requiring Buzzanco to remove from his premises at 257 Abeel Street all of the items stored thereon with certain exceptions and cease and desist using Block Park for any personal or business uses. It was reported he had parked trucks there.

Upon Buzzanco's failure to abide by the Zoning Board decision, an action was started against him in Supreme Court, Ulster County, by Beck to enforce such ruling.

Subsequently, Judge William Deckelman affirmed the zoning board and ordered Buzzanco to abide by the Zoning Board's ruling. The instant proceedings alleges Buzzanco's non-compliance with the Supreme Court order and seeks to punish him for his contempt of that Court.

It was pointed out that the proceedings could result in Buzzanco's being fined or imprisoned, should the Court hold him in contempt.

A show cause order signed by Justice Deckelman was served upon Buzzanco and his attorneys, Timmerman & Carlson of Shokan on Oct. 19 and is returnable in Supreme Court at special term at the Kingston court house on Friday, Nov. 3, at 10 a. m.

At that time, the City and the Zoning Board, through William A. Kelly, corporation counsel, will ask Justice Staley of The Supreme court to order Buzzanco held in contempt and will seek to compel him to abide by the order or to punish him therefor.

Believes 50-Megaton Range Used

France and Japan Also Note Blast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Soviet Union set off a giant nuclear explosion today.

A Swedish expert said there is reason to believe the bomb was at or near the 50-megaton range promised by Premier Khrushchev.

A spokesman for the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission suggested caution in speculating about the explosion until more information becomes available.

The observatory at Uppsala, Sweden, said today's explosion was twice as heavy as any recorded for previous Soviet tests in the series that began last month.

The explosion also was recorded in France and Japan.

Advice of Khrushchev

Premier Khrushchev told the Communist party congress last week that the current series of Soviet tests probably would conclude at the end of this month with the testing of a thermonuclear device equivalent to 50 million tons of TNT.

Some versions of Khrushchev's speech had the explosion pegged for Oct. 30 or 31.

No Red Confirmation

A storm of protest against plans for the blast has been building up in the United Nations and *elsewhere in the world. Thus the So*viet Union conceivably could have decided to go ahead with the test ahead of the scheduled time. There was no confirmation of this, however, from Moscow or any other source within the first few hours after today's blast went off.

Dr. Arthur Baath, of the Uppsala Seismological Institute, said he found reason to believe today's explosion was of a 50-megaton bomb. But in Washington an AEC spokesman said:

"It takes a certain amount of time to analyze this thing. From what we know, some caution needs to be exercised concerning the Swedish report insofar as a 50-megaton device is concerned.

Japanese sources had estimated at 10 megatons the strength of a previous Soviet test btmb in September.

Dr. Baath said:

"If today's explosion took place in the same area and at approximately the same altitude as earlier tests, the power of the bomb must have been considerably stronger than any previous Soviet nuclear detonation in the Novaya Zemlya area.

"This blast must have been registered 'round the globe.

"The estimated epicenter of the explosion was located in the general direction of Novaya Zemlya. It was situated 1,300 miles northeast of Uppsala in the area used for earlier Russian atomic experiments.

"The explosion was registered on the Uppsala seismological apparatus as twice as heavy as the most violent previous Soviet tests on last Sept. 10 and Oct. 6."

The explosion was registered at 9:35.51 a.m. Swedish time, or 3:35.41 Eastern Standard Time.

Wagner Charges Sabotage by Two In His Campaign

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Robert F. Wagner has accused two top Democrats of trying to sabotage his reelection campaign and working "under handedly" for his Republican opponent.

Wagner, whose nomination for a third term came on the crest of a "reform" wave in the local Democratic Party, hurled the charge Sunday at Carmine G. DeSapio—who was ousted by the reform group as Manhattan Democratic leader—and at State Democratic Chairman Michael H. Prendergast.

"Since their defeat in the primaries," said the mayor, "Boss Prendergast and Boss DeSapio have been working underhandedly for my Republican opponent as their only means to make a comeback and to revive the boss system in the Democratic Party."

The Republican candidate, State Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, called the allegation a "comical camouflage to conceal the fact that this self-styled 'reform' candidate is meeting secretly with Tammany district leaders" for their help.

DeSapio declined to comment on the mayor's accusation.

Prendergast was not available for comment.

Hoffa and Union File Suit Against Meany, AFL-CIO

DETROIT (AP)—James R. Hoffa and his Teamsters Union filed a million-dollar libel and slander suit today against AFL-CIO President George Meany and 24 other top AFL-CIO officers.

The suit, brought by Teamsters President Hoffa in U.S. District Court, charged Meany with trying to "lie and steal away" members of the Teamsters Union.

Meany and the codefendants, the suit said, conspired to portray Hoffa as "perpetrator of a fraud upon the American labor movement."

This was done, the suit added, as a "smoke screen to conceal the true picture of the defendant, AFL-CIO, as a tottering house of labor which has all it can do to keep its own ranks from falling to pieces."

Estelle Vainio, 53, of Rifton, who according to an acquaintance, was injured when she jumped on the hood of his car Sunday night, is reported in serious condition at Benedictine Hospital today.

After a short distance she fell from the hood onto the pavement, he told state police. Kenzler told troopers h brought her back home and she was taken to the hospital.

Troopers listed her injuries as deep lacerations of the scalp, abrasions of the back, shoulder, knees, legs and feet.

Nobel Prize Goes To Dag for '61, African for 1960

OSLO, Norway (AP)—The Nobel Peace Prize for 1961 was awarded today to Dag Hammarskjold, who perished on a peace mission in the Congo.

The delayed peace prize for 1960 went to Albert John Luthuli, a Zulu Christian leader in South Arica, for his efforts to alleviate racial discrimination. Luthuli is the first African to receive the prize, worth 250,232 kroner—$48,640. The Nobel Peace Prize Committee of the Norwegian Storting (Parliament) last year postponed its award.

Hammarskjold became the first man to receive the prize posthumously. The U.N. secretary-general was killed Sept. 18 when his plane crashed en route to Ndola, Northern Rhodesia. He was seeking to end the figiting between Katangan and U.N. forces by negotiating with President Moise Tshombe of Katanga Province.

Hammarskjold, Swedish aristocrat who headed the executive branch of the United Nationd from 1953 until his death, was mentioned as a candidate last branch of the United Nations from 1953 until his death, was mentioned as a candidate last year after organizing a U.N. force that halted the chaos in the Congo in mid-summer of 1960. However, the closing date for the list of candidates is Feb. 1 of the year of the award.

The prize committee's statement gave no specific reason for Hammarskjold's award. The prize will be placed at the disposal of Hammarskjold's estate.

In view of the early closing date for nominations, Hammarskjold must have already been under consideration at the time of his death.

Oppose Moon Shot

HARRIMAN, N.Y. (AP) — The United States should not become obsessed with putting a man on the Moon, says the American Assembly.

Such an achievement, said the group Sunday, should not be viewed "as either a definitive test of relative Soviet and American capabilities or as a scientific or technical end in itself."

The assembly, organized in 1950, is composed of leaders in business, scientific and military life. The group met for four days here to study problems raised by the space age.

Urges Defense Attitude

Prison Workers Can't Be Right Always: McGinnis

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. (AP)—The state correction commissioner attacked a segment of the press today and said it was "high time that all of us (in prison work). . . stand up and speak in our defense."

Commissioner Paul D. McGinnis said those in correction and probation work were "always going to have failures—let's not kid ourselves." But, he said, "let us not allow our critics — whether they are in the sensational press or in high or low places—sound off as if we had to be right 100 per cent of the time."

McGinnis made the remarks in a speech prepared for delivery at the 53rd annual State Conference on Probation. Because of a hunger strike at Green Haven Prison, McGinnis would not attend. His administrative aid, Joseph F. David, substituted for him.

Several decisions of the State Parole Board have sparked criticism in recent years. One was the release from Clinton State Prison last year of Frederick Wood. Six weeks after his parole, he was charged in New York City with killing two men. Shortly afterward, Juan Pena, paroled from Sing Sing after having served part of a term for murder, was accused in New York City of beating his mistress to death.

McGinnis said statistics on the number of parolees and probationers who committed new crimes showed that the picture "is not as black as some of our more irresponsible critics would have it appear."

In 1955, he said, 3,305 persons were paroled from state correctional institutions. Five years later 8.9 per cent of them had been convicted of new felonies and 13.6 per cent convicted of misdemeanors or lesser offenses, McGinnis said.

"Are these figures we need to be ashamed of?" McGinnis asked. "Not when you consider the fact that we are working for the most part with the poorest raw material, the people that all other social agencies have failed with."

Those in prison, McGinnis said, are marked by a lack of education, lack of moral and religious training, broken homes and other handicaps.

Rehabilitating them is a difficult task, he said.

"Unfortunately, it is little recognized by an apathetic public that washes its hands when the reformatory or prison gate snaps shut behind the offender. It is ignored by a small but vocal segment of the press that apparently feels that it performs a dedicated, public service by screaming 'Why was this beast turned loose?' when given the excuse of an infrequent parole 'failure'."

McGinnis did not identify the newspapers to which he referred, but, he said, "Let it be understood that I have no quarrel with the vast majority of newspapers."

More than 200 probation and welfare workers from local, state and private agencies are attending the conference. Chief Judge Charles S. Desmond of the State Court of Appeals is to address the convention Tuesday night. The meeting concludes Thursday.

1,966 Prisoners On Hunger Strike As Tension Rises

STORMVILLE, N. Y. (AP) — Tension mounted today at the Green Haven State Prison, with nearly all of the 1,966 inmates on a hunger strike and confined to their cells in a surly mood.

Intermittently, they pounded on tin pails and raised a clamor of yells and catcalls through the cellblocks.

"But there has been no violence, or anything of that kind yet," said Warden Edward Fay. "Nobody has been hurt. The demonstration has been peaceful so far. We're in control of the situation."

The hunger strike started Saturday noon, among 300 prisoners, in protest against the confinement in isolation cells of three men involved in a fight in the recreation yard Friday.

"But the strike has not gone beyond the point for which it started," Fay said. "They're bringing in other issues, such as complaining that the Parole Board isn't granting enough paroles."

Handful Accept Food

He said that, beginning Sunday noon, only a handful of men accepted food, and that nearly 100 per cent of the prisoners have refused to take meals since then.

"Most of them have refused food since Saturday night," he said.

The mess hall has been closed since Sunday, and the prisoners have been kept in their cells.

Food carts move along the cells, offering food, but the inmates spurn it. At times, they set a hubbub of shouts, demanding a new parole board, among other things.

They also are complaining about the food and medical treatment, and even demanding a fully equipped football team, Warden Fay said. He claimed there was no justification for the complaints.

The prison is a maximum security state prison, holding major felony offenders.

Asked whether he thought the inmates gradually would resume eating, Fay said, "It's possible, but up to the present time, Ican't predict. We're awaiting developments."

Trujillos Are Reported Leaving Dominican Strife

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The Trujillo family's two luxurious pleasure yachts today were reported ferrying members of the dynasty into self-imposed exile from the strife-torn Dominican Republic.

Gen. Jose Arizmendi Trujillo, a brother of the late Generalissimo Raphael Trujillo, reportedly boarded the luxury yacht Presidente Trujillo during the weekend and headed for some Caribbean port, presumably Martinique, to catch a ship for Spain.

The four-masted sailing ship Angelita, on which Hollywood beauties frolicked with the generalissimo's son Ramfis, was reported en route to Bermuda to pick up another brother of the assassinated dictator, Gen. Hector B. Trujillo, and his American-born wife, the former Alma McLaughlin.

But despite continuing unrest and the possibility that the 31 years of Trujillo rule might be drawing to a close, there was no indication that Ramfis — Gen. Raphael Trujillo Jr., the chief of the Dominican armed forces — had any intention of fleeing. Both he and President Joaquin Balaguer have rejected opposition demands that all the Trujillos and particularly Ramfis get out.

Rock-throwing mobs continued to battle police in at least two provinces, and at least one man was reported killed about 120 miles north of Ciudad Trujillo.

The first woman dentist in America was Emeline Roberts Jones who became a partner in her husband's practice 100 years ago.

Two Are Hurt in First CountyHuntingMishap

Two young hunters were shot in the leg with shotgun pellets Sunday morning in the first reported hunting accident in Ulster County, Kingston state police reported.

In fair condition at Benedictine Hospital today are James Henry Hopper, 22 of High Falls, injured in the left leg, and Robert Henry Gerdes, 19, State Island, pellets in the right leg.

The hunters told Troopers Richard Ryan and H. G. Saunders, they were duck hunting in a swamp in the Town of Marbletown and returning about 10 a. m. when a 12 guage shotgun carried by their companion, Conrad Russell Schwall, 17, accidentally discharged. Young Schwall, who was using his father's shotgun, told troopers the trigger got caught on heavy brush and discharged the gun.

The mishap occurred about 60 feet off Mossey Brook Road.

The season on squirrels, partridge, and ducks opened Oct. 9. Open season on cock pheasants and cottontail rabbits in Hudson Valley counties began today.

Benn in Sanitarium

Frederick Benn, 20, of Clermont Street, Saugerties, who had been at Albany Medical Center four weeks for treatment of a fractured skull, suffered in an auto crash at Stottville on Sunday, Sept. 24, was removed on Saturday to Dale Sanitarium, Saugerties.

Authorities said he has been in a coma since the accident. Troopers from Claverack Barracks reported that a vehicle driven by Roger Benn, 19, brother of Frederick went out of control after passing a car on Route 9, went off the right side of the road and hit several guard rails. The troopers said Roger was not seriously hurt.

200 Visit Model Railroad Display

Over 200 people visited the opening day of the annual exhibition of the Kingston Model Railroad Club Inc., it was reported by a club official.

Visitors from out-of-state were in evidence Sunday as the miniature railroad show began its 1961 run —to continue evenings this week from 7 to 9 p. m. and next Sunday, October 29, from 2:30 to 9 p. m.

The annual exhibition offers the public a complete scale model railroad system in action—the result of 25 years of effort on the part of the local club members. Located at 541 Broadway, next to the West Shore freight depot, the "Hudson Valley Lines" features all types of railroad equipment, both ancient and modern, rolling through a miniature countryside created for some of the scenery that is found in this area.

The current show is billed as the "25th Anniversary Exhibition," and inaugurates a year's celebration for the local club as one of the oldest operating miniature railroad systems in the eastern section of the United States, stated a club official.

Condition of Brooklyn Boy Reported Serious

The condition of a Brooklyn youth, who was involved in a unique traffic mishap on Oct. 15 on a Town of Shandaken bridge, was termed serious today at Benedictine Hospital.

Allen Roviello, 16 was reported in fair condition in the hospital following the mishap.

The other brother, Lawrence, also involved in the mishap was recently discharged.

The two Brooklyn youths were injured when their car crashed through a guard rail of a small bridge and plunged 10 feet into a dry creek bed. One was injured in the plunge, the other in a second mishap within 10 minutes of the first, troopers said.

Trooper Richard Ryan and Harry G. Saunders said the Roviello brothers were passengers in a car operated by Theodore Farley, 21 of Staten Island, traveling north on the Big Indian - Oliverea Road at about 1:10 a. m.

Farley lost control of the vehicle and crashed the bridge guard rail, troopers reported.

Trooper Ryan said Allen Roviello climbed out of the car and up onto the bridge to warn an approaching car. As he stood on the bridge waving his arms, he fell through a hole in the bridge roadbed up to his arm pits and the car operated by Harry J. DeSilva of Middletown, passed over him, state police said. Allen's injuries were described by troopers as a concussion, black eye and multiple cuts, scrapes and abrasions.

Rochester, N. Y., was first called the "Flour City" because its flour was easily shipped to the large markets. Later the nickname was changed to the Flower City" because of the many parks there.

NAACPWinsMove For Court Order In Alabama Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People won a round in the Supreme Court today in its battle against an Alabama order which the association says bars it from activities in that state.

Acting without hearing arguments, the Supreme Court directed that the U.S. District Court in Alabama rule on the NAACP complaint.

NAACP appealed to the high tribunal after the U.S. Circuit court in New Orleans, La., said the complaint should be acted on first by Alabama state courts. The Association's appeal said the NAACP believed the state courts would never act on requests for a hearing.

A 1956 complaint by the Alabama attorney general led to the litigation. The complaint charged the NAACP was doing business in the state without qualifying as an out-of-state corporation. The state obtained an order from a state court which the NAACP said bars it from organization activities, and also from taking any steps to qualify to do business in Alabama.

The high tribunal issued an order which set aside the ruling of the Circuit Court and directed the U.S. District Court in Montgomery, Ala., to try the issues involved.

Accident Victim Is Now Critical

Irene Androlowicz, 22 of 76 Marshall Street, Elizabeth, N. J. one of four young New Jersey people hurt in an automobile accident early Saturday in Mt. Tremper is reported as in critical condition today in Kingston Hospital.

Two others, Raymond Glowicki, 19, of 1601 Wayne Street, Perth Amboy, operator of the vehicle and Paul Soltys, 23 of 147 Pine Street, Elizabeth, are in serious condition the hospital said. The fourth member of the group, Joan Androlowicz, 20, sister of Irene is reported in fairly good condition.

Irene has a concussion of the brain and possible leg fracture. Raymond suffered a possible leg fracture; Soltys a compound fracture of the right leg and Joan a fractured right leg.

State Trooper H. S. Rhodes of Phoenicia said Glowicki apparently fell asleep, went off Route 28 and struck a tree about 5:10 a. m. Saturday a half mile north of Route 212. Two Eugene B. Gormley ambulances from Phoenicia took them to the hospital.

Hurley Firemen Check Spread of Flames in Woods

Prompt action by Charles Myers of West Hurley and the West Hurley Fire Department prevented what could have been a serious woods and brushland fire at Bright Acres off Route 28 in the Town of Ulster this morning.

Myers who had stopped at the home of James McCabe while on his way to work in Kingston noticed smoke coming from the woods. He took the McCabe tractor and tried to halt the blaze. When he saw that he couldn't he quickly called his home and his mother, Mrs. Fred Myers of West Hurley sounded the alarm at 7:28 a. m. Three West Hurley companies, 1, 3, and 4, responded with four trucks under Chief Howard Hopkins and First Assistant Chief James Goins. The volunteers quickly got control of the flames after they had burned over some 250 to 300 feet of brushland and trees.

Forest Warden Bryon Hill of Tillson was summoned and Companies 3 and 4 returned to their firehouses about 8 a. m. to standby. The two trucks from Company 1 remained at the scene until 9 a. m. when recall was sounded.

McCabe praised the alertness of Myers and the quick work of West Hurley volunteers. He said if they hadn't acted so promptly, the fire could have assumed serious proportions.

$450,000 Recovered

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz said today activities of his Bureau of Consumer Frauds and Protection have resulted in recovery of more than $450,000 for consumers so far this year.

The consumers had complained they were victimized through fraudulent advertising, high - pressure salesmanship and "other forms of chicanery in the marketplace," Lefkowitz said.

It's The Truth!

Harry B. Bullard, Gen. Mgr.

We were surprised to learn that for years we had been misunderstanding the terms "Compound fracture," and "Simple fracture."

We had always believed that one meant a bone broken in one place, and the other a bone broken in several places, but such is not the case.

We just learned that a simple fracture is one where the bone may be broken in one or several places, but has not broken through the flesh to allow comunication between injury and external air, which could result in infection. The compound fracture is one where the bone is broken in one or more places and in addition the surrounding flesh has been lacerated in a manner that might allow infection from external causes.

And now we hear there is a new technique which enables a doctor to mend a broken bone with a "plastic glue" (for lack of a better description) so that the cast becomes unnecessary and the victim can use the arm or leg again within 48 hours!

So they are now going to mend broken bones almost as fast as we mend fractured cars. It really takes a professional "body" man to restore present day cars after a smash-up to make them look and be as good as they were before anything happened to them. Thank goodness we're able to do just that for you. And we do it economically too. Parsons of Kingston, Inc., Kingston's only Ford dealer, 300 Broadway, FE 8-7800.

TALK WON'T DO THE JOB

The last day of October is an unavoidable crisis point for the United Nations.

The crisis is financial. If the member countries do not by then come up with a plan to provide the means of support for the U.N.'s emergency military efforts in the Congo and the Middle East, then the agency will begin to revert to a mere debating society.

Oct. 31 is the expiration date for the authority granted by the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold to shift other U.N. funds to support its field force operations.

This power has been the frail backbone that enabled the U.N., under Hammarskjold's guidance, to become an active, armed presence in key world trouble spots.

Either that authority must be extended, or delinquent U.N. members must make good the $41 million they owe for the 1958-60 period to the Congo and Middle East special accounts.

In the case of the Congo, only 26 of 100 members have paid anything, and a dozen of these have put in $50,000 or less apiece.

The big delinquent, as is well known, is the Soviet Union. Overall it owes the two special funds $30 million. Its five principal East European satellites owe another $3,675,000.

The Communist move to starve the U.N.'s peacemaking efforts financially is designed, of course, to achieve what the Reds may or may not do by other means: eliminate the U.N. as an actual or potential presence standing in the way of their aggressions.

As a gauge of the agency's importance, informed observers just returned from the Congo say flatly that the U.N. force is the only real factor holding that country back from total political and perhaps military chaos.

No sane diplomat expects the Soviet Union to cough up a single ruble for this enterprise—now or ever. Indeed, it would like the whole issue of special funds made a matter of Security Council decision, so it could veto all such spending by every nation.

The rest of the U.N. countries are right at the time of testing. Either they find a way to pay for the U.N. field forces, or the much-advertised issue of a strong or weak secretary-general may become academic, with financial malnutrition giving the Reds the victory.

France owes a whooping $9.4 million on the Congo. Many Latin countries are heavily in arrears. Nationalist China never catches up. Austria, Belgium, Portugal, Spain, Italy, Greece all owe the Congo fund.

Talk is cheap. But it doesn't stop aggression or bring order from chaos. Are the responsible members of the U.N. willing to pay for something stronger than talk? Their decision must come soon.

An educator says the average American doesn't know enough about our economy. Maybe not, but taxes have forced him to practice it.

HONORING AL SMITH

The affection in which many Americans, New Yorkers especially, still hold the late Al Smith, four times governor of New York and Democratic presidential candidate in 1928, is attested by the program arranged for the coming annual memorial dinner held in New York City. The speakers will include former President Eisenhower, Governor Rockefeller and Mayor Wagner.

Much of Al Smith's popularity is explained by the reason that has caused much of Lincoln's. Both were born in poverty and achieved high rank by their own merits. Lincoln was a rural product; Smith was our first important public man to come from the congested city streets. He typified both the citizenship of the city population, and its aspirations. On this account his 1928 defeat caused grief far in excess of that aroused by most failures in a critical election.

'These Days'

THE NEW EISENHOWER

I find ex-Presidents more interesting than Presidents. Certainly Herbert Hoover has risen in stature, in thought, in independence since he has been an ex-President. Harry Truman was always a salty personality but he has a better understanding of the world today than he had as President of the United States.

Dwight D. Eisenhower is quite a surprise. He sounds as though he writes his own speeches, which no President can any longer do. He sounds free, even gay. It is not so much that he can play golf without a television camera being on his heel; it is rather that he has been relieved of the controls of high office and perhaps what is more important, the advice of his underlings. President Kennedy might well watch the development of Eisenhower as ex-President and note how much better a man does when he ceases to be enslaved by his subordinates.

The Republican Party requires intellectual and spiritual leadership. It has lost its way in the thirty years since Hoover. Today it is divided into four parts — the followers of Barry Goldwater, the followers of Nelson Rockefeller, the followers of Richard Nixon and those who hope that these three will give them back their party.

Nixon, like Tom Dewey, seems to be eliminating himself. Too astute to run in 1964, his politics would indicate that he is interested in 1968. Nelson Rockefeller is developing a strong sense of humor and is not likely to be trapped into a defeat. Barry Goldwater is building the equivalent of a new party, one which will be able to attract Democrats who are weary of the New Deal, the Fair Deal and the New Frontier and would like to see a party that reminds them of the last days of Al Smith. Barry Goldwater's strength is not in his emerging leadership within the Republican Party as much as it is in the broad, non-partisan, conservative next generation following which looks upon him not only as a leader but as a prophet.

The re-emergence of Eisenhower complicates an already complex situation. Eisenhower may not run for President again under the Constitutional limit to prevent a third term, but he might develop such political strength that he could name his successor in 1964 and finally in 1968. At any rate, he is moving upon the political stage with more agility than he evidenced when he was President.

Cardinal Spellman's Al Smith Memorial dinner is each year a barometer of political significance. There are usually three speakers, the Mayor of the City of New York, the Governor of the State of New York, and one other. The audience is very mixed, representing the leading persons in the city, without regard to faith or politics.

This year, on this occasion, Mayor Wagner made a good speech, but the audience was cold. In fact, one was startled by its frigidity, for generally speaking, this particular audience is good-natured and generous with applause. Governor Nelson Rockefeller was very human and used the occasion skillfully to give Mayor Wagner's opponent, Louis Lefkowitz, an opportunity for a bow and for applause. But the enthusiastic, spontaneous, exciting applause went to Dwight D. Eisenhower who appeared as a general, not as an ex-President. The audience was back in the days of, "We like Ike."

Politically, all this is significant of something, possibly of the resumption of leadership by an ex-President over a very split party. And should that develop into real political strength, Eisenhower's significance will be outstanding during the next two years. It will strengthen the position of Nelson Rockefeller. It is likely to weaken Richard Nixon, because as the last defeated candidate, he cannot compete successfully with the last elected candidate for the usually meaningless titular headship of the Republican Party. In fact, politicians feel that Eisenhower is elbowing Nixon out of the picture.

At the end of the Al Smith dinner, at any rate, Eisenhower elbowed everyone out of the way. He took the applause and the cheers. Naturally, the politicians were not a little surprised that the principal speaker was Eisenhower and not President John F. Kennedy. On a previous occasion, Eisenhower spoke at this dinner when he was President of the United States. This event is arranged long in advance and the date is not so rigid that the dinner could not have been adjusted to the needs of the President of the United States. There is lots of politics in that.

Penicillin Is Not an All-Purpose Medication

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The young mother with her coughing youngster on her knees sat behind me on the train. As the child blasted forth on the back of my head, she turned to the older woman at her side and said, "He kept us up all night. So tonight I'm taking him to the doctor for a penicillin shot."

Then, as I got up to change my seat after a second and third blast, she remarked to the passengers in general, "What's with him? Hasn't he ever heard a child cought before? What does he think a baby like this can do to a man his size?"

Well, let's begin at the end. A baby like this can fill the air with exactly the same numbers and varieties of infecting organisms as a man the size of the giant wrestlers seen on TV.

In point of fact, the coughing baby is an even greater menace than a coughing giant. For the latter might have the consideration and courtesy of coughing into a handkerchief or a tissue; or of covering his mouth with his hand; or of turning his head to one side so as not to spray innocent bystanders. The baby cannot be expected to do any of these things.

The considerate mother, however, can and should attempt to protect both herself and innocent bystanders by covering her child's mouth and nose with a handkerchief or tissue whenever it's possible to anticipate an upcoming cough.

Again, despite her good intentions, what does this young mother hope to accomplish when she spends hard-earned money for a visit to a doctor, not to seek advice, but to order treatment?

For the fact of the matter is that there's probably not 1 chance in 100 that her suggested "shot of penicillin" will have any significant effect on her child's cough or on whatever the condition is that's causing the cough.

This is not to belittle the accomplishments of penicillin, but to emphasize the fact that you don't shoot in the most powerful of available antibiotics unless you have some idea of the nature of the target, and some idea of the dangers inherent in your blind efforts at target practice.

To be more specific, the vast majority of organisms that cause respiratory infection and resultant cough are not killed or even damaged by penicillin. Viruses, influenza bacilli and the bacteria that are responsible for whooping cough and tuberculosis are what is called "penicillin insensitive." So your ammunition is wasted if these bugs are your targets.

And then there are the risks. For, if your child previously received penicillin, whether in milk, as a local application or in tablet form, he might have become sensitized as have countless thousands of other children and adults.

Then, the "shot" you so lightly suggested, or perhaps insisted on, might have produced an allergic reaction whose intensity could vary between a mere nuisance phenomenon and a fatal shock.

Aptheker told his audience that the struggle against Negro oppression is a struggle against the basic nature of monopolistic capitalism.

ON MARCH 8, 1961 Anthony Krchmarek, Ohio Communist party chairman, spoke at a meeting at Antioch College. He distributed a quantity of Communist literature.

At the invitation of the Marxist Study Group he spoke on "The Negro Liberation Movement in the United States." After the formal meeting, Davis remained for 20 minutes answering questions.

ON MAY 16, 1961 one-fourth of the 900 students of North Central College, Naperville, Ill., met at the college theater to hear Sam Kushner, midwest editor of the "Worker," speak on communism. Kushner was invited by the student council. He spoke for 12 minutes, answered questions for 40 minutes. The crowd was so large that it was necessary to shift the meeting from a 75-student-capacity hall to the theater.

ON MAY 17, 1961 Herbert Aptheker appeared before a meeting of the Political Science Club of Monmouth College, West Long Branch, N. J. Aptheker spoke for about 45 minutes. The meeting was held in a private home in Monmouth Beach, N. J.

The Peace Corps Postcard, Conant Study Seen Parallel

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 — None of the information in this article comes from any postcard written by a Nigerian student visiting the United States. Most of it comes from the pen of James B. Conant, formerly president of Harvard University and one of America's leading educators. It is taken from his new book "Slums and Suburbs," which was written after a first hand study of schools in the suburbs of well-to-do people and in the slums of the poor in large cities of America.

Dr. Conant says that the building up of "a mass of unemployed and frustrated Negro youth in congested areas" in American cities has in it potentialities for trouble and, indeed, possibilities of disaster. He describes Negro slums in the big Northern cities as follows:

Dr. Conant tries to deal realistically with the whole question of schools in the slums and the efforts recently made to move Negro children to white-schools. There isn't the slightest trace of bias or prejudice on the race question in Dr. Conant's background, and he believes wholeheartedly in the Supreme Court decision of 1954 on desegregation of the public schools. But he questions some of the inferences drawn from the Supreme Court's ruling that "separate educational facilities are inherently unequal." He particularly doubts the wisdom of proposals for moving Negro children into all-white schools so as to to have mixed schools.

Decision Examined

He writes:

"Taken out of context, the conclusion might be drawn that the justices declared seperate educational facilities, for whatever reason provided, are morally wrong and if supported by tax funds are illegal.

"In some there are very bad gang warfare among the boys. There are also vicious fights outside of school between Negro girls. The condition in one such neighborhood was summed up to one of my staff by a principal of a junior high school, who said even he was shocked by the answers to a questionnaire to the girls, which asked what was their biggest problem. The majority replied to the effect that their biggest problem was getting from the street into their apartment without being molested in the hallway of the tenement. . . .

With Heads on Hands

"I have walked through school corridors in slum areas and looking in the classrooms, have seen children asleep with their heads on their hands. In this situation the result of poor teachers without either disciplinary control or teaching ability? No, the children asleep at their desks have been up all night with no place to sleep or else have been subject to incredibly violent family fights and horrors through the night. Checking into one case, a principal told one of my staff that after climbing six flights of a tenement he found the boy's home—one filthy room with a bed, a light bulb, and a sink. In the room lived the boy's mother and her four children. I might add that it is not unusual for teachers in these schools to take home with them children with no place to go at night."

"Yet on reading carefully the whole opinion, I think the key sentence is the question defined by the court: 'Does segregation of children in public schools solely on the basis of race, even though physical facilities and other "tangible" factors may be equal, deprive the children of the minority group of equal educational opportunities? We believe that it does.'

"I have italicized the word 'solely,' as I presume to think it is the essential word. The justices appear to have expressed no view as to whether the pupils in a completely Negro school are deprived of equal educational opportunity if they are not assigned solely because of their race. In short, if one group of children is reparated from another group because of the neighborhood in which they live, the fact of this separation is, of and by itself, no evidence of an inequality in education. Whether in fact the facilities and instruction are equal in a 100 per cent white school, a mixed school, and a 100 per cent Negro school in a large city is to be determined by examining the schools, not by appeal to phrases such as 'de facto regregation,' with the implication that it is to be condemned by all right-thinking people who condemn 'de jure segregation.'

"In some cities political leaders have attempted to put pressure on the school authorities to have Negro children attend essentially white schools. In my judgment the cities in which the authorities have yielded to this pressure are on the wrong track. Those which have not done so, like Chicago, are more likely to make progress in improving Negro education."

Dr. Conant in his book tackles the whole subject on the basis of improving education, and, while his description of conditions in the slum areas of the United States is discouraging, the problem will not be solved by ignoring their existence. That's why it is surprising to find resentment expressed by the Prime Minister of Nigeria because an American visitor describes the facts of life in that country. The sooner the new African republics learn something about democracy and a free press—which doesn't hesitate to print all the facts no matter how unfavorable—the quicker will solutions be found for some of the vexing problems that arise as a consequence of poverty.

Miss Michelmore of the Peace Corps may turn out to be more of a heroine than a villainess because of her postcard which inadvertently publicized to the whole world the plight of the underdeveloped countries. Actually, what is needed is more frequent and more vivid "postcards" from Africa so as to awaken people, not just in America but throughout the world, to the human needs of their unfortunate brethren.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Waiving the question whether our country is a republic or a democracy, the most important fact is that we are now committed to an imperial future and destiny.

There is nothing to gain by pretending that we are just trying to herd other countries, many of them without substantial sovereignty, under our protection for their sake. We want them as assets, for their manpower and their stuff and for battlegrounds. The Russian Empire knows that and so do the countries and peoples whom we are soliciting.

We have succeeded in F. D. Roosevelt's noble purpose of dissolving the British Empire only to discover, as Roosevelt should have forseen, that we must take that Empire's place against Russia. The only alternative would be to shrink back into our own wonted boundaries and resume our old American character. Of course, that alternative is unthinkable.

The Russian Empire, unopposed by our Empire, would absorb Continental Europe, the British Isles and all the rest of the world. We would be a big single country as individual nations go. But inevitably the Russians would try to absorb us and we would have a fight. And we would lose it, barring developments inspired by the mental and spiritual longings we call ideals. Those are unpredictable and imponderable. To count on them is to back a long shot in a crap game and try to root it in by extrasensory influence.

We have lived in a cloudland ever since Woodrow Wilson took us into the First War in violation of his campaign slogan, "He Kept Us Out of War." Be it conceded for the record that Wilson did not say this explicity. But it was said on his behalf by his party in the 1916 campaign and he did not disavow it as strongly as he should have lest it cost him enough votes to throw the election to Charles Evans Hughes.

Knowing, as he did, that he would put us into war, he corruptly availed himself of the confidence of people who believed that this slogan was his own. Circumstances permitted him to do this less than two months after his inauguration.

A few days ago, the widow of his second marriage, a very old woman who revelled in her reflected glory on his triumphal European progress, was photographed with Jack Kennedy. She always was handsome, with technically "good-looking" features. She still is; in her eighties. Next to Eleanor Roosevelt, she took more bows as Madam President than any other wife of a president. This scene with Kennedy reminded us that he was promoting a scheme to raise a "memorial" to a terrible incompetent who did our country, and Mankind generally great harm.

We have lacked the alert intelligence since about 1914 to realize that the world was changing, and our own country in pace with the world. We saw Russia conquered by two individual conspirators, Lenin and a nasty little specimen from the marble-top socialist hangouts of the East Side of New York where foreign plotters in overcoats drank tea out of glasses with no gratitude for the safe and prosperous refuge we had provided them. This was Leon Trotsky. Like thousands of other refugees from the Czar, they gave not a damn about our country. And the awful Russian revolution of 1917 was imported to our country under Roosevelt. Meanwhile their adherents wrought great changes in our country. Our people were inattentive and credulous and the term "melting pot" was imposed on our generous ideals and sympathy. Under Roosevelt we rescued their Communist paradise from Hitler and now we need an empire to save ourselves from Russia.

One change has been the development of the union system to such an extent that unions are now an unconsitutional government over most of our blue-collar working people, and much of our management and industry or economy. These unions even have a state department of their own operating confidentially in our embassies under subsidies from union treasuries of the AFL-CIO the world over. They also run the International Labor Organization in Geneva but with the advantage of an official, inter-nation front.

Nobody can draw an accurate picture of our country now. Change is too fast and confusing for that.

But we are an empire just the same.

I propose a test.

Do you personally think of West Berlin or West Germany or any of the new African states with the same affection that strangely warms your heart when you think of your native state or the United States?

Or do you think of them as outposts of defense against the Russian Empire?

(Copyright, 1961, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

So They Say..

The really important tests are not those in the atmosphere or underground, but rather the ones being held in our nation's classrooms.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The handicappers already are busy sizing up how the economy is going to run the course next year—and the differences in opinion should make it a good horse race.

Almost all of the economists, government and private, and a majority of businessmen, seem confident it will be a fast track if the Berlin storm clouds blow over. The odds favor records being broken—but by just how much that's where the experts differ.

Predictions Are High

The guessing covers such things as price trends, industrial production, total output of goods and services, and a long list of prospects for individual industries.

Predictions by the President's Council of Economic Advisers are the highest. They put 1962's total output at better than $570 billion, and 1963's at a whopping $620 billion. This compares with this year's expected final figure of $520 billion and 1960's relatively modest $503.5 billion.

The views of the business Council, made up of some 100 heads of the biggest corporations, are a bit more modest, though on the optimistic side.

Output Hits High Rate

At the professional level are two pooling of minds this week:

1. The annual get-together of the National Association of Business Economists in Chicago. Their president, Dr. George Cline Smith, a senior partner of MacKay-Shields Associated, New York, says the standard forecast is for total output to hit a $570 billion annual rate by the end of 1962. But if it is to climb steeply after that, he says that consumers will have to spend more, and businessmen invest more in new plant and equipment.

2. The annual polling of economists by the F. W. Dodge Corporation, construction news and marketing specialists. There is considerable spread this time in their views. But the average guess of the 316 economists puts the national output, Gross National Product, at $565 billion by the end of 1962.

Sees Production Record

The average guess on the Federal Reserve Index of Industrial Production is a record high of 122 by December 1962, compared with 112 this September. The 1957 average equals 100.

Nearly all of the 316 see consumer and wholesale prices creeping higher in 1962. Many expect inflation to be more of a problem next year. Blamed are defense spending, domestic politics, the rising cost of services, and the stimulus of the uptrend in general business activity.

Opinions of the individual economists range between these extremes:

1. "The 1962 economic outlook is strictly A-OK. More people will have more money with which to buy more products than ever before in history."

2. "There is nothing in the cards to indicate that business activity in 1962 will reach boom levels. First, the American consumer is well stocked and bored to boot with the unimaginative goods being offered. Second, the heavy excess capacity hanging over a number of important American industries rules out a capital expenditure spurt next year or the year after. Finally, a $5-billion, or even a $10-billion, increase in defense spending certainly will add to the demand pressures but stepped-up Federal outlays will be largely lost in our vast economy."

The 316 economists themselves range widely: 51 are from financial and insurance organizations, 178 from manufacturing and other business firms, 37 from colleges and universities, 6 from government, and 44 from consulting firms or trade and research organizations.

Industry Meeting On Housing Act Set November 9

A regional industry meeting on what the provisions of the 1961 Housing Act will do to help families to buy homes will be held in Albany November 9, Malvern H. Cunningham announced today.

The industry meeting in Albany will be part of a nationwide educational campaign sponsored by the National Association of Home Builders. Invited to the meeting in Albany and in some 74 other cities were area builders, lenders, general contractors and realtors. E. J. Burke Jr., president of NAHB, said the nationwide campaign will be run for a two-week period from November 6 to 18, and many of the major cities will hold simultaneous meetings.

The NAHB is a trade association with more than 43,000 members in all parts of the country. The Home Builders Association of the Hudson Valley is one of its affiliates.

The 1961 Housing Act contains many new provisions for the financing and construction of homes. The meeting is aimed at helping builders, lenders, general contractors and realtors to take advantage of the new tools in improving the housing market in this city and thus aiding the area's entire economy.

An all-day session is being planned to give all segments of the home building industry a working knowledge of details of the Housing Act, particularly its provisions on low-cost housing Cunningham said.

Key officials of the FHA Office in Albany will explain the provisions and outline FHA rules, regulations, procedures and requirements involved. The sessions will be held at the Sheraton-Ten Eyck Hotel, Albany, starting at 9:30 a. m.

NO PROFITS—NO TAXES

Logic in the stock market occasionally "boomerangs." It promises to do so in the steel industry in the near future.

Top officials in Washington have asked the leading steel corporations to hold the price line even in the face of increased wages and costs. Steel prices exercise great influence on the national economy. In an industrial society, this industry stands first.

The word going around the country is that a price squeeze in steel will put a terrific cramp in profits and present dividends will be in danger. Hence, presently, in many quarters, investors are "bearish" on the steel stocks. And the logic seems valid.

But there is something else to look at. If profits are reduced or eliminated, tax collections will fall off or even vanish. Then what? Why, the millions of dollars in taxes that Uncle Sam expects to collect from the steel industry will fall far short of expectations.

No profits establishes a dangerous cycle. Dividends and taxes rest on profits. In 1960 eight of the leading steel enterprises, Armco, Bethlehem, Inland, Jones and Laughlin, National, Republic, United States and Youngstown, paid income taxes of $919 million!

The "freezing" of prices at the present time would certainly reduce drastically the steel-tax collections in the months and years directly ahead.

U. S. Government expenditures are steadily rising. Before this decade is over, it is possible that Uncle Sam's yearly expenditures will exceed 100 billion dollars. By 1964 they will be crowding 90 billion.

Any attempt in Washington to carry water on both shoulders by forcing corporations in the face of rising wages and costs to hold price levels, and at the same time tax enterprises enough to balance a gigantic budget will only undermine further the buying power of the dollar.

The national economy has never been in such shape as at present. The Federal debt is gigantic; the Federal budget is at fantastic levels. Borrowing has become a mode of life. Taxation is confiscatory.

The only way to keep all these things within bounds is to have a sound prosperity within the country where people and corporations are able to put enough taxes into Uncle Sam's bank accounts so that he can pay his bills.

No profits, no dividends, no taxes—these things constitute a fatalistic economic philosophy. They help to establish the very conditions the Communists want.

All stockholders in America who are alarmed by present threats to corporate profits and dividends should constantly remember that without profits the U. S. Government will fail to balance its budget.

This will necessitate more deficit-finance borrowing, which in turn cheapens the dollar's buying power and forces wages, prices, costs and taxes higher and higher.

Balancing an $85 billion budget and managing a $290 billion debt require high tax collections. A sound prosperity is the best solution to these problems. Don't sell sound stocks for deteriorating dollars.

No Accurate Account

Although military men and historians have reconstructed the events of Custer's Last Stand, they have never been entirely accurate since not one of Custer's troops was left alive and the only people who knew what really happened were the surviving Indians.

The term "parachute" is derived from words meaning "prevent fall," according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Schenck of Film Fame Dies at 83, Started at $4.50

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Joseph M. Schenck, who made $4.50 a week as an immigrant boy in New York and a fortune as lord of a celluloid empire in Hollywood, is dead at 83.

Schenck helped develop such diverse talents as Fatty Arbuckle and Marilyn Monroe and had a hand in founding four major entertainment enterprises during his long career.

He was generally an off-stage figure, but scandal once brought him prominence — and a brief prison term.

He died in his sleep Sunday at his Beverly Hills home. He had been in failing health since he suffered a broken hip more than two years ago.

Buster Keaton, John Barrymore and Constance Talmadge were among those who achieved stardom under Schenck's guidance. He oversaw direction of films starring Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin and Rudolph Valentino.

One of Organizers

He was one of the organizers of Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corp. and United Artists Theaters, Inc. He later formed Magna Corp. with the late Mike Todd and at the time of his death was head of Joseph M. Schenck Enterprises, a motion picture producing firm.

Schenck married actress Norma Talmadge, sister of Constance, in 1916. She divorced him in 1934 and he never remarried. He lived quietly and alone in later years.

Lost on Arbuckle

Schenck made a star of Fatty Arbuckle and had a backlog of Arbuckle films ready for release when Arbuckle was accused of causing the death of a girl dancer at a wild party. He was never convicted but his films were practically worthless and Schenck lost millions.

He was convicted in 1941 of two counts of income tax evasion and sentenced to a three-year prison term. The sentence was suspended in 1942 after he served four months and five days at the Federal Correctional Institution in Danbury, Conn.

Iron Mines Open As Shutdown Ends

MINEVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — The Republic Steel Corp. iron mines here, closed for the last 15 months, were re-opened today and will be back in production in three weeks, Manager William A. Blomstran announced.

Fifty men returned to work to prepare for limited production. A total of 220 will be recalled later. When the mines were closed July 1, 1960, a total of 650 were laid off.

Blomstran, manager of the company's Port Henry district, said nothing about the Lyon Mountain mines, also in his district. The Lyon Mountain mines were closed Sept. 1 and 200 men were laid off in the third shutdown there this year.

Blomstran said production here would be limited because the demand for iron ore still was light.

Katharine Lee Bates' poem, "America the Beautiful," was set to music in 1926, the line being set to the music of "Materna," written by Samuel A. Ward.

Mack and UAW To Meet Tuesday, Face Strike Date

NEW YORK (AP)—Representatives of the United Auto Workers and Mack Trucks Inc. meet here again Tuesday, faced with a new strike deadline at midnight Wednesday.

The UAW agreed Sunday to extend the deadline in order to allow both sides to review "the many issues which still remain unresolved," said Martin Gerber of the UAW's Mack Truck Council. He said the primary issue is the right of the workers to transfer with their jobs when a plant is moved.

Gerber added that a telegram had been sent to Gov. David Lawrence of Pennsylvania saying that the deadline was extended at his request and thanking him for his assistance. Lawrence had offered to mediate the dispute.

Mack truck operates plants in Allentown, Pa.; Somerville and Plainfield, N.J., and Cortland, N.Y.

A 3-year contract between Mack and the UAW expired at midnight Friday without a new agreement.

In the event there is no settlement by Wednesday, Gerber said, "The strike will take place."

Adenauer Faces Difficult Choice In Fate of Aide

BONN, Germany (AP)—Konrad Adenauer today faced a difficult choice between replacing Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano or keeping him and narrowing his own chances of becoming West Germany's chancellor for the fourth time.

Brentano has been the most faithful executor of the 85-year-old chancellor's policies, but the Free Democratic party decided Saturday to join in a coalition government with the Christian Democrats under Adenauer only if the foreign minister is replaced.

Officially the Free Democrats said they want a new foreign minister to produce a more flexible foreign policy. Party members said privately they want to remove an "incurable yes-man" from such an important Cabinet post.

"I am the only one who will make foreign policy in this government," Adenauer recently told his party's members in Parliament.

The Free Democrats' steering committee wrangled more than 11 hours before the faction willing to accept Adenauer as chancellor won out by a slim majority.

Participants in the meeting said the dispute nearly tore the Free Democratic party asunder. The two powerful deputy chairmen, Oswald Kohut and Heinrich Schneider, who are against Adenauer becoming chancellor again, resigned in protest.

Erich Mende, the Free Democratic party chief, said the chancellor offered him the foreign ministry but that he stuck to his pledge not to serve under Adenauer and turned it down.

Christian Democratic party officials said they felt Adenauer might use this as an excuse to retain Brentano, arguing that by offering the job to Mende he had fulfilled the Free Democrats' condition.

SenateTakesLong Look at Exports To Iron Curtain

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate group takes a look today at the type of goods being exported to the Soviet Union and other Iron Curtain nations.

The Senate Internal Security subcommittee wants to find out if strategic materials that could increase the Soviet bloc's war-making potential are included—and, if so, why. Two days of public hearings have been scheduled.

In the House, a special committee headed by Rep. A. Paul Kitchin, D-N.C., has been appointed to conduct a similar inquiry. It will start Wednesday with closed-door hearings.

The Senate subcommittee originally scheduled a series of hearings in September, shortly before Congress adjourned, but they were called off. At that time Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, whose department handles the granting of export licenses, was scheduled to be a witness.

Earlier this year the Internal Security unit sharply criticized the Commerce Department's granting of a license for the export of 45 precision grinding machines to the Soviet Union.

The subcommittee had called granting of the license a grave error. It said export of the machines would have enabled the Soviet Union to speed up by several years the production of better and smaller missile guidance systems.

High Falls Man Held On Petit Larceny Count

James Nickols, 26, of Center Road, High Falls Park, arrested Sunday night on petit larceny charges in connection with the issuance of a fradulent check, appeared before Town of Ulster Justice of the Peace Robert Stedge, who set bail of $100 for appearance at 2 o'clock today.

Nickols was released from Ulster County Jail this morning after paying bail.

Kingston Trooper David Wachtel said Nickols issued a fraudulent check to Acme Tire Company, Route 9W, Town of Ulster. He was arrested on a warrant issued by Judge Stedge.

Financial and Commercial

By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A few wide moves featured an otherwise dull and irregular stock market early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was unchanged at 259.40 with industrials off .40, rails off .10 and utilities up .30.

Changes of most key stocks were from fractions to around a point but there were wider moves to the plus or minus side by some issues.

Steels seemed depressed by a report that hopes for a sharp rise in output in the current quarter are fading. Autos also showed a tendency to go lower.

Some of the aircrafts advanced but tobaccos sagged, influenced by a newspaper article over the weekend, linking cigarette smoking with heart disease.

Liggett & Myers dropped more than a point while Lorillard and American Tobacco lost fractions.

Jones & Laughlin was off about a point.

International Business Macines reached another new high as it advanced more than 5. A jump of about 4 by General Foods was linked by brokers with the current tendency toward defensive issues.

Pullman Inc. fell more than 2 on a report of lower earnings. Texas Instruments sluffed off about 4 points. Amerada, which advanced about 10 points last aeek, encountered some profit taking and was down more than a point.

Chrysler, now facing intensive bargaining with the auto union, was ahead about a point.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off .73 at 704.89.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were irregularly higher in moderately active trading

Special Session

could meet for another day if necessary.

A two-day session would cost an estimated $25,000.

The session, second of the year, is the third Rockefeller has called since taking office. In August, the legislators were called to pass bills revamping the New York City school system.

Up to Majority

Mahoney, when questioned about reapportionment, said "whatever plan the majority decides upon will be the one that is passed."

Democrats have been loud in their protests against plans to eliminate four seats held by Democrats, three in New York City and one Upstate.

The delegation is to be cut from 43 to 41 members, to reflect population changes shown in the 1960 census.

By eliminating the seats and redrawing district lines to help the Republican part, the GOP legislative leaders hope to change the present 22-21 Democratic edge in the state congressional delegation to a 26-15 majority in their favor.

The servicemen's program includes exemption from state income tax of military pay to New Yorkers called to active duty.

Another proposal is special state financial assistance in obtaining college educations for children of servicemen killed or disabled while on active duty.

In addition to school-shelter construction, Rockefeller's fallout protection package includes legislation that would authorize a comprehensive study of recovery and rehabilitation after a nuclear attack, set criminal and civil penalties for sale of sub-standard fallout shelters, create a fallout-protection information service and exempt shelters from building codes that presently prohibit such construction.

Fire Damages 2nd

fire was confined to the apartment of Bernard Perelson, who was not at home. Areas of floor and ceiling, windows and contents of the apartment were damaged. The building is owned by Mrs. J. Pauker, who resides on the second floor.

Break Through Door

Slight water damage was reported on the first floor and removal of flooring in the apartment involved damaged a ceiling area below. Firemen were forced to break through a door because the occupant of the apartment was not at home.

Units from Central, Cornell stations, the Wicks and Rapid companies responded. Deputy chiefs Edwin Murphy and Julius Buchholtz were in charge.

A call at 12:51 p. m. Sunday was for a brush fire at the end of First Avenue. Units from Central Station, Cordts and Union Hose companies responded. Central Station and Cordts answered a call at 6:11 p. m. Saturday for a grass fire off Ulster Street.

When custard (in cups) is put into a pan of hot water for baking, the water should come at least half way up the sides of the custard cups.

Early U. N. Vote

first, but the sponsors were expected to yield priority to the seven-nation resolution appealing to the Soviets.

The United States has told the committee it will not stop its underground nuclear tests again until a test-ban treaty is signed and that it may have to start tests in the atmosphere. Britain agreed with this position.

There were indications something will happen this week to break the stalemate over election of a temporary secretary-general.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin told other delegates he is expecting fresh instructions from Moscow. U Thant of Burma, who is acceptable to both the United States and the Soviet Union for the interim appointment, said in an interview Sunday: "I think the atmosphere will be clear early this week."

Stock Standing Still Is Hardly Sacrosanct

Q) "I bought Eastman Kodak in 1952. I have a diversified portfolio but Eastman represents 25 per cent of my capital holdings at present prices. The stock has gone nowhere in two years. Should I hold or switch into another stock with stronger growth?" A.B.

A) This is a very intelligent question. Eastman Kodak is a fine stock but I do not consider it sacrosanct. You must, of course, take into consideration the large capital gains which you have in this stock and the fact that when and if you sell, you will have a substantial tax to pay which will decrease your capital as it now stands. Even considering this fact, it is my opinion that you are too heavily represented in Eastman Kodak. I would switch half my holdings into American Home Products (NYSE), which has shown an uninterrupted earnings rise since 1951.

Q) "I own 100 shares of New England Electric System. It has paid good dividends but the stock seems to be a very slow mover. I will have to retire in 1964. Do you think I should continue with this holding or go into a utility with a little more future?" M.T.

A) It seems fairly obvious to me from the way your question is phrased that your mind is partially made up. Apparently you're in a position to accept a little less income in favor of greater appreciation prospects than are offered by New England Electric System (NYSE). The latter issue is sound and well managed but share earnings have shown little or no change over the past ten years. I think in your position you might be better suited with Long Island Lighting (NYSE), which has increased earnings some 85 per cent over the past decade. Or if you want a relatively cheaper stock selling at a lower earnings multiple, I suggest California Water & Telephone which still seems to me to be undervalued.

Says Guard Injured

The Vopo captain in charge of the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint charged Lightner had been drinking and deliberately injured a Vopo guard by ramming him against another car.

A U.S. spokesman gave this account of Sunday night's events:

At 7:15 p.m. Lightner, accompanied by his wife, arrived at the American checkpoint on Friedrichstrasse in his privately owned American-licensed sedan. The Vopos refused to let him to into the East zone unless he showed his identification. Lightner refused and asked for a Soviet officer to be called.

Stopped Again

By 8 p.m. no Soviet officer had appeared. Lightner drove past the Vopo guards and through a zigzag barrier beyond the Communist checkpoint. There he was stopped again.

At 9 p.m., eight American MPs led by Lt. Claude L. Stults Jr., of Livingston, Tenn., moved across the border and formed a walking escort for Lightner and his wife, who drove forward to Leipzigerstrasse, round the first block and back into the American sector.

At 9:15 p.m. Lightner, alone in his car, drove in a second time, again escorted by armed MPs. After five minutes they returned to the U.S. sector.

At 9:40 the U.S. provost marshal, Lt. Col. Robert A. Sabolyk, crossed the border to make a personal protest to the Soviet officer who had meanwhile appeared at the communist checkpoint.

At 10:40 p.m., a convoy of American, British and French cars, including Lightner, drove into and out of East Berlin without escort and without hindrance.

Three Patton tanks and two U.S. armored personnel carriers drove into Mehring Square, 700 yards from the checkpoint, shortly after the MPs marched over the border.

It was believed to be the first armed American incursion into Communist territory in Berlin since the city was split into occupation sectors after the end of World War II.

The Vopo captain said grimly, "The Americans will hear more about this."

Named Unit Head

NEW YORK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz announced today the establishment of a civil rights unit in the Buffalo office of the New York State Department of Law.

Alfred B. Silverman, of Buffalo, was named to head the new unit. He has served as an assistant attorney general in the Buffalo office of the department since 1951.

Po'keepsie Man To Face Charge After Robbery

Accused of assaulting and robbing a 27-year-old Milton fruit picker of $26, Willie Lee Terell, 28, farm worker, of 117 Main Street, Poughkeepsie, was arrested in that city Saturday afternoon.

Terell was charged with first degree robbery. Terell was confined in the Dutchess County jail to await hearing before City Judge Charles O'Donnell.

Vinson told police that Terrell, with an unknown male accomplice waited in a downtown Poughkeepsie alley and hit him on the head, knocking him to the ground as Vinson entered.

Vinson was treated at Vassar Hospital for injuries suffered in the assault, police said.

Detective Sergeant James Murphy said Vinson accused Terrell of taking his wallet containing $26.

Rocky Names

governor's top labor adviser, to head the committee.

Rocky in Vermont

The governor will speak tonight at a Vermont Republican Finance Committee dinner in Barre, Vt.

Hanover said of the committee: "We expect an answer as to why such a large part of the insurance premium dollar goes into the pocket of somebody besides the injured worker and the doctor who treats him, and an answer to why all kinds of obstacles are put in the path of a worker seeking the help he needs. . . ."

Since Rockefeller has been in office, labor officials have claimed that the law has been administered in a manner unfavorable to labor. Business interests, however, say the administration of the law had been too loose. Employers pay the full cost of the compensation.

Hanover also called for an expanded program of help to workers who lose their jobs through automation. He urged a greatly expanded state program of vocational training and aid through supplemental unemployment benefits during the re-training period.

The meeting of representatives of the state union's two-million members ends Wednesday.

1 Killed, 50 Hurt As Ceiling Falls

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The ceiling of a neighborhood movie house collapsed Sunday night, plunging the fantasy world inside into a real-life nightmare.

One woman was crushed to death under the tons of rubble. Officials said 50 or more persons, including many children, were hurt, apparently none critically.

"I screamed and screamed and jumped under the seat and screamed some more as all this stuff fell on top of the seat," said Ida Montelare, 13.

She escaped unhurt but her cousin, Michael Lenz, 7, was injured. Bruised and stunned as he was led to an ambulance, Michael said over and over: "I ran and I crawled."

An audience estimated at 65 to 100 was in the one-story Nola Theater—about 5 miles east of downtown New Orleans—watching the thriller "Homicidal."

Fire Chief Howard Dey said the projectionist told him there was a sudden crackling noise. A few seconds later, a two-foot layer of plaster and steel mesh fell from the 35-foot ceiling. It dropped in one massive piece like a blanket, covering the entire 400-seat theater except for the 1 st four rows.

Heavy palls of dust clogged the air as crawling rescue workers cut a hole near the center of the rubble to pull out the body of Mrs. Bertrand Odinet, 64.

Missile Bodies Found

YOKOSUKA Japan (AP) — Forty-four missile bodies worth nearly $1.5 million have been recovered from the wrecked U.S. merchant ship Pioneer Muse off Okinawa, the U.S. Navy announced today.

The Navy said the missile bodies were en route to the U.S. Army on Okinawa. The Pioneer Muse went aground during a typhoon off Okinawa Oct. 9.

DiSalle Is Out So Ohio High in Governor Races

WASHINGTON (AP)—A decision by Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle not to seek reelection has put Ohio high on the list of battleground states in next year's 36 governor races.

The general assumption of politicians at national headquarters of the two parties here is that DiSalle looked the ground over and decided it wasn't worth the effort to run again in a state that President Kennedy lost last year by collecting only 46.7 per cent of the vote.

Whether Kennedy will give DiSalle a place in his administration rmains to be seen.

Republicans have been counting on Ohio to help reduce next year the 34-16 margin the Democrats hold over them in the statehouses. Ten Democratic governors and two Republicans have terms reaching beyond 1962 and new chief executives will be elected for four-year terms in New Jersey and Virginia next month.

New York and California head the list of a dozen states where the contests for governors' jobs will have some direct hearing on the 1964 presidential election.

In New York, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is seeking a second term which, if he wins it handily, could lead to the GOP presidential nomination.

In California, Richard M. Nixon, the 1960 GOP presidential nominee, is battling to gain the governorship and stay alive politically. If he manages to get his party's nomination and to beat Democratic Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, he is likely to be—despite anything he may say about not being a candidate—the object of the draft move for another national nomination.

Rioters Are Released

PARIS (AP) — Police said today they have released 8,500 of the Algerians arrested during anticurfew riots and demonstrations last week.

About 12,000 Algerians were hauled off to emergency detention centers in the city. Police said 500 were expelled to Algeria and that more expulsions will follow.

Rayburn Is Weaker

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn was reported late Sunday "to be weaker and less alert than he has been recently."

A bulletin released by Baylor Hospital, where the 79-year-old Texas Democrat is ill with incurable cancer, said his condition remains serious.

Proxmire Disagrees On Destroying Wall

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., says he disagrees with those who think the West should have knocked down the wall the Communists built in East Berlin.

"Invading East Berlin, which is under Soviet jurisdiction, to knock down a wall may have necessitated our use of nuclear weapons, since our troops are overwhelmingly outnumbered and would have had great difficulty prevailing with the exclusive use of conventional weapons," he said in an interview.

Two in Dispute Over Why Jobs Not Available

MASSENA, N.Y. (AP)—A Democratic congressman and a Republican senator are in a long-range dispute today over the reason for continued unemployment in New York's labor - surplus areas.

Rep. Samuel S. Stratton of Schenectady charged that Republican Gov. Rockefeller's aid to depressed areas has been "limited to big talk, glowing promises and an almost total blackout of either action or concern."

In Washington, Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York said the defense procurement policies of the Kennedy administration have failed to provide efficient aid to most areas of substantial labor-surplus in the state.

Stratton, who is touring the state in an obvious bid for the Democratic nomination to oppose Rockefeller next year, defended the Democratic Kennedy administration's policies.

The congressman in a speech Saturday, at a meeting of the Massena Young Democratic Club, said:

"You can no more drag your feet in meeting the urgent nd pressing problems of unemployment than you can diddle and dawdle in rescuing a drowning man.

"Had the governor been really interested in meeting the needs of the state, he could have mobilized a broad campaign here in the northern tier in these past six months to take maximum advantage" of the Kennedy administration's program.

Instead, Stratton said, "all we have seen is saturation campaigning and synthetic good cheer."

Javits said Sunday that only six of the 18 labor-surplus areas in the state showed any meaningful increase over the corresponding period last year.

Javits said declines were registered during the April - June quarter of this year in Buffalo and Utica-Rome, and four smaller areas, Amsterdam, Elmira, Plattsburgh and Wellsville.

He said the increases in the April-June period were in the Albany-Troy - Schenectady, Auburn, Gloversville, Jamestown - Dunkirk, Newburgh - Middletown-Beacon and Ogdensburg - Massena-Malone areas.

The figures, Javits said, emphasize the need to channel a larger share of defense procurement into labor-surplus areas and to give those areas a fair chance to bid competitively for contracts.

The couple's engagement was announced Sunday by Miss Liberman's parents, Mrs. Ruth Lehrer and Herman N. Liberman Jr.

Miss Liberman is an editorial assistant on Vogue magazine. Savitt, of South Orange, N. J., is this country's national indoor singles champion.

What is a

PROTOZOAN?

A protozoan is a microscopic organism consisting of a single living cell.

The study of the protozoan is a part of our scientists' attempt to solve the mysteries of living matter. Their findings could affect the lives of all of us in the years ahead.

For America's well-being we need all the scientists we can develop. Yet many potential scientists may never go on to higher education because there may not be room for them in college. Many colleges are overcrowded and in 10 years applications will double. We will need more and better college laboratories and thousands more of the highest quality professors.

Happy-medium size—guaranteed not to shrink!
Some cars play a cute little trick: They look nice and big from outside with plenty of length, big trunk lines and all—but the minute you try to get inside they seem to shrink. Not so the 1962 Buick Special. This great car is exactly what it was built to be—America's happy-medium size car. And it's guaranteed not to shrink when you get in or when you fill it with people and cruise all day long. This Buick Special is designed for six adult people—with hats, with hips, with shoulders and with a great desire for quiet comfort and smooth going. For 1962 there are eight Buick Special models including the wonderful new convertible, every one a Buick, through and through. You can have your choice of power plants, all with the kind of gas miserliness that wins economy awards. A Buick Special shrinks just three things: Miles, operating cost and parking space—never your comfort, your power or your quality. HISTORIC CHURCH—A 117-year-old church at New Diggings, Wis., has been granted a new lease on life. Designated as a historic building by the Library of Congress, it will be restored by the local Knights of Columbus. The 1844 all-wood church, St. Augustine's, was one of 24 built by an Italian missionary, the Rev. Samuel C. Mazzuchelli. It is the only one of his original Greco-Gothic churches that has survived without major changes into the 20th century.

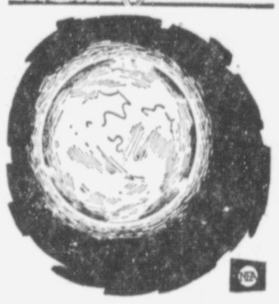
matter of Fact



Imagine if people equipped with telescopes could view the earth from the planet Venus. Probably the Earth's most unusual feature would be its enveloping bank of clouds. On earth's surface, the Venus astronomer might see bright patches for reflected water areas, deserts, and snow fields. Darker patches would be forests or unreflected water. Could he see people? Not likely, nothing so tiny.

8-Cent Increase Going to 4,500 Atomic Workers

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — Agreement has been reached on a new contract providing an 8-cent hourly wage increase for about 4,500 workers in two major atomic installations here.

The settlement between the Union Carbide Nuclar Co., and the Atomic Trades and Labor Council was announced Sunday night following weeks of negotiations during which President Kenpedy personally intervened to prevent a strike.

The three-year contract, subject to ratification by the union membership, is retroactive to Oct. 15 when the old contract expired.

The wage hike boosts the pay scale at the top-secret Y12 plant and the Oak Ridge National Laboratory to $2.75 for laborers and $3.34 for skilled technicians.

No Time to Complain

The TB patient who leaves the hospital against medical advice is one of the great problems in TB eradication today. The sick person gets sicker and meanwhile spreads his germs to other people.

But it isn't easy to stay put in the TB hospital. Compared to the length of hospital stay for other illnesses, the time in the hospital for the TB patient is a long one — often months. In spite of everything the hospital can provide to help the time pass, the minutes go by very slowly. The TB patient has too much time to think, and the weight of his illness tends to make him brood.

The least complaint or tone of anxiety from his family will be mulled over and exaggerated out of all proportion. Lack of any news may have the same effect. Something is wrong. The family isn't getting along without me. The bills aren't being paid. The children aren't getting proper care. I'd better get out of here and go home to take care of things.

It is vital for all members of the family of a tuberculous patient to understand their importance to his cure. Community agencies can help them through their financial and other domestic difficulties. The family can keep the patient up to date on family news that will not depress him and include him in family discussions on matters which will not upset him. They can help him by cheerful and confident acceptance of the fact that he or she must stay in the hospital until the doctor says it's okay to leave.

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME (Registered U. S. Patent Office) By JIMMY HATLO

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The number in NBC's "Project 20" unit is there because it is primarily interested in producing TV shows documenting the 20th century. It was inevitable that some time or other it would take up America's great and lasting love affair with the automobile.

Project 20 did just that Sunday night, and as usual gave its subject careful and affectionate attention. It used lots of rare archives film, much of it never seen before, dating back to the turn of the century. It followed the progress of the horseless carriage graphically and amusingly through the "tin Lizzie" era, but there called it quits. The musical score accompanying the hour program was a delight and, except for an occasionally try for a joke that wasn't there, so was the narration of Groucho Marx.

The program, however, wound up with a much too long chase scene stitched together from ancint silent movies, notably including the Keystone cops. This really didn't prove as much about autos as it did about trick photography.

First show of the new season scheduled to be scuttled is ABC's "The Roaring 20's." Although in its second season, the show has always been on the short end of the early Saturday evening ratings. It is expected to be replaced in January by two half-hour series, one of them a situation comedy.

Just when ABC and CBS are ruefully eyeing their prime time animated cartoon shows—none of which are doing anywhere near as well as the handicappers figured—along comes NBC with an announcement it will have a cartoon series in its evening schedules next year. This one will convert the famous old team of Laurel and Hardy into cartoon figures—a sort of projection of the gimmick which this season turned the famous old human team of "Amos 'n' Andy" into a fox and a bear in "Calvin and the Colonel."

East's Bid Aids South

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

In third seat it is foolish indeed to open a minimum or shaded bid if you can't stand the lead of your bid suit.

Thus, East should have passed instead of opening with one club. If he had, the opponents almost surely would have stopped either at a part score or gone down at four spades. As it was, they reached game and made it.

You can't criticize West for opening the eight of clubs. His partner had bid the suit.

South won the trick with the queen, cashed the ace of clubs and ace of spades, led a trump to dummy's jack, ruffed the ten of clubs, led a low heart, played dummy's ten, and sat back with a happy smile to see what East would do.

East won with the queen and was faced with a Hobson's choice. A heart lead would cost him a heart trick; a diamond lead would make North's king of diamonds good; while a club lead would allow South to ruff in dummy and discard one of his hearts. Any one of the plays would give South his contract.

How different if East had just passed. West would have opened either a diamond or a heart. At some stage of the play, East would lead a club to his partner and declarer would be held to eight or nine tricks.

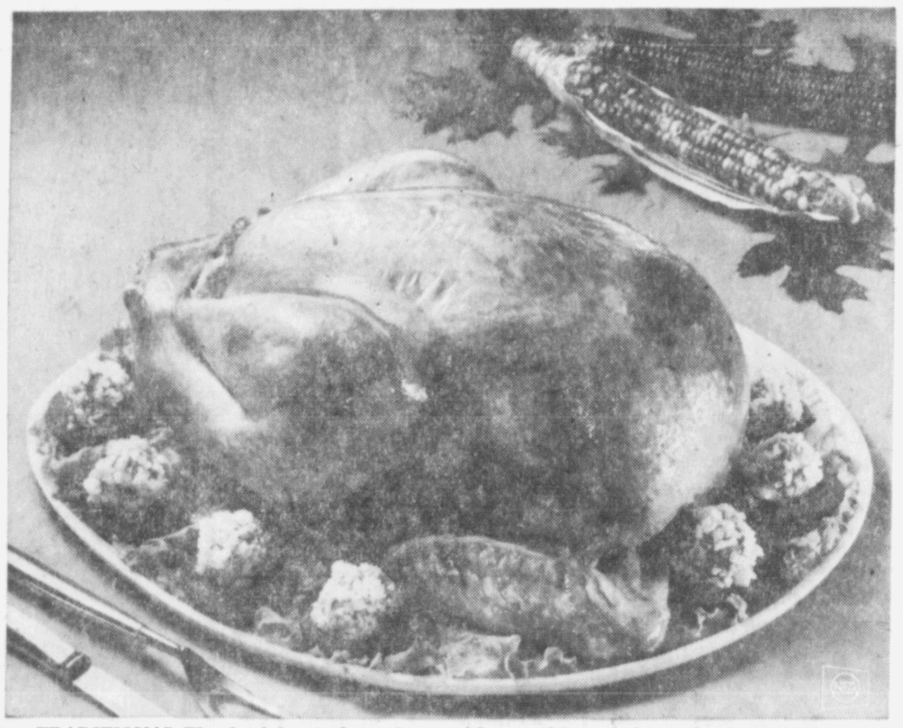
FOOD FOR AMERICANS

Tender Turkey Graces America's Groaning Board



TRADITIONAL Thanksgiving turkey, plump with appetizing goodness, is accompanied by giblet snow birds served on spiced apple rings. A fitting garnish for the lordly bird.

GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

For the great American feast of Thanksgiving, garnish the lordly turkey with giblet snowball atop spiced apple rings. The turkey will swell with pride.

Giblet Snowball Garnish
(Makes 8 garnishes)

Two hard-cooked eggs, 2 cups diced cooked turkey giblets and neck meat, ½ cup soft butter or margarine, ¼ cup lemon juice, ¼ cup catsup, ¼ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing, 2 tablespoons prepared horseradish, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 8 spiced apple rings, leaf lettuce.

Remove yolks from hard-cooked eggs and finely chop whites. Add yolks to remaining ingredients and place all in electric blender. Blend several minutes until a smooth thick consistency is obtained. (If blender is not available, put giblets through meat grinder twice; then beat all ingredients together until smooth).

Store, covered, in refrigerator several hours to mellow. Shape into 8 balls and roll in the chopped egg whites. Place each atop a spiced apple ring on bed of leaf lettuce to garnish turkey platter.

Want a few hints on how to roast turkey cooking experts of the Poultry and Egg National Board gives these tested and approved instructions:

To Roast

1. Preheat oven to 325 degrees F. (slow).

2. Rinse bird with cold water, drain and pat dry. Rub cavity of bird lightly with salt. Do not salt, if stuffed.

3. Fill wishbone area (neck) with stuffing, if used. Fasten neck skin to back with skewer. Fill cavity lightly, if stuffing is used. Push drumsticks under band of skin at tail; or tie them to tail.

4. Place turkey on rack in shallow roasting pan. Brush skin with fat. Place in preheated oven. If desired, baste or brush occasionally with pan drippings — especially any dry areas. When turkey is ⅔ done, cut cord or band of skin at drumsticks.

5. Continue roasting until done. To test doneness, a roast meat thermometer placed in center of the thickest breast muscle should register 190 to 195 degrees F. If stuffing is used, it should register 165 degrees F. at the same time. Turkey is done when meat at thickest part of drumstick feels very soft when pressed between protected fingers.

Dems, GOP Gifts Listed by Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic and Republican national committees say they received 35 gifts of $100 or more from New York residents and groups during June, July and August.

The latest records available in the House clerk's office show that 29 major Democratic gifts totaled $10,600 compared with 6 major Republican gifts worth $48,000.

Among the Republican contributors was Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller who gave her address as 810 Fifth Avenue, New York City, and donated $500.

The largest Republican gifts were $30,000 and $15,000, both from the United Republican Finance Committee of the State of New York, which has headquarters at 120 E. 56th St., New York City.

The largest Democratic gift was $2,500 from P. Bratti, 103 Park Ave., New York City.

Only one of the Republican gifts—$1,000 from H.C. Flanigan, Anderson Rd., Purchase — came from Upstate counties.

There were four $100 Upstate contributors to the Democratic committee — C.K. Love, Buffalo; J.J. Sugden, Himrod; W.F. Tellier Rye, and W.A. Kelly, Kingston.

Ailing Welfare Recipients Ask Additional Aid

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Many persons on public welfare rolls last year sought help because illness drained their savings or ended their earnings, the State Social Welfare Department reports.

The department, in an analysis of spending by local welfare districts, said 28.5 per cent of the $343 million spent on public assistance went for medical care of the needy sick.

In the aid-to-dependent-children and home relief programs, 11.2 per cent of the cost was for medical care, the department said Sunday. The total medical bill was $98 million.

The highest percentage of medical care was needed by persons on old-age assistance, aid to the disabled and assistance - to-the blind programs. The average medical bill for persons in these programs was $628, while payments for living costs averaged $657, the department said.

An average of $53.40 was spent annually for medical care for each persons in the aid-to-dependent children and home-relief programs, or about $200 per family, the department said. Payments for all other living costs averaged $423, it said.

Of the total medical bill, hospitals received $36 million, nursing homes and infirmaries $45 million, and medical practitioners and suppliers of medicines and medical services, $17 million.

In another state report, Comptroller Arthur Levitt said education and welfare had taken the biggest share of the local government spending in 1959.

He said local governments spent an average of $260.40 per resident, double the 1949 figure, as the total expenditure climbed to $4.4 billion.

Real estate taxes, meanwhile, went up from $945 million to $1.9 billion.

In Washington, the Internal Revenue Service reported that its total internal revenue collections in New York State for fiscal 1961 was $18,234,140,000.

JFK Replies to Labor

LONDON (AP) — President Kennedy assured a group of labor members of the House of Commons today that in dealing with Berlin "we are committed to no rigid formulas and are prepared to explore every reasonable avenue of approach."

Replying to a message the group sent to him, Kennedy wrote:

"I mean to do everyting in my power to bring about a peaceful and honorable solution to the Berlin problem, but I am sure that you realize that such a solution cannot be achieved simply by unilateral action on the part of the United States."

Lack of Reaction Surprises Khrush

Western Allies Uncertain About Reds Oct. 31 Blast

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)— Premier Khrushchev is doing pretty well for himself, probably better than he expected. It hasn't cost him much.

He resumed nuclear testing without getting any severe reaction from the neutrals.

He made an issue of West Berlin and seems to have the Allies floundering for a way to deal with him.

He showed the myth in Western talk of reunifying Germany by walling in East Berlin. He used the wall as a symbol of his possession.

Khrush Does Pitching

In all this, with his trumpetings and threats, he has shown a more persistent leadership than anyone in the West.

He has done the pitching, the West the catching.

From the beginning there was a fear in the West that Khrushchev might push his luck too far and create a situation which left no out but war.

Still, he was so clever in his tactics of pressuring the West that he gave an appearance of steadiness.

The most frightening thing is not so much what he has done as what he intends to do.

At the end of this month, he said, Russia will explode a 50-megaton bomb. American military people have said neither such an explosion nor such a bomb is needed.

Plans Terror Tactic

Why then do it? There seems only one answer. It's a terror tactic to show the West and the rest of the world Russian strength.

But there is danger from the fallout of such an explosion. Therefore, this move indicates a certain instability in Khrushchev.

A man who has to make a grand gesture, particularly at the expense of other people, can be considered neither truly sure of himself nor stable.

West Berlin, a Western outpost with Western troops 110 miles inside Communist East Germany, was an old problem anyway, even though a sore one.

The Russians were certain to do something about it some day. Khrushchev started to do something about it in 1958 and then dropped it.

Waited for Kennedy

He waited for the new administration of President Kennedy before stirring up the Berlin issue again.

Months have passed now since he announced he wanted to make Berlin a "free city" without the presence of Allied troops and that the Allies henceforth would have to deal with the East German Communists to get to and from Berlin.

After all this time the Western Allies are still not agreed on how to deal with Khrushchev on this one.

For at least a decade it has been a Russian hope somehow to split the Western Allies whose solidarity was an absolute block to Soviet ambitions in Europe.

U.S. Wants to Negotiate

For Khrushchev, raising the Berlin issue—since the populations of the United States, France, Britain and West Germany have varying attitudes toward war over Berlin—was a good way to test Allied solidarity.

It has worked out nicely for him so far, with nothing for him to do but sit back and watch.

The United States and Britain want to move toward negotiations. Negotiations will mean some compromise. But France wants no compromise, thinks it's too soon for negotiations.

West Germany apparently is not yet sure how far it wants to go in meeting the Russian demands, or in wanting the United States to.

Khrushchev Surprised

Khrushchev himself was probably surprised at how little bad reaction he got from the neutrals when he decided to resume his nuclear tests, even though he did it in a cunning way that throws doubt on any future agreements with him.

He and the United States had an agreement—perhaps an understanding is the better word—not to test. Then suddenly Russia tested. Because it has now had a whole series of tests one conclusion is obvious.

These tests needed plenty of preparations. So Khrushchev, while carefully planning them, gave no indication of it until he was ready to begin.

As for East Germany: The Western powers have collaborated with the West Germans in keeping alive the myth that East and West Germany could be reunified in the reasonable future.

But when Khrushchev said the West must now deal with the East Germans—and when he built the Berlin wall which the Allies did not dare attempt to pull down—the myth was exploded.

Annual Donation Day and Tea Is Scheduled For Tuesday; Sole Fund Campaign for Home

BY DOROTHY A. NAREL
Freeman Society Editor

Annual Donation Day and Tea at the Home of the Aged is always eagerly awaited by both the residents and members of the Board of Managers for it gives them an opportunity to display the excellent facilities at the Home and affords area residents equal opportunity to purchase many fine handmade articles, food, jewelry and countless other items.

This year, Annual Donation Day and Tea will be held Thursday from 1 to 4 p. m. at the Home on 80 Washington Avenue.

In a letter of invitation sent out by the president of the Board of Managers, Mrs. Frances K. Prior, she states that Donation Day is the only fund raising occasion sponsored by the Board throughout the entire year. The occasion is a traditional one and offers many the chance to support this worthwhile endeavor. Some visitors make financial contributions while others aid by donating articles for the annual sale and still others assist by purchasing the food and items made available.

Assisting Mrs. Prior with arrangements this year are Mrs. Edward DeWitt, food table; Mrs. Severyn Hasbrouck, thrift table, Mrs. Bernard Feeney, tea; Mrs. Louis Smith, donations; Mrs. Clifford Henze, handwork, and Mrs. William Ochs, publicity.

As an example of the type of programs scheduled during the year, it was announced at a recent Board meeting that Mr. and Mrs. Chester Baltz of the First Presbyterian Church would entertain at the Home on October 20 at 7:30 p. m. Julius Tellier is also scheduled to entertain on October 23 at 7:30 p. m. He will appear with his orchestra. In charge of entertainment is Mrs. Bernard Feeney, who also told the Board that many automobile rides had been enjoyed by the residents during the month of October.

In November, the Board will have to select six replacements for members whose terms will have expired at the end of the year. Mr. Prior also named a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, Mrs. Conrad Gross and Mrs. Al Mollott.

Five new member recently welcomed include Mrs. Lou Clark of Milton; Mrs. Francis Davenport, Stone Ridge; Mrs. Oscar Lawatch of Kingston; Mrs. Earl Klum, Kingston; Mrs. Stewart Maxwell of Kingston. Their status will be that of associate members.

The public is cordially invited to attend the annual Donation Day and Tea in order to make it the success it has always been in the past year.

Miss Schadewald sings first alto and Miss Trowbridge, first soprano.

They are among 70 students selected to sing in the choir, which has made annual Eastern and Western tours of the United States and Canada since 1953. In addition, the choir has made various radio and television appearances and performed twice in New York's famed Radio City Music Hall.

Organized in 1929, the original choir was made up of 45 voices, and, as one of its major functions, has assisted with daily chapel services on Hope's campus through the years.

Under Dr. Cavanaugh's leadership since 1940, the choir has become recognized as one of the finest college choral groups in the nation.

Sudden Illness of Bridegroom's Grandfather Poses Problem

Q: I am going to be married in a month and am faced with a problem. My fiance has an elderly grandfather who suddenly has been taken very ill and because of his age may not live. In the event that he should pass away before our wedding takes place, would it be necessary for us to postpone it at this late date? Ours is to be a rather large wedding with reception to follow. What would be the proper thing to do under the circumstances?

A: In this situation I do not think anyone would criticize your going ahead with the wedding as planned. Surely there is no impropriety in having a church service and there is nothing wrong in friends and relatives greeting the bride and groom after the wedding. The only questionable detail would be dancing at the reception.

Tuxedo at Afternoon Wedding

Q: My son is going to be married the latter part of next month. The wedding ceremony will be at 4:30 in the afternoon and a reception will follow at a hotel. My son is planning to wear a tuxedo which I do not think is proper. He claims that since the wedding is taking place late in the afternoon and the reception will go on into the evening, that a tuxedo is correct. I would appreciate your opinion on this matter.

A: If the wedding ceremony was to take place after 6 o'clock his wearing a tuxedo would be proper, but at 4:30 in the afternoon a tuxedo is improper.

Proper Clothes for Boy's Confirmation

Q: Will you please tell me what would be the correct attire for a boy of 13 who is being confirmed on a Saturday night some time next month?

A: Navy blue suit, white shirt, plain blue tie, white handkerchief and black shoes.

The clothes of the bride and groom as well as those of their attendants are described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled "Clothes of the Bridal Party." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to cover cost of handling, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to The Emily Post Institute, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman.

DO YOU TAKE VITAMINS AND STILL FEEL TIRED?

If you take vitamins, get enough rest, yet still feel tired —you may need more than ordinary vitamins to restore your normal strength and energy. Your worn-out feeling may be due to iron-poor, Tired Blood.

Vitamins alone can't build up iron-poor blood. But GERITOL can! Because GERITOL contains 7 important vitamins and, in addition, supplies the therapeutic amount of iron needed to build iron-rich red blood. Just 2 GERITOL tablets, or 2 tablespoons of GERITOL liquid, contain twice the iron in a pound of calves' liver! It is this rich source of iron, combined with high-potency vitamins, including essential B vitamins in 3 to 5 times the minimum daily requirements, that make GERITOL such an effective strength-building tonic. In only one day, GERITOL-iron is working in your bloodstream, carrying strength and energy to every part of your body!

PROVED BY MEDICAL TESTS!

Patients diagnosed with iron-deficiency anemia frequently were pale, nervous, irritable and easily tired. After patients took GERITOL daily, doctors reported definite clinical improvement—further confirmed by laboratory tests. Remember, ordinary maintenance vitamins can't do it! But the high-potency combination of vitamins plus iron in GERITOL can help you regain your strength and energy.

So when you feel tired, check with your doctor and if this is your problem, take fast-acting GERITOL every day. You must feel a noticeable difference in the first seven days...or your money back from the maker.

More than 220 students and their counselors from 16 area high schools attended an open house program for prospective nurses at the Kingston Hospital Thursday.

The group included 43 students from Kingston High School.

The program, arranged by the Kingston Hospital School of Nursing, included a tour of the hospital and nurses' home, and a chance to meet informally with student nurses and members of the school faculty. Miss Rosemary Pellegrino, RN, BSEd, director of the school, was in charge of the program.

The three-year course of the School of Nursing was outlined, and booklets and pamphlet material on nursing education was distributed to the students.

The hospital tour was made in groups of 10, each with a student nurse as guide. The program is an annual event offered to the guidance departemnts of area high schools.

New Life for Lisa, a documentary film of nursing, was shown. It treats the subject in terms of one young woman, through her childhood and high school years, her choice of nursing as a career, her training, and finally her participation in actual open-heart surgery on the little girl, Lisa. It was produced by Ethicon, Inc.

Members of the Kingston Hospital Auxiliary assisted in serving luncheon to the student guests, their counselors and parents.

High Schools represented were Fleischmanns, Ellenville, Monticello, Highland Falls, Schoharie Central, Dover Plains, Wappingers Central, Monroe-Woodbury, Kingston, Wallkill, Highland, Saugerties, New Paltz, Catskill, Hudson, Greenville.

Scout Troop 9, Parents, Friends Hike With Slides

"Let's go on a hike," the leader said, and for the next 40 minutes, Scouts, parents, grandparents and friends of Troop 9 climbed the Green Mountains of Vermont and the Catskills of New York last Friday evening by means of color slides shown in the assembly room of Redeemer Lutheran Church.

With slides of the boys' participation in a 50-mile hike on "The Long Trail", in safaris up Slide, Whittenberg and Cornell mountains, and in camp activities at Tri-Mount, East Jewett, Scoutmaster William Daum thus emphasized the "out" in Scouting as practiced by the troop.

The program preceded a court of honor during which three tenderfeet were welcomed into Troop 9, three Scouts were advanced in rank, and several others were awarded merit badges.

A candlelight tenderfoot investiture ceremony for Robert Bruce, George Freer, and Larry Wonderly was conducted by the the scoutmaster and members of the troop. New York State neckerchiefs were presented to the new Scouts by the Mothers Club.

Assistant Scoutmaster Richard Burns, assisted by Scouts Robert Baltz, Robert Elliott, and Robert Villielm, conducted the second class investiture ceremony for Richard Remus, Steven Ryan and Raymond Wells who were awarded their new badges of rank by the chairman of the troop committee, Harold Baltz.

Miniature pins were also presented to the mothers of the new Scouts and those advancing in rank.

Assistant Scoutmaster Robert Berger presented hiking merit badges to Robert Baltz, William Bruce, William Daum, and Paul Huth, who with their leaders, Bert Huth and William Daum Sr., also earned the "50-Mile Afoot" award for participation on the "Long Trail" hike in Vermont during the summer.

Other merit badges awarded were "First Aid" to Paul Huth and "Nature" to William Daum.

The Rev. Dr. David C. Gaise, pastor of the sponsoring church, greeted the large assemblage of parents and friends and complimented the boys upon their advancements. Service stars were presented to Richard Remus for two years and to Robert Elliott and William Daum for four years.

Recognition of new partol leaders concluded court of honor ceremonies.

Badges of office were presented to Paul Huth, George Nelson and Roger Wells, patrol leaders, and to William Bruce, Richard Remus, and Raymond Wells, assistants.

A skit, "Sleepy George", performed by the team of Burns and Berger, concluded the program, and refreshments were served by the Mothers Club. Troop 9 will continue to emphasize the "out" in Scouting with a bike hike and camping trip October 27-28.

Migrant Worker Pays $25 Fines After Collision

A 20-year-old migrant farm worker was arrested Sunday by Highland State Police on charges of driving a car without a license and leaving the scene of an accident which occurred on Route 44-55 in the Town of Gardiner.

Trooper James Kaljian, who investigated with Sergeant R. A. Smith and Trooper Harry Foster, said Adam Billy, of Philadelphia, Miss., pleaded guilty to both charges before Justice of the Peace Warren McDowell, Town of Gardiner.

Billy was fined $25 on the license charge and $10 on the other charge. Judge McDowell also suspended a 10-day jail sentence on the leaving the scene charge.

According to Kaljian, Lee Betrand, 38, of Seville, Fla., was driving his 1953 sedan west on Route 44-55 followed by Billy's car. Betrand started to make a right turn and was struck in the rear by the migrant worker's vehicle.

Kaljian said that when he and Sergeant Smith arrived at the scene Billy was not there. He was later booked by Trooper Roster on the license charge, and last night after further investigation of the collision, Kaljian lodged the leaving the scene of an accident charge.

Betrand was taken to St. Francis' Hospital, Poughkeepsie, suffering lacerations of the chest and possible internal injuries.

Discuss Local AAUN Chapter

A group of Woodstock citizens met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Harris, Shotwell Road, Woodstock, to start forming a chapter of the American Association for the United Nations.

In a short introductory speech, Dr. James T. Shotwell, an honarary president of AAUN, related how this organization was started in 1948, three years after the beginning of the United Nations, to serve as a clearing house of information about the many activities of United Nations and all the specialized agencies and organizations comprising it. Similar organizations were set up in other member countries of the United Nations at that time. It is the official instrument through which all citizens can work.

In his speech at the opening of the 16th session of the United Nations, President Kennedy appealed to all American citizens to support the United Nations in the present struggle to keep it strong and powerful to work for the peace of the world.

Everyone interested in having a part in the present struggle to preserve the United Nations is invited to join with the Woodstock Chapter. For information, call Mrs. Helen Buttrick.

Christian Science Theme Is Mercy

How to avoid the mistakes of the past will be brought out Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

Highlighting the the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment' is the Golden Text from the Bible: "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord" (Lam. 3).

One of the citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Mortals move onwards towards good or evil as time glides on. If mortals are not progressive, past failures will be repeated until all wrong work is effaced or rectified . . . The divine method of paying sin's wages involves unwinding one's snarls, and learning from experience how to divide between sense and Soul."

Work on Shelter Caves Diner and Home Basements

SPRINGVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — John Gerrity, a father of seven, planned a king-sized fallout shelter.

A contractor tunnelled out 200 tons of dirt between Gerrity's house and a diner he owns next door. The shelter excavation ran 40 feet long, 11 feet deep, and 15 feet wide.

Last Friday, the weakened foundations of Gerrity's house and diner buckled. Big chunks of stone cracked off and tumbled into the hole.

Gerrity, heartbroken, said it will cost him $2,000 to fix the foundations and refill the excavation.

"I wanted adequate protection for my family, that's all I wanted," he said.

Italian Liner Is Burned Out Today

ST. GEORGE'S, Grenada (AP) —Fire burned out an Italian liner within sight of this British West Indies port today after all but one of the 750 persons aboard escaped.

All hope was abandoned for salvaging the 17,321-ton Bianca C., which burst into flames Sunday night shortly after anchoring about a mile off shore.

Maritime officials were investigating reports of an explosion before the fire.

The rescue was carried out smoothly in calm Caribbean seas.

Chief engineer Rodizza Napale was killed and eight crewmen injured, but there were no reports of casualties among the 400 passengers.

The Bianca C. was on a regular run from Naples to La Guaira, Venezuela, with calls at ports in the West Indies. Most of the passengers were reported to be immigrants to South America.

Radel Budgets Up 15.5 PC in Four Years: Schecter

Republican candidate for alderman-at-large Ben Schecter last night told members of The Young Republican Club that "Mayor Radel will be able to write a book entitled, 'How To Raise Taxes And Still Leave A Tremendous Debt For Tomorrow' when he leaves public office."

Speaking at Downtown Republican Campaign Headquarters, Schecter said, "I tell this to you young people because you are the ones who will bear the brunt of Mayor Radel's financial extravagence and irresponsible city management."

Schecter pointed out that the annual budgets of the Radel administration have soared 15.5 per cent in four years, while the cost of living index has moved only six per cent higher.

Costs Half Million, He Says

"But what worries me the most," Schecter declared, "is that Mr. Radel has somehow found a way to increase our city's bonded indebtedness at the same time he has boosted our annual budgets by $381,579.

"In all fairness," Schecter added, "about $85,000 of the budget increase is due to higher payments of interest on the city's indebtedness.

"But no matter how you add it up," Schecter concluded, "Mr. Radel has hit the taxpayer for about a half-million dollars in less than four years by burning the financial candle at both ends."

Rail Trustees are Planning to Get New $7.5 Million

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—The trustees of the bankrupt New Haven Railroad say they will move quickly to obtain approval and guarantees from the Interstate Commerce Commission for $7.5 million in new borrowing.

But the trustees noted that even if the petition is pressed, it may be six weeks before the commission makes a decision.

The time element is crucial to the trustees, because they said that with its present funds the railroad will be unable to provide service behond December.

U.S. District Court Judge Robert P. Anderson on Saturday authorized the railroad to borrow $7.5 million through the issuance of trustee certificates.

The trustees said it was "a significant step" in keeping the road operating for "a limited period of time." Anderson said $7.5 million would keep the line going until next June.

Sudden Snow Has Many Hunters in Idaho Marooned

BURLEY, Idaho (AP)—A sudden snowstorm marooned hundreds of hunters south of here Saturday on the firs t day of deer season. Scores were feared still stranded by four-foot drifts today.

Many wore light clothing and carried few provisions, expecting to be in the hills only a day.

Two or three thousand hunters thronged to three game units south of Burley and Twin Falls Saturday.

One hunter died of a heart attack and two others were reported missing south of Burley, where up to two feet of snow fell.

"It's hard to say just how many are still stranded," said Police Chief George E. Warrell of Burley. "A bunch of the hunters went back in and we can't figure out who's lost and who isn't."

More snow was forecast today. Authorities planned air drops of food if the weather permitted. A low ceiling hampered aerial scouting and air drops Sunday.

Ground parties, using snow plows and heavy vehicles, worked around the clock.

The storm also hit southward in northern Utah where about 150,000 hunters were out for the opening of deer season.

Saugerties Trounces Wappingers, 31-0, in DCSL Contest

Moves Into Top Spot in League; Lou Spada Stars

What was supposed to be a close contest wa simply a rout Saturday at the high flying Saugerties High football team overpowered Wappingers Falls, 31-0, at the Falls gridiron.

Since Beacon was upset by Roosevelt, the win leaves the Sawyers all alone in first place in the DSCL race as they attempt a second straight title.

The contest was close for only a quarter. The visitors had a little trouble rolling into high gear in the first 12 minutes but once they found the range, the Indians were helpless.

The First Score

An attempted fourth down punt was misplayed in the second quarter and the visitors took over on the Wappingers 25. Big Al Hrdlicka then went to the two on the first attempt and on fourth down from that point, Lou Spada crashed his way into the end zone. Hrdlicka missed the PAT.

The visitors came storming back moments later after putting a punt in play. Hrdlicka dashed from the Falls 39 to the 10. Spada carried to the four and then sophomore quarterback Joe Ollinger tossed a shortie over the line to big Bill Schrimer for the score. Spada bobbled the center for the extra point attempt by Hrdlicka but Lou picked up the pigskin and took it over himself.

The home side picked off a pass by Ollinger on the one late in the second period and appeared to be headed out of danger. However, Lee Straley fumbled while being tackled and SHS guard Eddie Gunn pounced on it in the end zone for another score and a 19-0 margin at halftime.

A 20 yard pass from Ollingers to Schirmer set up a touchdown in the third period and Hrdlicka crashed over from the five. A nifty 50 yard run by Spada in the fourth period finished the scoring for the day.

With the Indians concentrating their defensive efforts on Hrdlicka, Spada broke loose time and time again for the visitors, who have now won five straight this season and 12 in a row since last year.

Coach Fred Seither cited the entire line for doing a solid defensive job on the home side. Wappingers was held to 17 yards in the first half.

Sport Club Booters Nip Poughkeepsie K of C, 1-0

Dietz Stadium Contest Ends In Big Brawl

What started out to be another Central New York league soccer tilt ended in a giant sized brawl yesterday at Dietz Stadium as the Kingston Sport Club nipped the Poughkeepsie Knights of Columbus, 1-0.

With five minutes left to play, a player from each side started to fight. Within seconds, the Kingston bench and the fans in the stands were on the field and the fight erupted into a brawl with everybody swinging. Pat Sheridan, coach of the Poughkeepsie team, said his players were assaulted by the fans.

Before the uprising, the local team had to work hard to score the only goal of the litter battle. The score came at the 25-minute mark when Toni Alexander passed from his right wing position to center forward Hans Wolf, who kicked the ball into the net. The Sport Club had several other opportunities but the visitors had a good defense.

Right fullback Alex Bruckner saved the game for Kingston with a great play late in the game. He kicked out a sure goal.

Alex Dirks, the leading scorer for the Sport Club, did not see action yesterday.

Sheridan said today he will bring up the assault complaint to the league at its meeting Saturday night in Poughkeepsie. "We play this game for the sport, not to get injured," claimed Sheridan, who said seven of his players were also assaulted last week at Endicott.

In other league action, Albany Athletic Club belted Poughkeepsie Italians, 7-2; Schenectady Sons of Italy nipped the Albany Sport Club, 1-0; Troy beat Schenectady Football Club, 4-3; Endicott topped Little Falls, 4-3 and Poughkeepsie Blue and White trounced Utica, 5-0.

East Stroudsburg Tops New Paltz, 4-1, in Soccer

After holding the highly rated home side scoreless in the first half, the New Paltz College soccer team lost, 4-1, at East Stroudsburg Saturday. The Hawks were the first team this season to score against the home side, which has won six straight matches.

Gordon Krajna tallied at the eight minute mark of the first period to give New Paltz the lead. Goalie Jay Winter had 44 saves for the Hawks in a spectacular first half exhibition. He was hurt in the third period and that ruined the visitors. They surrendered four goals in the second half.

The Hawks play at Drew on Nov. 1 and will finish their season on Nov. 4 against Danbury State.

Schneider Is 100-Lap Champion at Speedway

OLIVE BRIDGE, N. Y., Oct. 22—Frankie Schneider of Lambertsville, N. J., still found plenty of green in the rust-colored Catskill Mountains this autumn afternoon as he streaked home ahead of a 30-car starting pack to capture the 100-lap "open" championship race at Onteora Speedway Park with a $1,000 check hanging on the checkered flag.

Fifteen cars finished the gruelling grind around the half-mile oval, and with the exception of three laps, Schneider stayed very much ahead of the field. He led the first two whirls around the clay-banked track, and quickly regained the lead on the sixth lap.

Schneider's toughest competition came from Lou Lazzaro of Utica, but he dropped out on the 52nd lap, and D.D. (Rebel) Harris of Poughkeepsie, a consistent winner throughout the regular 1961 season, went into the pits on the 58th lap. Schneider had clear motoring from there to the finish, scoring his fastest time on the 77th lap when he registered 27½ seconds.

Despite the distance and the number of cars, it was practically a mishap-free, century spin. Fred Cook and Carl Van Horn went into the fence on the first turn of the 11th lap, and Don Gillette rolled over the fence on the 26th lap, just off the third turn, but there were no injuries in either accident.

Lazzaro won the first 10-lap, qualifying heat. Schneider finished first in the second heat and Harris was ahead of the field in the next one. Bob Hall of Flemington, N. J. won the fourth heat, while the consolation event to Robbie Katary of Rome.

Onteora closes out the 1961 season Oct. 29, next Sunday, with three qualifying heats, a consolation and 25-lap feature.

Grand Prix This Weekend At Clintondale Kart Track

Kart Wheelers Raceway in Clintondale will be the scene of a Grand Prix National this weekend and four class winners will earn a trip to Nassau to participate in the world championship of karting.

The program of events includes registration and safety inspection from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturday, practice from 11 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., time trials from 12:30 to 6 p. m. and a Halloween Kart Ball on Saturday night.

Competition racing begins on Sunday, 12:30 p. m. All accepted entries will run three main event heats. The first heat will be determined by the fastest time lap from Saturday, starting on the pole. The second two heats will be determined by the motocross system and the total points from the three main events will determine the championship.

Grand prix international rules will be in effect and no fuel or addities will be permitted. Racing will held on the half-mile championship black top course with 13 turns.

There are facilities on the grounds, including swimming pools, motel, hotel, restaurant, children's playground. The Raceway is located on Routes 44 and 55 in Clintondale. Tony Lucas and Mickey Orphan are the hosts for the weekend races.

Rod Whittaker President of Esopus Legion Little League

Rodney Whittaker was elected president of the Town of Esopus Post 1298 Legion Little league at a recent meeting at the post home in Port Ewen.

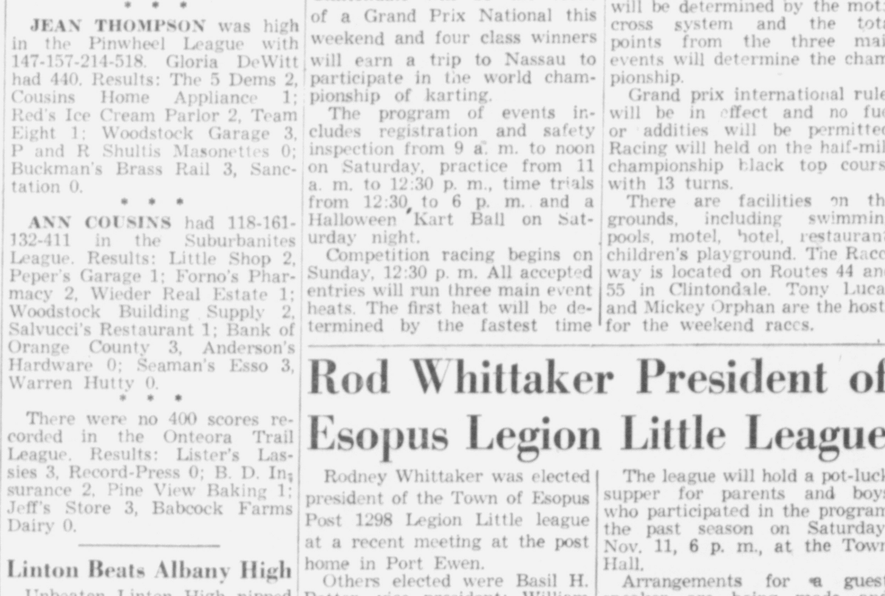
Others elected were Basil H. Potter, vice president; William Barkley Jr., secretary-treasurer and Milton Tsitsera, player agent.

Team managers for the coming season will be Frank Fede, Charles Landi, Charles Webster, Fred Linnartz and Herb Ferguson.

The league will hold a pot-luck supper for parents and boys who participated in the program the past season on Saturday, Nov. 11, 6 p. m., at the Town Hall.

Arrangements for a guest speaker are being made and awards will be given the winning teams of the past season.

A special meeting of the league will be held on Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. at the Legion Home in Port Ewen. Organizational plans will be made for the coming season.



PENN STATE STEPS OUT — Penn State's halfback, Don Jonas (14), steps out for a gain in first period against Syracuse at University Park, Pa., Oct. 21, setting up a first down on the next play and leading to a State touchdown. Colgate, Yale Game Upstate Grid Feature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Revived Colgate, again the scourge of the Ivy league, will attempt Saturday to extend its shutout streak against Ivy opponents to three when it meets Yale in The Bowl.

Colgate blanked Princeton, 15-0 Saturday in one of six shutout involving Upstate New York football teams. Syracuse was on the short end of a 14-0 score against Penn State.

Cornell, only team to beat Colgate this year, was humbled 12-0 by Yale.

Other scores:

Vermont 18, Rochester 0; Southern Connecticut 21, Ithaca 0; St. Lawrence 35, Norwich 0; Alfred 16, Hobart 13; Buffalo 30, Temple 3; Union 10, Rensselaer Poly 8, and Cortland State 27, Kings (Pa.), 8.

Colgate, in the midst of a rebuilding program under Coach Alva Kelley, was shut out 34-0 in the opening game by Cornell, which has not won since.

The Red Raider defense has felled, however, cutting off Bucknell, Harvard and Princeton without a score in three victories.

Many Injuries

Syracuse, which meets Holy Cross Saturday, took a battered backfield against Penn State. Quarterback Galen Hall probed the reserves with passes, throwing for eight straight completions in the first half. He passed for both Penn State touchdowns.

Only Ernie Davis of the regular backfield played for Syracuse, which has six players out with broken hands. Sophomore Walt Sofsain did the quarterbacking for Syracuse.

Penn State keyed its defenses to Davis, and held him to 36 yards in 114 carries.

The defeat was the second for the Orangemen, who had been ranked as the best in the East in Lambeth Trophy voting.

Yale, defending Ivy champion, visited Ithaca with three sophomores in its backfield, two scored. Randy Egloff ran 17 yards in the second period for one touchdown and Lynard Hinojosa raced 25 yards in the closing minutes of the game for the other. Dick Niglio, the third soph, led all Yale ball carriers with 66 yards in 17 carries.

Cornell will travel to Princeton Saturday.

Other games:

Alfred at Grove City, Pa.; Buffalo at Connecticut; Brockport State at Cortland State ;Hobart at Union; Carnegie Tech at Rochester; St. Lawrence at Hamilton; Ithaca at C. W. Post; and Middlebury at Rensselaer Poly.

New Paltz Nips Rondout; Marlboro Stops Onteora, 33-13

Huguenots Stay Unbeaten With 13-6 Verdict

Driving towards an unbeaten season, New Paltz Central threw a rock ribbed defense against Rondout Valley and made two touchdowns stand up in a 13-6 UCAL decision at the Marbletown school field in Stone Ridge.

The home side unfurled a long drive in the opening stanza and quarterback Biff Longfield climaxed it with a plunge from the three. He then pegged to Clayt Whitted for the point.

The Ganders moved to the New Paltz four in the second session but a fumble thwarted the bid. An interception of a Rondout pass by Whitted in the same period halted another threat.

Longfield, an outstanding quarterback, passedto Ken Freer, the lanky end, to set up a score in the third period. Tom Weisz took it in from the four.

The Ganders struck in the final period when Pete Green took a 20 yard scoring pass from quarterback Jim Brush. However, they were stymied in other scoring efforts by their own fumbles and by an alert New Paltz defense.

Bears Stop 'Frisco Shotgun; Giants, Eagles Keep Winning

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who forgot to load the shotgun?

That was the big question in the National Football League today after the Chicago Bears completely muffled San Francisco's high-powered shotgun offense and knocked the 49ers out of a share of the Western Conference lead with a 31-0 walloping.

Clicking with an effective aerial combination with castoff quarterback Billy Wade pitching to rookie end Mike Ditka, the Bears moved smoothly Sunday against the usually stubborn 49ers defense and shackled San Francisco's three-barrled shotgun with a 5-2-4 defensive deployment.

Chicago allowed the 49ers, who had averaged over 40 points in three previous games, to penetrate past midfield only once while Wade's accurate passes found their target for four Chicago touchdowns. Ditka grabbed two—covering 47 and 15 yards.

The defeat left the 49ers and Bears with 4-2 records, a game behind the first-place Green Bay Packers, who whipped the Minnesota Vikings 33-7 and may have located a replacement for Army-bound Paul Hornung in hard-running Tom Moore.

Philadelphia's league champion Eagles rolled to a 42-7 victory over Dallas and remained in a tie for the top spot in the Eastern Conference with the New York Giants, 24-14 winners over the Los Angeles Rams.

Groza Boots Three

Cleveland (4-2) stayed one game back of the Eastern leaders by beating Pittsburgh's ambitious Steelers 30-28 with the key help of Lou Groza's three field goals. Baltimor edged Detroit 17-14 and St. Louis blanked Washington, the only winless team in the circuit, 24-0.

Moore averaged 9.9 yards in 16 carries after entering the game for the Packers (5-1) in the first quarter when Hornung league leading scorer to report for active duty Oct. 30, aggravated a knee injury. Hornung, however, kept at his kicking duties against the Vikings (1-5), and booted field goals of 13, 18, 17 and 16 yards plus three extra points to run his point total to 92.

The Eagles (5-1) used the bull-like charges of Billy Barnes and the passing of Sonny Jurgensen to outlcass the Cowboys (3-3).

Conerly Ices Drive

With the Giants (5-1) trailing 14-10 in the fourth quarter, old reliable Chuck Conerly, benched for Y.A. Tittle earlier this season, passed 10 yards to Kyle Rote and 37 to Del Shofner for the clinching score against the Rams (1-5).

Bobby Mitchell's scored three TDs on short runs for the Browns (4-2), but it was Groza's third field goal—a 12-yarder in the routh quarter—that subdued the Steelers (1-5).

Steve Myhra booted a 45-yard field goal with eight seconds remaining as the Colts (3-3) came from behind in the final period and edged the Lions (3-3).

Ralph Guglielmi, who came to the Cards from Washington, passed for two scores as St. Louis (3-3) handed the Redskins (0-6) their second shutout in succession and their 14th loss in a row over a two-season span.

Chargers Top Oakland In AFL Game, 41 - 10

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

San Diego's Chargers undoubtedly favor a change in coaches—for some other team. Especially a team that could do them some good as a result.

Not that San Diego needs any help in the American Football League race since it has won all its games. But when Houston beat Dallas 28-7 through the inspiration of a new coach, it virtually wrapped up the Western Division championship for the Chargers.

With seven games to play San Diego is 3½ games ahead of second-place Dallas.

San Diego clouted Oakland 41-10 Sunday for its seventh straight league triumph. Dallas took its worst licking in its AFL tenure when Houston, directed by new coach Wally Lemm who succeeded the fired Lou Rymkus, broke the Texan hex.

Blanda Gets Hot

The first thing Lemm did was to bring George Blanda off the bench, where Rymkus had sat him, and let the pro veteran pass for three touchdowns and kick a 53-yard field goal. It was just one yard under the league record of 54 yards set by George Fleming of Oakland against Denver Oct. 1.

Oakland took the lead on San Diego with a 28-yard pass from Tom Flores to Bob Coolbaugh but Paul Lowe ripped off a couple of long touchdown runs to shoot the Chargers out front. They added to it steadily as they went along.

While the status quo was maintained in the Western Division all was turmoil in the Eastern. Leading New York took a 27-10 whipping from Denver and Boston clubbed Buffalo 52-21 and that brought about a tie for the lead between New York and Boston. Buffalo is only a half-game back and Houston the same although fourth in percentage.

Denver shoved over 17 points in the last quarter to break a 10-10 tie and go on to victory.

Versatile Gino Cappelletti scored 16 points in spearing Boston's triumph and it increased his league scoring lead. He now has 96 points—42 more than second-place Jack Spikes of Dallas.

Manila, Philippines —Johnny Gonsalves, 141, Oakland, Calif., outpointed Roberto Cruz, 141½, Manila, 10.

Montreal Leads NHL Standings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Hockey League is beginning to take on a more familiar look, with Montreal back in its accustomed spot atop the standings.

The powerful Canadiens only have a share of the spot—surprising New York owns the other half of the No. 1 position—but the Canadiens have played three fewer games than the Rangers.

A pair of victories over the weekend, a 6-2 romp over unhappy Boston Saturday and Sunday's 3-2 comeback over Chicago, boosted Montreal into a tie with New York, each with 9 points.

And while the onrushing Canadiens were keeping their unbeaten record intact, New York was able to pick up only one point in two games and lost the services of its regular goalie, Gump Worsley.

The stubby netminder was hospitalized in Detroit with a severe concussion midway through the Rangers' 4-4 tie with the Red Wings Saturday. He was knocked off his feet and struck his head on the ice.

The Rangers hasily summoned Marcel Paille from Springfield of the American Hockey League and he will remain in the New York nets until Worsley can return.

Paille was victimized by lack of support and beaten by Detroit 5-4 in New York Sunday night.

Spartans Nearing Grid Title

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the college football season at the halfway point, Michigan State's big and brusing Spartans today headed the list of candidates for the national championship.

Duffy Daugherty's club has five Big Ten opponents in a row on its schedule starting with Indiana this Saturday. But it's unlikely that the Spartans will see another team as rough as Notre Dame.

Michigan State (4-0) just did beat the Irish, 17-7, Saturday after sputtering along well into the third quarter. Notre Dame (3-1) scored the first touchdown of the year against Daugherty's behemoths.

The big factor in Michigan State's favor is the schedule. The Spartans do not meet either Iowa, (4-0) which steamrolled Wisconsin, 47-15, to remain one of the nine major teams still undefeated and untied, or Ohio State, (3-0-1). The Buckeyes had a tough time with Northwestern Saturday, finally pulling it out, 10-0.

Iowa and Ohio State still are very much in the running for the national title, but they come to grips on Nov. 4.

Mississippi (5-0), Texas (5-0) and Alabama (5-0) also have a chance of coming out or top. Ol' Miss and 'bama, two Southeastern Conference powers, do not tangle, so theres no chance of killing each other off.

'Ole Miss Scores

Mississippi, knocked out of first place in the AP poll by Michigan State, clobbered Tulane Saturday night, 41-0. Texas smother Arkansas, 33-7, and Alabama cut down Tennessee, 34-3 in a regional TV game. This week Mississippi engages Vanderbilt, Texas takes on Rice, and Alabama meets Houston.

On Nov. 4, Mississippi must play Louisiana State (4-1), another big boy of the SEC, which whipped Kentucky, 24-14. Alabama does not have LSU scheduled, either. However, Alabama plays Georgia Tech, ranked No. 8, and a narrow 7-6 winner over Auburn.

Besides Michigan State, Mississippi, Texas, Iowa and Alabama, the other major teams with perfect records include Rutgers, (4-0) Colorado (4-0), Memphis State (6-0) and Bowling Green (5-0).

Dartmouth, Detroit and Villanova all toppled from the all-winning list, over the weekend.

Middletown Gets 26-7 Win OverNFA

Unbeaten Middletown rolled to a four touchdown lead in the first half and smothered Newburgh Free Academy, 26-7, in a DUSO league game Saturday at the Hilly City gridiron. The win was the fourth straight for the Middies.

Halfback Ronnie Smith scored from the two, 14 and 45 to pace the winners. Bill Gray, an outstanding defensive performer, ran 45 yards after taking a fumble out of the air.

Newburgh scored the first touchdown of the season on the Middies when Jim Hill went over from the two in the final period.

Vince Caserto Gets Four TDs To Lead Dukes

Sophomore halfback Vince Caserto scored four touchdowns at Dietz Stadium Saturday to lead Marlboro to a 33-13 verdict over a fired up Onteora Central school club. The win keeps the Dukes in the running for the UCAL crown.

Caserto scored in the first quarter on a 20 yard run, tallied in the second period on a 15 yard dash, went 60 yerds with an intercepted pass in the third period and dashed 75 yards in the fourth quarter. He was simply superb.

The Indians made things interesting. After Caserto had scored his first touchdown, Coach Bob Ryan's charges came back to knot the score with Wally Hereth catching a 15 yard pass from quarterback George Loveless for the payoff. Eric Stoutenburg then ran for the tying point.

Caserto tallied again to start the second period and the lead was 14-7 in favor of the visitors as Brian Collins caught a pass from Vic Mandia for the PAT.

An Onteora pass fell into the grasp of Caserto in the third quarter and the busy halfback traveled 60 yards for the tally. Mandia then targeted Dave Monroe for the extra point.

The Indians struck in the late stages of the third quarter when Joe Guglielmetti drove over from the three to climax a long drive. This only served to give Caserto another chance and he dashed 75 yards after getting the kickoff.

The visitors clinched matters in the final period as Mandia hit George Fuhrmann with a pass from the 20.

Both sides were penalized heavily during the afternoon. It was a rough game.

He was aided by Tim Bilyeu (652), Frank Brink (627) and Dick Exner (623). Jack Ferraro led the Jones boys with 253-213-231-697. Roosevelt Nips Beacon Club, 12-8

Shocking the visitors with a 6-yard touchdown play on the first try from scrimmage, Roosevelt Central upset Beacon, 12-8, in a DCSL feature Saturday at the Hyde Park gridiron.

Sophomore George Platter pegged to end Pete Brenner for the score and then Jim Fulmer took over for the Presidents in a brilliant performance. He led a 66 yard surge in the third period and scored from the 12 to clinch the verdict.

Beacon, which had won four straight in a bid for an unbeaten season, picked up a safety in the third quarter and a late touchdown when Mike Devine pegged 60 yards to Bert Exum. Otherwise, the game belonged to Roosevelt.

Archie Moore Set To Fight Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sugar Ray Robinson had his fling last week. Now it's the turn of light heavyweight champion Archie Moore and lightweight king Joey Brown, another pair of antique gladiators.

Moore, who will be 45 (by his count) on Dec. 13, ends a four-months vacation tonight by taking on Pete Rademacher in a non-title ten rounder in Baltimore. Archie hasn't fought since he whipped young Giulio Rinaldi last June in defense of his piece of the 175-pound crown.

Rademacher, 33, the 1956 Olympic heavyweight champion, was stopped in his last two fights by Doug Jones and George Logan.

Brown, 35 and a pro 15½ years, at least, makes the 11th defense of his 135-pound crown at Manila Saturday night. Old Bones takes on Bert Somodio, a Filipino billed as the "Nursery Kid," in the 36,000-seat Areneta Stadium just outside of Manila.

Bobo Olson, the former middleweight champion, meets Sixto Rodriguez of San Anselmo, Calif., in a light heavyweight ten rounder at San Francisco tonight.

Minutemen Hold Practice After Seizure of Arms

COLLINSVILLE, Ill. (AP)—The "Minutemen" held what they called successful guerrilla field maneuvers Sunday despite the confiscation of part of their arsenal.

One of the group's leaders, Rich Lauchli, 35, a onetime paratroop sergeant from Collinsville, was arrested and some heavy weapons were seized Saturday.

Eleven persons, including Lauchli, a woman and a teenage boy slogged over cold, fog-shrouded wooded ground in a two-hour field exercise Sunday.

Leader Is Arrested

National leader Robert DePugh 37, of Norborne, Mo., and Lauchli agreed the drill was successful.

Lauchli is charged with "willing and unlawful possession of illegal firearms." His arrest came upon the complaint of Philip Taylor, Shiloh, Ill., township supervisor, after the group set up a weapons display in Shiloh.

Lauchli, free on $1,000 bond, is to appear in magistrate's court Nov. 3.

Seized with Lauchli were two Browning automatic rifles, a Browning machinegun and an M4 automatic rifle. He brought a 60 mm mortar and a 5.7mm anti-tank rifle for Sunday's demonstration.

Practice Attack

The minutemen practiced an attack on an enemy outpost, movement behind a screen from smoke grenades and a skirmish line charge.

DePugh's wife, mother of five children, charged with the rest, lugging an automatic rifle.

DePugh said similar maneuvers have been held in San Antonio, Tex., Omaha, Neb., Philadelphia, Columbus, Ohio, Kansas City, Mo., and Newark, N.J.

Lauchli described his arrest as a "misunderstanding about the nature and purpose of our organization."

He said he had legally bought the weapons and they are "used solely for instruction. All are deactivated and none of our members have any ammunition for them."

DePugh said "we're just loyal American citizens who are tired of being pushed around by the Communists and who want to do something to stem the tide of their advance."

DePugh says he and nine other men founded the Minutemen in June 1960 and it has grown to a nation-wide membership of some 25,000.

Early Man

Until 1959, paleontologists believed mankind to be 500,000 years old. Then Dr. L. S. B. Leakey reported the discovery in Tanganyika of an earlier man who lived and hunted on the shores of a long-vanished lake some 600,000 years ago.

Pharmacal Firm Offers $100,000 to Hartwick

Norwich Pharmacal Company of Norwich, has made a challenge subscription in the amount of $100,000 to Hartwick College, Oneonta, to go toward the construction of a new science building, according to an announcement made today by President Frederick M. Binder.

Hartwick is engaged in a campaign to secure sufficient funds for a much-needed science building. The enrollment at the college has more than doubled in recent years and the present science facilities which have not been increased since the college was founded in 1928 are entirely inadequate.

Dr. Binder, in referring to the challenge subscription of the Norwich firm said: "We accept this challenge with deep appreciation and shall do our best to meet it. We feel honored that the Pharmacal Company has shown an interest in the future of our college by taking this challenge subscription. The generous offer inspires us to continue our campaign with vigor and confidence."

Three Are Injured In Two Accidents

Two persons were reported injured in a two-car mishap on the Boulevard early today and one reported injuries after another on Broadway Sunday.

Lillian Mackey, 29, of Delray Beach, Fla. reported an injury of the left arm. She drove a car headed south on Washington Avenue, and the other was operated east on the Boulevard by Charles H. Port, 52, of 90 First Avenue, who reported injuries of the left eye, leg and shoulder.

Both were taken to Kingston Hospital by Fatum ambulance, where Port was treated and discharged, and the woman was admitted. Her condition was reported as fair today. Sgt. Thomas Tomshaw, Detective Albert Hutton with Officers Thomas Carpino and Lewis Keator investigated.

Barbara Mertes, 17, of 10 VanBuren Street, suffered back and neck injuries in the Broadway mishap reported at 9 a. m. Sunday. She was treated by a doctor.

Police said the one car was driven by Donald Robins, 25, of 155 O'Neil Street, and the other by Wayne Burhans, 20, of 156 Pearl Street. Officer Gerald Every investigated.

UAW Local Seeks Second Ballot on Chrysler Terms

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union was pushing for local-level contract settlements with Chrysler Corp. today under the cloud of a new threat to the union's profit-sharing agreement with American Motors Corp.

UAW negotiators represent 60,000 Chrysler workers.

In Milwaukee an official of the UAW's Local 75, which earlier approved the UAW-American Motors pact, said several hundred members now were demanding a second vote on the contract.

The 9,000-member local approved the contract Oct. 1. The request for a second vote came following a meeting Friday night. A spokesman for the local said a matter of principle, ather than opposition to items in the contract, brought the request.

The UAW already has ordered a second election for 12,000-member Local 72 at the Kenosha, Wis., AMC plant. Local 72 rejected the new contract by a narrow margin Oct. 8. The rejection by Local 72 was over working conditions, such as wash-up time, and not the profit-sharing phase of the contract.
